As well as such comedic luminaries, this book also contains witticisms from t-shirt slogans, internet sites and the ever inventive Anon and ranges across themes from adultery and advertising to youth and even Yugoslavia.

Rekindling Martien Snellen,2010-03-29 We all know parenthood brings massive changes But not every couple is prepared for the impact pregnancy and childbirth can have on their intimate relationship Sure we expect to put sex on hold for a while just before and after the birth but most of us naively assume that things will eventually return more or less to normal Unfortunately for many couples it doesn t work out like that And although it s true as Martien Snellen points out that no one ever died from lack of sex Well sometimes it can make a relationship feel a little bit under the weather Dr Martien Snellen is a psychiatrist with an extensive practice in relationship counselling In this new edition of his immensely well received book originally released as Sex from divergent levels of interest to just not being able to find the time And most importantly he offers practical suggestions to help get the spark back For both of you This book is a godsend for any new or newish parent who thinks their other relationship could do with a little attention too The God Who Rejoices Christian D. Kettler,2010-06-01 How does one deal with despair Are joy and despair irreconcilable How does the joy and despair of Jesus Christ relate to our joy and despair Continuing to explore the implications of the vicarious humanity of Christ as he did in The God Who Believes Christian Kettler investigates the christological implications of the all too human phenomenon of despair All people experience the pain of personal loss and lack of the meaninglessness of existence We also desire and covet joy as difficult as it is often to define or maintain Jesus was both the man of sorrows and one who for the joy set before him endured the cross Heb 12 2 Can we think of the despair of Christ and the joy of Christ as both being vicarious in our place and on our behalf and thus have a theological way to possess joy in the midst of despair as well as to have a more robust theology of the atonement Drawing on wide ranging resources from Augustine Calvin Karl Barth and T F Torrance to Bob Dylan the fantasy writer Ray Bradbury and Ed Wood the director of Plan Nine from Outer Space Kettler seeks to bring Trinitarian and incarnational theology deep into our flesh filled with real despair and joy and find that Jesus is there with his own despair there to lift us up with his own joy
