Spaces of Modernity Miles Ogborn, 1998-07-11 From the civility of Westminster's newly paved streets to the dangerous pleasures of Vauxhall Gardens and the grand designs of the Universal Register Office this book examines the identities practices and power relations of the modern city as they emerged within and transformed the geographies of eighteenth century London Ogborn draws upon a wide variety of textual and visual sources to illuminate processes of commodification individualization state formation and the transformation of the public sphere within the new spaces of the metropolis

Devout Laywomen in the Early Modern World Alison Weber, 2016-03-10 Devout laywomen raise a number of provocative questions about gender and religion in the early modern world How did some groups or individuals evade the Tridentine legislation that required third order women to take solemn vows and observe active and passive enclosure How did their attempts to exercise a female apostolate albeit with varying degrees of success and assertiveness destabilize hierarchies of class and gender To the extent that their beliefs and practices diverged from approved doctrine and rituals what insights can they provide into the tensions between official religion and lay religiosity Addressing these and many other questions Devout Laywomen in the Early Modern World reflects new directions in gender history offering a more nuanced approach to the paradigm of woman as the prototypical disciplined subject of church state power

Related Lives Jodi Bilinkoff, 2018-07-05 In early modern Catholic Europe and its colonies priests frequently developed close relationships with pious women serving as their spiritual directors during their lives and their biographers after their deaths In this richly illustrated book Jodi Bilinkoff explores the ways in which clerics related to those female penitents whom they determined were spiritually gifted and how they conveyed the live stories of these women to readers The resulting popular literatures of hagiography and spiritual autobiography produced hundreds of texts designed to establish models of behavior for the Catholic faithful in the period between the advent of printing and the beginning of the modern age Bilinkoff finds that confessional relations and the texts that document them reveal much about gender and social values She uses life narratives primarily from Spain but also from France Italy Portugal Spanish America and French Canada to examine the ways in which clerics presented female penitents as exemplary and how they constructed their own identities around their interactions with exceptional women These multilayered texts she suggests offer compelling accounts of individuals caught up in the pursuit of holiness and provide a key to understanding the resilience of Catholic culture in an age of religious change and conflict

Lord Rochester in the Restoration World Matthew C. Augustine, Steven N. Zwicker, 2015-04-23 John Wilmot second Earl of Rochester 1647 1680 the notorious and brilliant libertine poet of King Charles II's court has long been considered an embodiment of the Restoration era This interdisciplinary collection of essays by leading scholars focuses new attention on and brings fresh perspectives to the writings of Lord Rochester Particular consideration is given to the political force and social identity of Rochester's work to the world's courtly and theatrical urban and suburban from which Rochester's poetry emerged and which it discloses and not least to the unsettling aesthetic power of Rochester's writing. The singularity of Rochester's voice, his matchless wit, has been widely recognised. This book encourages the continued appreciation of all the ways in which Rochester reveals the layered and promiscuous character of literary projects throughout the whole of a brilliant, abrasive and miscellaneous age.

AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999 Cassell's miniature cyclopædia. Popular ed. Sir William Laird Clowes, 1898 Religious Confession Privilege and the Common Law. A. Keith Thompson, 2011-04-11. Despite what most evidence law texts say, religious confession privilege does exist at common law. This book provides proof from both historical and common law materials with consequences even in jurisdictions where the privilege now exists in statutory form.

The Science of Music in Britain, 1714-1830 Jamie Croy Kassler, 1979

Fantasy Annual E. C. Tubb, 1999-12-01 The Hart-Fuller Debate in the Twenty-First Century Peter Cane, 2010-02-16. This book presents the papers and comments on those papers delivered at a colloquium held at the Australian National University in December 2008 to celebrate 50 years since the publication in the Harvard Law Review of the famous and wide-ranging debate between HLA Hart and Lon L. Fuller. These essays do not re-run that debate and they are not confined to discussion of the jurisprudential issues canvassed by Hart and Fuller. Rather, they pick up on strands in the debate and re-think them in the light of social, political and intellectual developments in the past 50 years and changed ways of understanding law and other normative systems. This collection looks forward rather than backward, using the debate as a point of departure and inspiration.

Exploring Education at Postgraduate Level Anne O'Grady, Vanessa Cottle, 2015-09-25. There is a growing demand for educational professionals to develop a more critical understanding of the key and emerging debates in education so that they can better meet the challenges and demands placed upon them. Exploring Education at Postgraduate Level represents a range of perspectives from educational experts to academic researchers and highlights the key issues surrounding contemporary education. Organised into three parts and drawing on key issues in education theory, policy and practice, the book considers areas such as SEN, evaluating learning, ESOL and gender. Featuring reflective questions, case studies and summaries of core ideas, the chapters include: Troublesome learning journey; Applying educational thinkers to contemporary educational practice; Values production through social and emotional learning; Policy research; In defence of ad hocery; We are all critically reflective now; The politics of critical reflection in higher education and in the work place; Developing critical thought about SEN; The refuge of relativism; Aimed at supporting students on Masters level courses, this accessible but critically provocative text is an essential resource for those wishing to develop a more critical understanding of the role, purpose and function of educational systems and practices.

Recreational Hunting, Conservation and Rural Livelihoods Barney Dickson, Jonathan Hutton, William A. Adams, 2009-01-22. Recreational hunting has long been a controversial issue. Is it a threat to biodiversity or can it be a tool for conservation giving value to species and habitats that might otherwise be lost Are the moral objections to hunting for pleasure well founded Does recreational hunting support rural livelihoods in developing countries or are these benefits exaggerated by proponents For the first time this book addresses many of the issues that are fundamental to an understanding of the real role of recreational hunting in conservation and rural development It examines the key issues asks the difficult questions and seeks to present the answers to guide policy Where the answers are not available it highlights gaps in our knowledge and lays out the research agenda for the next decade Drawn into Controversie Michael A. G. Haykin, Mark Jones, 2011-07-20 By their very nature traditions are diverse This is particularly the case with theological traditions even including those cases where they have been named for a single individual e g Augustinianism Thomism Lutheranism and Calvinism In the eras of the Reformation and of Reformed orthodoxy there was intense theological debate leading to confessional identity and confessional boundaries hence the Remonstrant controversy in the early seventeenth century What the essays of this volume look at however are the debates that took place within the Reformed theological tradition particularly within Puritan England Some of the debates considered here threatened to rise to a confessional level whereas others were not so serious insofar as they did not press on confessional boundaries The Puritan tradition surveyed in these essays looks at both major and minor intra Reformed debates Most of these debates analyzed have been passed over in the older scholarship in its quest to find the few true Calvinians to oppose to the so called Calvinists By contrast none of the studies included in the present volume brands one side of a seventeenth century debate as un-Calvinian or identifies an alteration of doctrinal perspective as a declension from Reformation era purity Calvin no longer appears as a norm although he does appear with other Reformers as an antecedent of certain lines of argument Lastly the essays document the ongoing concern among Reformed theologians to further the Reformation cause In this pursuit Reformed theologians as they did during the time of the Reformation theologians often found themselves disagreeing on a number of theological doctrines

Who's who Henry Robert Addison, Charles Henry Oakes, William John Lawson, Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen, 1898 An annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated Men and women of the time Shakespeare: The Living Record Irvin Leigh Matus, 2016-03-07 Brabbling Women Terri L. Snyder, 2014-02-15 Brabbling Women takes its title from a 1662 law enacted by Virginia's burgesses which was intended to offer relief to the poorer husbands forced into defamation suits because their brabbling wives had slandered or scandalized their neighbors To quell such episodes of female misrule lawmakers decreed that husbands could choose either to pay damages or to have their wives publicly ducked But there was more at stake here By examining women's use of language Terri L. Snyder demonstrates how women resisted and challenged oppressive political legal and cultural practices in colonial Virginia Contending that women's voices are heard most clearly during episodes of crisis Snyder focuses on disorderly speech to illustrate women's complex relationships to law and authority in the seventeenth century Ordinary women Snyder finds employed a variety of strategies to prevail in domestic crises over sexual coercion and adultery conflicts over women's status as servants or slaves and threats to women's authority as independent household governors Some women entered the political forum openly participating as rebels or loyalists others sought legal redress for their complaints Wives protested the confines of marriage unfree women spoke against masters and servitude By the force of their words all strove to thwart political leaders and local officials as well as the power of husbands masters and neighbors The tactics colonial women used and the successes they met reflect the struggles for empowerment taking place in defiance of the inequalities of the colonial period

Lines of Connection Edina Adam, Jamie Gabbarelli, 2025-03-04 The first volume to chart the rich and reciprocal relationship between drawing and printmaking from the fifteenth to nineteenth centuries While often viewed and studied separately drawings and prints have always been closely intertwined They facilitated and generated the production of one another and in some instances clear distinctions between the two dissolved Many artists created drawings specifically intended for translation into print and an even greater number used prints as a training tool copying from them to hone drawing skills This reciprocal relationship goes even deeper however as innovative artists made fascinating hybrid works that blurred the boundaries between the two media pushing against modern definitions and hierarchies Lines of Connection charts these historical and geographical continuities for the first time by bringing together works on paper of superb quality foregrounding issues of artistic process and collaboration technical innovation and creative ingenuity Featuring over 170 prints and drawings by such artists as Albrecht Dürer Parmigianino Hendrick Goltzius Maria Sibylla Merian Rembrandt van Rijn and William Blake this catalogue is a rich narrative introduction to the compelling yet understudied relationship between drawing and printmaking This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at The Art Institute of Chicago from March 15 to June 1 2025 and at the J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from July 1 to September 14 2025
