Pentecost 1 Proclamation 3 Series C:

Our Sufficiency is of God Timothy George, James Earl Massey, Robert Smith, 2010 Resources for preachers steadily appear called forth by the perennial need on the part of working pastors for helpful and inspirational materials backed by tested experience reverent scholarship and creative insights The essays in this book are of that cast and each essay is the work of an experienced practitioner scholar in the field of preaching The chapters focus on the preaching ministry of Gardner Calvin Taylor in whose honor the volume was prepared They are offered with affection and esteem by colleagues students and friends fellow preachers all whose own attempts to speak the unsearchable riches of Christ owe much to the life and labors of Gardner C Taylor Considered by many as the greatest living American preacher Gardner C Taylor has often reminded other preachers about the need for divine help in fulfilling the call All in all a summons to the ministry is no light calling The work of communicating the gospel requires us to be more than we are to exceed who we are This volume will lead readers to the realization of the need for grace and a sufficiency only found in God II Cor 3 5 KJV as indicated by the title Our Sufficiency Is of God

Creation Stories in Dialogue: The Bible, Science, and Folk Traditions Jan G. van der Watt, R. Alan Culpepper, 2015-11-02 This book is about creation stories in dialogue not only between different religious views but also between current day scientific perspectives International specialists like Alan Culpepper David Christian John Haught Randall Zachman Ellen van Wolde from various disciplines are reflecting on the interface between science and religion relating questions of creation and origin This multi disciplinary discussion by some of the leading exponents in this field makes the book unique not only in its depth of discussion but also in its wide ranging interdisciplinary discussion The point of departure of all the contributions is the prestige lecture by Alan Culpepper where he argues for bringing Biblical material into discussion with modern scientific insights relating to creation and origin Library Journal, 1982 The Publishers Weekly, 1981

Lectionary Worship Workbook, Series II, Cycle C Wayne H. Keller, 2000-06 The most impressive thing about Wayne Keller's body of ideas for worship throughout the Christian Year is his boldness He is bold in demanding that we his colleagues in liturgical leadership plan worship that has to do with the reality of our congregations experience in the world rather than just leading people through a proper agenda of acts and words that have no bearing on what we do the rest of the week He is bold in challenging us to bring that real world with its pains and its pleasures its hungers and its feasts its beauty and its ugliness to exposure before the living God And he is bold in helping us shine the strong exposing light of the transforming Word on our real lives and on that real world so that we may move beyond planning worship as a nice safe feel good routine from which we depart the same people we were when we arrived We are thrilled by the seriousness and authentic reverence with which this author approaches the planning of worship Thank God for Wayne Keller and for his deep respect for the central act of the Christian community the blessed and life transforming experience of the worship of God Richard Avery and Donald Marsh Port Jervis New York Wayne Keller s method creates not only a contemporary appeal but also effects a congregational involvement so necessary today within the liturgical context His approach is fresh and practical and yet a reflection consistently of a solid liturgical and homiletical background Keller has the ability to appeal to the everydayness of congregational experience Donald Macleod Francis L Patton Professor Emeritus Princeton Theological Seminary The good humor of Wayne Keller s work helps us feel at home in our imperfect world and feel more empathy for the rough edges of others and ourselves Wayne s work encourages hope and faith with the way we are Doug Adams Professor of Christianity and the Arts Pacific School of Religion and Graduate Theological Union A cascade of insights ideas suggestions and plans for stimulating the working pastor s imagination and guiding in worship planning Robert Coote Professor San Francisco Theological Seminary Editor Mustard Seed Churches Wayne Keller elevates us to an authentic bring your warts and smiles encounter with the living God a remarkable year round resource for the entire worship team Paul Hackett Former pastor and member First Presbyterian Church Puyallup Washington Keller says I have seen people bored to death in worship seemingly because they come to worship as spectators not as participants For me no spectators are allowed Soren Kierkegaard s analogy of worship as drama has guided my thinking and planning Wayne H Keller graduated from Monmouth College in Monmouth Illinois and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary He has served pastorates in Pennsylvania Washington and Oregon and has also been the director of a halfway house for recovering mental patients A member of the Presbyterian Writers Guild Keller has published several books and numerous articles and has been a columnist for the Bellingham Herald He has also appeared frequently on radio and television programs and co hosted a call in counseling program and talk show

The Kerygmatic Spirit Amos Yong,2018-11-06 This collection of fifteen sermons by one of the leading pentecostal theologians today provides insight into the form style and content of preaching in the pentecostal tradition while also being suggestive of normative homiletical theory and practice The Kerygmatic Spirit argues that Spirit empowered preaching is apostolic not only with regard to being rooted in the scriptural traditions but also with regard to connecting the that of the early Christian message with the this of contemporary experience and discipleship Hence rather than only reflecting pentecostal preaching of the sort that happens in the pulpits of churches connected to the modern movement by that name these sermons are presented as the participating in the form of gospel proclamation inspired and empowered by the divine Spirit poured out on all flesh on the Day of Pentecost by the risen Christ from the right hand of the Father Whether read or heard there are links to video and audio archives throughout these homilies are illustrative of exegetical and expository practice that connects the biblical text with Spirit filled faithfulness in the twenty first century ecumenical church and world at large Easter: Proclamation Four Robert H.
