Money Sex And Power Toward A Feminist Historical Materialism:

Money, Sex, and Power Nancy C. M. Hartsock, 1983 Estudio de teoria feminista que se centra en lo que conocemos por el termino poder y en la estructura social basada en las relaciones de sumision Dominacion construidas sobre la base de la diferencia ya sea por sexo clase social o raza Pone en relacion la discriminacion por genero con el mercado y con la sociedad capitalista Propone la toma del poder por la mujer poder en cualquier ambito pues todo poder es el mismo como la alternativa a la sociedad de mercado en la que vivimos

The SAGE Handbook of Social Research Methods Pertti Alasuutari, Leonard Bickman, Julia Brannen, 2008-02-25 The SAGE Handbook of Social Research Methods is a must for every social science researcher It charts the new and evolving terrain of social research methodology covering qualitative quantitative and mixed methods in one volume The Handbook includes chapters on each phase of the research process research design methods of data collection and the processes of analyzing and interpreting data The volume maintains that there is much more to research than learning skills and techniques methodology involves the fit between theory research questions research design and analysis The book also includes several chapters that describe historical and current directions in social research debating crucial subjects such as qualitative versus quantitative paradigms how to judge the credibility of types of research and the increasingly topical issue of research ethics The Handbook serves as an invaluable resource for approaching research with an open mind This volume maps the field of social research methods using an approach that will prove valuable for both students and researchers

Sex and Gender Mary Jo Iozzio, Patricia Beattie Jung, 2017-11-09 Sex and Gender Christian Ethical Reflections contains some of the subject's most important analyses in recent decades The collection covers a wide range of topics same sex marriage sexual minorities and biblical interpretation sex and power sexual harassment and sexual abuse HIV AIDS and prevention strategy the military and masculinities mobile porn and sexting human trafficking moral discernment and more Contributors represent various theological traditions and draw on scriptural texts as well as such disciplines as philosophy sociology psychology and the life sciences Each essay is followed by a set of discussion questions for the classroom or for students to use as an assignment outline and suggestions for further reading and research Teachers and students of Christian ethics will appreciate this multidisciplinary approach to one of the most divisive and controversial issues in contemporary culture

Moral Issues and Christian Responses Patricia Beattie Jung, Loyle Shannon Jung, 2012-09-01 This popular anthology for the study of Christian ethics now in its eighth edition has been a mainstay of undergraduate courses for nearly thirty years Shannon and Patricia Jung provide an introduction to contemporary moral issues from decidedly yet diverse Christian moral perspectives The anthology intentionally seeks a range of voices to produce a kind of point counterpoint discussion of an ethical issue Issues include the distinctiveness of Christian ethics sexuality reproductive rights prejudice immigration the environment economics biomedical ethics death and dying terrorism war and globalization Publisher description

Freedom Rebekah L. Miles, 2001-08-23 In this constructive study Miles proposes a new feminist theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics Gender, Power and Politics in Agriculture

Jemimah Njuki, Hale Ann Tufan, Vivian Polar, Hugo Campos, Monifa Morgan-Bell, 2024-10-07 This is an open access book In the agriculture sector the language of gender integration often ignores the politics and the power dynamics that are central to critical and feminist analysis of gender relations This volume explores largely neglected topics such as power dynamics masculinities gendered social norms feminist research practice intersectionality critical analysis of tools and more that are fundamental to shifting the entrenched power dynamics and politics of gender research in agriculture The purpose of this book is to reduce the gap existing between theory methods and practice of gender relations in agriculture and agricultural research Through an in depth analysis of current processes in agriculture and drawing on existing experiences in other sectors it seeks to create pathways for learning catalyzing change and positive impact on gender equity and social inclusion This volume seeks to bring forth a change in how gender relations in agriculture are researched practiced and taught

Bubbles and Machines Micky Lee, 2019-05-23 Are financial crises embedded in IT Can gender studies offer insights into financial reporting Feminist theories and Science and Technology Studies STS can enrich a critique of financial crises in capitalism as the author argues their critical political economic approaches to communication can help in understanding because they historicize technology and economy and how these are materially embedded Current literature has neglected finance and capital's gendered aspect even the ideology of a crisis This book develops four themes women as resources in financial markets and as producers of values gender ideology and unequal distribution machine production and distribution of financial information and the varied actuality of markets Working with case histories of tulipmania microcredit Wall Street reporting and the role of screens Bubbles and Machines argues that rather than calling financial crises human made or inevitable they should be recognized as technological Seduction, Sophistry, and the Woman with the Rhetorical Figure Michelle Ballif, 2001 Ballif questions why the profession wants to retain these beliefs in the face of vociferous arguments from new rhetorics that the discipline no longer posits a foundational self or truth and in the face of the poststructuralist critique which has demonstrated that founding truth is always accomplished by first positing and then negating an other As an alternative to this negative and violent rhetorical process Ballif suggests a turn to sophistry as embodied in the figure of Woman one with the power to seduce us literally to lead astray from our truth and our demand for it BOOK JACKET

Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White
