Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Memoirs of an Old Warrior Dónal Ó hEalaithe,2014-03-14 Jamie Moynihan had the unique distinction of being officer commanding the group of Volunteers who carried out the FIRST armed attack on crown forces in Ireland during the War of Independence at the Mouth of the Glen in Muskerry on 7 July 1918 and also of the volunteers who carried out the LAST armed attack of that war at C im Carraige Carriganima at 3pm on the day of the Truce 11 July 1921 This is a gripping and detailed account of the War of Independence in Muskerry and in the Mid Cork area that will capture the imagination of the reader It covers many events not detailed elsewhere including the hijacking of Sliabh na mBan the armoured car in which Michael Collins was later shot and the Battle of Ballyvourney the Rath attack and the burning of the courthouse It also includes a detailed account of Cumann na mBan in the region several statements by some of the key participants in events of the time and details of the intelligence and communication systems and chain of command used by the rebels It has been compiled from Moynihan s extensive records of the time and will be of huge interest to anyone wanting to find out more about this turbulent time in Ireland s history The Monday review , Sheppard's Book Dealers in North America ,1996

Anadarko N. Dale Talkington,Pauletta Hart Wilson,1999 Clippings from the Anadarko daily news concerning the Anadark High School class of 1951 their neighbors and contemporaries Special Use Airspace, 7400.8G, September 1, 1999, (ORDER). United States. Federal Aviation Administration,1999 Spiritcarvers Antonella Sarti,2022-06-08 In a land caught between the sea and cloud where the natural landscape still refuses civilization there are those the composers of words tellers of tales that help shape the minds of the people that live on its shores They are spiritcarvers New Zealand writing today is engaging in an intent struggle to subvert multiple shapes into voices These interviews as a record of biographical orature are shaped into presenting the figure of the storyteller through memory and language explorations of how we imagine and create ourselves with and into words Here we encounter the dichotomy of fiction and non fiction myth and consensual reality imagination and truth do we live within our own selected fictions Identity is shaped by the authors sense of displacement as well as of belonging meeting otherness with dispossession discovering connection through isolation Among the focal points of the interviews are the role of women s writing Maori writing interrelations among different cultures and the influence of literary and oral tradition within New Zealand The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner,1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature Warrior Generation 1865-1885 Richard Fulton,2020-07-09 Richard Fulton s Warrior Generation 1865 1885 fundamentally rethinks the efficacy of an institutional drive among influential middle class opinion leaders to militarize lower class boys in Victorian Britain He contends that instead of engendering the desired cultural militarism as has been commonly argued their push had merely contributed to a fast developing culture of adventure and masculinity Challenging this popular assumption Fulton carefully reexamines many of the oft cited touchstones of militaristic influence on lower class boys deeply assessing their actual effects on the behaviours and cultural practices of this generation He explores a range of themes from among others the propagation of the military s message in school curricula and its glorification in students textbooks to the military s heroic depiction and ubiquitous presence in lower class boys entertainment and popular media Books in Print ,1991 The Diary And Path Of The Warless Warrior Mike Jones,2011

Embedded in America: The Onion Complete News Archives Carol Kolb,Amie Barrodale,2005 An anthology encompassing hundreds of articles from October 2003 through November 2004 including Catholic Church Condemns Metrosexuality and Documents Reveal Gaps in Bush s Service as President A Topographical Description of Such Parts of North America as are Contained in the (annexed) Map of the Middle British Colonies & in North America Thomas Pownall,1776 Whole Men Kai Jensen,1996 Kai Jensen takes a provocative look at masculinity in New Zealand literature He argues that New Zealand writing around the Second World War was shaped by excitement about masculinity as a way of challenging society Inspired partly by Marxism writers such as A R D Fairburn Denis Glover John Mulgan and Frank Sargeson linked national identity to the ordinary working man or soldier and attempted to merge artistic activity and manliness in a new ideal the whole man This masculine excitement forged a literary and intellectual culture which was powerful for thirty years and which discouraged women writers Jensen suggests that the aftermath of masculinism still influences the way New Zealand intellectuals see themselves and that the masculine tradition survives in the writing of Owen Marshall Sam Hunt Maurice Shadbolt and even Maurice Gee At the same time he argues that masculinism underwent a process of change after its high point in the 1940s Frank Sargeson s closeted homosexuality posed a complex problem for the masculine tradition and its historians and James K Baxter s symbolic Jungian poetry was also hard to reconcile with the idea that men s writing must be based on robust experience Yet Baxter prepared the masculine tradition for the 1960s and 1970s by renovating the whole man as bohemian lover Whole Men is not just about one literary movement but about how literary culture works and how New Zealand intellectuals construct their identities The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner,2015-11-17 This reader s guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book
