The Impact of the 2007-08 Changes to Public Service Pensions Great Britain:

Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts, 2011 In 2007/08 new pension schemes were introduced for civil servants, NHS staff and teachers designed to make public service pensions affordable. The changes are likely to reduce costs to taxpayers of the pension schemes by 6.7 billion over 50 years with costs stabilising at around 1% of Gross Domestic Product (GDP) or 2% of public expenditure. The Committee is concerned that the Treasury did not test the potential impact of changes in some of the key assumptions underpinning the long-term cost projections. In addition, the Treasury has not tested whether reducing the value of pensions would affect the public sector's ability to recruit and retain high-quality staff. Three-fifths of the savings to the taxpayer were expected to come from the cost-sharing and capping mechanism, a transfer from employers to employees of extra costs that arise if pensioners live longer than previously expected. Employees would potentially pay 70% more for their pensions over the next 50 years if life expectancy continues to increase more than expected. Implementation remains on hold while the Government decides how to respond to the Independent Public Service Pensions Commission. The Hutton Commission. Public service employees do not have a clear understanding of the value of their pensions because they are not provided with clear and intelligible information to enable them to make rational decisions. Further changes to public service pensions are expected as Hutton's recommendations are implemented, but this should bring a period of stability and certainty for long-term public service pensions policy.

Pensions Sinéad Agnew, Paul S Davies, Charles Mitchell, 2020-08-20 State pensions are the largest item in the UK social security budget, costing 96.7 billion in 2017/18. In the same year, 45.6 million people were members of UK occupational pension schemes out of a total population of 66.4 million, and the total amount saved into workplace schemes in 2018 was 90.4 billion. A consequence of the pensions sector's large size has been that pensions law and social security law have become increasingly specialised areas of practice. Yet despite their social and economic importance and the fascinating legal issues they generate, pensions have not been the subject of sustained academic attention. This book starts to fill this gap by initiating a dialogue between practitioners and scholars working on pensions law and policy groups who have much to learn from one another. This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's Pensions Law online service.

Eu-china Relationship, The: European Perspectives - A Manual For Policy Makers Kerry Brown, 2014-11-27 This book brings together 30 papers commissioned from 2011 to 2013 by the EU-funded Europe China Research and Advice Network (ECRAN). These papers, thematically grouped in sections on economics, society and politics, were written by some of the world's leading China experts in Europe and give a European perspective of this complex relationship. The papers provide a broad overview of how Europeans see the key challenges currently faced by China and Europe, as well as a unique insight into the related policy aspects of the vexed and complex relationship of the two largest trading partners in the world. The EU China Relationship: European Perspectives is written in a highly pragmatic manner, focusing on specific political, economic and social issues that impact on international relations. It is an essential EU toolkit and policy handbook for academics and policy makers in government and business who are engaging with China not just in the EU but across the world
