Eurasian Transformations, Tenth to Thirteenth Centuries Johann P. Arnason, Björn Wittrock, 2005-01-01 This volume which also appeared as a special issue of Medieval Encounters deals with transformations of the major Eurasian civilizations in the early second millennium CE and with the question of contrasts parallels and connections between the different trajectories that took shape during this period An introductory section discusses the theoretical problems of comparative analysis with particular reference to formative phases of cultural crystallization The first main thematic section focuses on European developments The emergence of Western Christendom as a distinctive civilization is analyzed in a broader Eurasian context Other contributions examine the Europeanization of northern and eastern peripheries as well as the different course of events in the Byzantine world The last section covers socio cultural changes in non European regions the Islamic world India China and Japan and concludes with a discussion of the Eurasian empire created by the Mongols With contributions by Thomas Lindkvist Sverre Bagge Paul Jakov Smith Paul Stephenson Mikael Adolphson Dr Michal Biran Said A Arjomand G bor Klaniczay R I Moore Sheldon Pollock Central Europe in the High Middle Ages Nora

Berend, Przemysław Urbańczyk, Przemysław Wiszewski, 2013-12-19 This groundbreaking comparative history of the early centuries of Bohemia Hungary and Poland sets the development of each polity in the context of the central European region as a whole Focusing on the origins of the realms and their development in the eleventh and twelfth centuries the book concludes with the thirteenth century when significant changes in social and economic structures occurred The book presents a series of thematic chapters on every aspect of the early history of the region covering political religious economic social and cultural developments including an investigation of origin myths that questions traditional national narratives It also explores the ways in which west European patterns were appropriated and adapted through the local initiatives of rulers nobles and ecclesiastics in central Europe An ideal introduction to the essential themes in medieval central European history the book sheds important new light on regional similarities and differences A Cloister on Trial Gabriella

Erdélyi, 2016-03-09 In 1517 the usually tranquil friary in the Hungarian town of Krmend found itself at the centre of controversy when its Augustinian friars charged with drunkenness sexual abuses and liturgical negligence were driven out and replaced with observant Franciscans The agent of change in this conflict cardinal Thomas Bakcz claimed to be acting in the name of cloister reform motivated by a religious agenda while the Augustinians portrayed themselves as the victims of a political game Based on the surviving interrogations of a papal enquiry into these events this book illuminates the tensions and potential conflict that lurked within the religious culture of a seemingly unremarkable and remote town The story of the friary trial of Krmend provides a fascinating window into religion and society of Europe at the dawn of the Reformation investigating the processes by which ordinary people emerge as historical agents from the written records By focussing on their experiences as represented in the trial documents the book reveals the spaces and borders of individual and communal action within the dynamic of lay clerical relations negotiated in a friary reform at the beginning of the 16th century Furthermore the moral nature of the accusations levelled at the Augustinians and whether these were justified or instigated for political reasons offers further insights into the nature of late medieval Catholicism and the claims of Protestant reformers Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages (500-1300) (2 vols) Florin Curta, 2019-07-08 Winner of the 2020 Verbruggen prize This book provides a comprehensive synthesis of scholarship on Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages The goal is to offer an overview of the current state of research and a basic route map for navigating an abundant historiography available in more than 10 different languages The literature published in English on the medieval history of Eastern Europe books chapters and articles represents a little more than 11 percent of the historiography The companion is therefore meant to provide an orientation into the existing literature that may not be available because of linguistic barriers and in addition an introductory bibliography in English Winner of the 2020 Verbruggen prize awarded annually by the De Re Militari society for the best book on medieval military history The awarding committee commented that the book has an enormous range and yet is exceptionally scholarly with a fine grasp of detail Its title points to a general history of eastern Europe but it is dominated by military episodes which make it of the highest value to anybody writing about war and warring in this very neglected area of Europe See inside the book Motherland and Progress József Sisa, 2016-11-21 In the 19th century Hungary witnessed unprecedented social economic and cultural development The country became an equal partner within the Dual Monarchy when the Austro Hungarian Compromise of 1867 was concluded Architecture and all forms of design flourished as never before A distinctly Central European taste emerged in which the artistic presence of the German speaking lands was augmented by the influence of France and England As this process unfolded attempts were made to find a uniquely Hungarian form based on motifs borrowed from peasant art as well as real or fictitious historical antecedents Motherland and Progress the motto of 19th century Hungarian reformers reflected the programme embraced by the country in its drive to define its identity and shape its future Woodland and Forests in Medieval Hungary Péter Szabó, 2005 This piece of research based on the author's dissertation is where the study of historical woodlands meets botanical and ecological analysis The Dynastic Policy of the Árpáds, Géza I to Emery (1074-1204) Z. J. Kosztolnyik, 2006 Using primary and secondary sources this study questions the validity of the theory that from the early 1070s to the early 1200s the Arpads attempted to represent themselves as wholly European while trying to appeal to both eastern and western powers By trying to master this balance they sought to remain an integral political and cultural commonwealth Das Bistum Bamberg um 1007 Dr. Josef Urban, 2006 Acta Historiae Artium , 1996 CALMA: fasc. 1. Abaelardus Petrus-Agobardus Lugdunensis archiep , 2003
