Pentecost And Missions:

Pentecost and Missions Harry R. Boer,1961 Transmitting the Spirit in Missions Amos Jimmy

Markin,2019-02-05 Transmitting the Spirit in Missions The History and Growth of the Church of Pentecost discourses on how Pentecostalism in general has been involved in the current growth mission and changing face of global Christianity It argues that African Pentecostals particularly are an integral part of the global expansion of Christianity in this century Specifically this book engages the history and growth of the Church of Pentecost an African Pentecostal denomination from Ghana to demonstrate how African Pentecostals have taken their spirituality into their own hands and planted churches in their home country as well as other parts of the globe The focus of this book is that African Pentecostals have achieved this feat through the experiential power and reliance of the Holy Spirit and the indigenous factor The specific highlight is that this book is an updated analysis of the history growth and missions of the Church of Pentecost Although this work is transformed from a PhD thesis the content is presented accessibly to both the academia and general church populace both pastors and the laity

Megachurch Accountability in Missions: Jinbong Kim,Dwight P. Baker,J. Nelson Jennings,1993-06-01 Megachurches are of relatively recent vintage Their numerical strength invests them with social and financial power To whom if anyone however are megachurches accountable What role do they play as innovators in missions How have their enormous influence and financial strength been harnessed What lessons can be learned What course corrections ought to be made Over the course of a week the third meeting of the Korean Global Mission Leadership Forum KGMLF held in Korea in 2015 addressed these and related questions Combining the insights of a rich mix of Korean and international megachurch leaders and scholars Megachurch Accountability in Missions Korean and Global Case Studies offers analysis critique and positive recommendations for future megachurch engagement in mission Pentecost and Missions David Howell (Ven. Archdeacon.), 1894* the Progress of World Wide Missions, 1925 Women and Missions, 1928 Paul's Understanding of the Church's Mission Robert Lewis Plummer, 2006 This book engages in a careful study of Paul's letters to determine if the apostle expected the communities to which he wrote to engage in missionary activity It helpfully summarizes the discussion on this debated issue judiciously handling contested texts and provides a way forward in addressing this critical question While admitting that Paul rarely explicitly commands the communities he founded to evangelize Plummer amasses significant incidental data to provide a convincing case that Paul did indeed expect his churches to engage in mission activity Throughout the study Plummer progressively builds a theological basis for the church's mission that is both distinctively Pauline and compelling Christian missions and pagan persecutions Edmond de Pressens, 1870 Pauline Theology and Mission Practice Dean S. Gilliland, 1996-08-01 Not since Roland Allen's book in 1912 has there appeared such a thorough study of the Apostle Paul's mission theology and methodology The value of this comprehensive survey writes Harry R Boer in the foreword lies in part in its grounding in careful expository studies of Paul's ministry as revealed in Acts and in the corpus of the Pauline epistles Again and again the author illustrates the abiding relevance of Paul's first century insights for missionary thought and practice in the twentieth century He draws not only on Scripture but also on personal insights and illustrations arising from two decades of missionary service And he enters into significant dialogue with representative missionary literature of the modern period The book's five parts cover theology the sources and nature of Paul's theology and his theological assumptions for mission conversion Paul's conversion in Acts conversion as reality experience and process and conversion and the real world the convert's new life what its spiritual basis is and how to live it the church its oneness diversity and contextuality its leadership worship discipline and finance and the missionary his or her credentials and ministry Paul's theology was irresistible because it was energized by a fresh life changing experience and supported by a new love for all people writes the author in the introduction He then elaborates on four characteristics of that theology it is dynamic evangelical pastoral and holistic The absolute commitment of mind and body soul and spirit that was Paul's his love for the Lord Jesus and lost people everywhere concludes the author in the epilogue must be the very heart of the church Spiritual Warfare and Missions Jerry Rankin, Ed Stetzer, 2010 Two men widely known for their missional work warn Christians of Satan's attempts to thwart the scriptural mission of God inspiring a new fervor for global outreach Pentecost, Mission, and Ecumenism J. A. B. Jongeneel, 1992 Walter J Hollenweger born in Switzerland in 1927 and now retired was formerly Professor of Mission at the University of Birmingham UK He is also one of the Editors of the Series Studies in the Intercultural History of Christianity His wide and deep interest in both the Church and Theology also includes Ecumenics He enjoys a worldwide reputation not only for encouraging intercultural theology but also for his contribution to the study of Pentecostalism and Charismatic Renewal In this Hollenweger Festschrift the reader will find many interesting biographical recollections There are references to his case studies based also upon statistical materials which describe the growth of Pentecostalism and Charismatic Renewal together with his systematic reflections on the subject of interculturalization and encounter They certainly illustrate the emergence of Pentecostalism and Charismatic Renewal in all its many facets No less than twenty six specialists contributed to this Festschrift They come from America Europe Africa Asia and Australia Many of them obtained their doctorates under the supervision of Prof Hollenweger His colleagues have also contributed Their papers range over the same wide field which Hollenweger himself has pioneered and they survey that vast field from many different vantage points thus reflecting the ideals of their own colleague and mentor whose life work is justly honoured by their own labours

The Divine Missions Adonis Vidu, 2021-12-24 Christian theology affirms that the persons of the Son and the Holy Spirit are sent into the world to gather a scattered and rebellious humanity back to God But how are we to understand these divine missions given that the Son and the Spirit have already been present in the world from its foundation Moreover in what sense are they on a mission if they never leave the unity of the Trinity In this volume Vidu introduces us to the profound riches of this ancient and foundational doctrine With ample illustration he explains the technical concepts the operative principles and he clarifies the historical and contemporary debates In the process a constructive theology emerges where the category of divine missions frames topics such as the incarnation and life of Christ his atoning death and ascension the Pentecostal outpouring of the Spirit the invisible indwelling of the Spirit and finally the eschatological beatific vision
