heteronormative white masculinity in the contemporary United States by focusing on relationships between fathers and their children Debra Shostak reads the novels of 18 North American writers publishing in the late 20th and early 21st centuries as allegories of cultural conflict and change within the nuclear family the authors considered include Paul Auster Don DeLillo Jeffrey Eugenides Jonathan Safran Foer Jonathan Franzen John Irving Jonathan Lethem Carole Maso Bobbie Ann Mason Cormac McCarthy Claire Messud Viet Thanh Nguyen Tim O'Brien Marilynne Robinson Philip Roth Mona Simpson Jane Smiley and Anne Tyler These novelists portray father figures who often literally or figuratively absent from the family scene disrupt the familial order and their family members identities Shostak's close readings illuminate unexpectedly conservative even subversive ideological positions at the heart of these fictions Fictive Fathers traces the eroding myth of paternal authority that sustained a patriarchal model within real American families and their literary representations

Nostalgia and Sexual Difference (RLE Feminist Theory) Janice Doane, DEVON HODGES, 2013-05-20 Dissatisfaction with the present can cause people to gaze nostalgically back to an idealized past that nostalgia pervades contemporary rhetoric In lamenting the degeneracy of present day America social and literary critics as well as contemporary novelists often choose as their scapegoat the women's movement and its increasing influence Doane and Hodges show us how these social observers seek to reinstate America and American values in ways that overtly or covertly do battle with the feminist movement for control of rhetoric the power of language

John Irving Josie P. Campbell, 1998-11-24 One of America's most noted contemporary novelists John Irving has created a body of fiction of extraordinary range moving with ease from romance to fairytale to thriller Although his fiction follows in the tradition of the great 19th century world novelists he is a quintessential American writer his novels are laced with broad humor farce and absurd situations He does not hesitate to tackle the troubling issues that have faced our nation in the past few decades such as war racism sexism abortion violence and AIDS This study offers a clear accessible reading of Irving's fiction It analyzes in turn all of his novels from Setting Free the Bears 1968 to his newest novel A Widow for One Year 1998 It also provides the reader with a complete bibliography of Irving's fiction as well as selected reviews and criticism Following a biographical chapter on Irving's life an overview of his fiction explores his work in light of his literary heritage and use of a variety of genres Each of the following chapters examines an individual novel Setting Free the Bears 1968 The Water Method Man 1972 The 158 Pound Marriage 1973 The World According to Garp 1976 The Hotel New Hampshire 1981 The Cider House Rules 1985 A Prayer for Owen Meany 1989 A Son of the Circus 1994 and A Widow for One Year 1998 The discussion of each novel includes sections on plot and character development thematic issues and a new and fresh critical approach from which to read the novel Campbell explores the great moral range in Irving's novels. She shows that all his novels deal with a character's quest to discover the self, a journey of raw energy that touches us because we recognize it as our own. This study will help readers to appreciate the experimental fiction that is Irving's trademark and his ability to capture the essence of American life in the last part of the twentieth century.

The Films of George Roy Hill Andrew Horton, 2005. As late as 1976, George Roy Hill was the first and only director to have two films on the all-time top ten box office hits: Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid and The Sting, both starring Robert Redford and Paul Newman. A filmmaker with a diverse background in music, drama, and television, Hill proved to be a popular storyteller in a variety of genres. His films are tied to important American themes and reflect an ironic, bittersweet vision of life. The book begins with a discussion of the way Hill's films often make their most important statements on the subtextual level. The stories entertain, but the subtext is often disturbing, contradictory, unresolved. Hill felt that all of his major characters create an environment, a fantasy, an illusion, and then go on to make it happen. It continues by tracing the thematic characteristics that are consistent with Hill's depiction of protagonists who create their own environments and then attempt to inhabit them. Then individual chapters study in detail the art, craft, and style of each of his films, including Thoroughly Modern Millie, Slaughterhouse Five, A Little Romance, The World According to Garp, Little Drummer Girl, and Hill's last film, Funny Farm.

New York Magazine, 1981-08-17. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. Mobile Narratives Eleftheria Arapoglou, Mónica Fodor, Jopi Nyman, 2013-08-15. Emphasizing the role of travel and migration in the performance and transformation of identity, this volume addresses representations of travel, mobility, and migration in 19th-21st-century travel writing, literature, and media texts. In so doing, the book analyses the role of the various cultural, ethnic, gender, and national encounters pertinent to narratives of travel and migration in transforming and problematizing the identities of both the travelers and travelees enacting in the borderzones between cultures. While the individual essays by scholars from a wide range of countries deal with a variety of case studies from various historical, spatial, and cultural locations, they share a strong central interest in the ways in which the narratives of travel contribute to the imagining of ethnic encounters and how they have acted as sites of transformation and transculturation from the early nineteenth century to the present day. In addition to discussing textual representations of travel and migration, the volume also addresses the ways in which cultural texts themselves travel and are reconstructed in various cultural settings. The analyses are particularly attentive to the issues of globalization and migration, which provide a general frame for interpretation. What distinguishes the volume from existing books is its concern with travel and migration as ways of forging transcultural identities that are able to subvert existing categorizations and binary models of identity.

formation In so doing it pays particular attention to the performance of identity in various spaces of cultural encounter ranging from North America to the East of Europe putting particular emphasis on the representation of intercultural and ethnic encounters Reconstructing the Family in Contemporary American Fiction Desmond F. Geniuses, Addicts, and Scribbling Women Cynthia Cravens,2023-01-15 Through a critical discussion of an array of written and visual texts that feature a writer as a main character Geniuses Addicts and Scribbling Women Portraits of the Writer in Popular Culture argues for a more nuanced conception of the role of writers in society their relationships with their reading publics the portrayals and realities of their labor and the construction of a writing identity Expounding upon the critical genre of authorship studies the contributors take on complex issues such as economics professionalization gender politics and writing pedagogy to shape the dialogue around the nature of representation and the practice of narrative Ultimately contributors consider the ways in which debates over art craft authorial celebrity and the literary marketplace define the parameters of culture in a given period and influence the work of culture producers The implications of such an analysis reveal much about the status and value of creative writers and their work This collection covers a wide range of historical periods offering a complex understanding of representations of writers from the medieval period to the Netflix era Such an evolution challenges the perception of the writer as a monolithic presence in society and highlights its multiplicity diversity and its transformations through cultural and political movements
