Old Dominion Trolley Too John E. Merriken, LeRoy O. King, 1987-01-01 Sarah Johnson's Mount Vernon Scott E. Casper, 2008 New Stories from an Old American Shrine The home of our first president has come to symbolize the ideals of our nation freedom for all national solidarity and universal democracy Mount Vernon is a place where the memories of George Washington and the era of America's birth are carefully preserved and re-created for the nearly one million tourists who visit it every year But behind the familiar stories lies a history that visitors never hear Sarah Johnson's Mount Vernon recounts the experience of the hundreds of African Americans who are forgotten in Mount Vernon's narrative Historian and archival sleuth Scott E Casper recovers the remarkable history of former slave Sarah Johnson who spent more than fifty years at Mount Vernon before and after emancipation Through her life and the lives of her family and friends Casper provides an intimate picture of Mount Vernon's operation during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries years that are rarely part of its story Working for the Washington heirs and then the Mount Vernon Ladies Association these African Americans played an essential part in creating the legacy of Mount Vernon as an American shrine Their lives and contributions have long been lost to history and erased from memory Casper restores them both and in so doing adds a new layer of significance to America's most popular historical estate Built by the People Themselves Lindsey

Bestebreurtje, 2024-11-07 The story of how racial segregation and suburbanization shaped lives the built environment and the law in Arlington In Built by the People Themselves Lindsey Bestebreurtje traces the history of the Black community in Arlington Virginia from the first days of emancipation through the civil rights era in the twentieth century A core insight of her account is how common people developed strategies to survive and thrive despite systems of oppression in the Jim Crow South Moving beyond the standard story of suburbanization that focuses on elite white community developers Bestebreurtje analyzes African American led community development and its effects on Arlington County Railroad History, 1988

Places of Commemoration Joachim Wolschke-Bulmahn, 2001 Everyone is occupied consciously or unconsciously with identity one's origin and the question of one's place in humankind and society of the past present and future Identity and memory are not stable and objective things but representations or constructions of reality related to a particular interest such as class gender of power relations Identity is problematic without history and without the commemoration of history and of course such remembrance may distort historical events and facts When dealing with gardens a substantial part of our physical environment there are always unspoken questions of identity Places of Commemoration examines commemorative sites of different character including gardens landscapes memorials cemeteries and sites of former Nazi concentration camps detailing the ideas behind the creation of memorials and monuments and the struggles over the narratives they present
