to professional and lay publics and how their efforts contributed to an American formulation of race that has remained rooted in both bodies and cultures as well as heredity and society

Race and Racism Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2018-04-12 Race and Racism examines the foundations of race in American society from an anthropological perspective. The book offers an accessible overview of a variety of perspectives and theories on the biology of race, the social context of race, ethnicity, and ethnocentrism, and more. The second edition features significant updates throughout, including more discussion of critical race theory, new biophysical research on human origins, new material on media and racism, new global examples, and additional material on how racism impacts a variety of ethnic groups.

Atlas of Human Cranial Macromorphoscopic Traits Joseph T. Hefner, Candace C. Linde, 2018-08-02 Atlas of Human Cranial Macromorphoscopic Traits synthesizes macromorphoscopic traits and their analysis in an accessible manner, providing detailed descriptions and examples of the various character state manifestations intended for use in classrooms, laboratories, and in the field. The volume begins with an outline of the macromorphoscopic dataset, its history, recent modifications to the historical approach, and recent technological and analytical advances. Additional sections cover Nomenclature, Gross Anatomy, Function, Methodology, Line Drawings, Detailed Definitions, Multiple High-resolution Photographs, and Population Variation Data from the Macromorphoscopic Databank, MaMD. The volume concludes with a chapter outlining the statistical analysis of macromorphoscopic data and a summary of the computer programs and reference databases available to forensic anthropologists for the analysis of these data. Provides detailed descriptions, illustrations, and high-resolution images of various character state manifestations of seventeen macromorphoscopic traits. Applies to both forensic and bioarchaeological research. Written by the foremost expert on macromorphoscopic trait analysis and estimation of ancestry in forensic anthropology.

National Races Richard McMahon, 2019-08-01 National Races explores how politics interacted with transnational science in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. This interaction produced powerful racialized national identity discourses whose influence continues to resonate in today's culture and politics. Ethnologists, anthropologists, and raciologists compared modern physical types with ancient skeletal finds to unearth the deep prehistoric past and true nature of nations. These scientists understood certain physical types to be what Richard McMahon calls national races, or the ageless biological essences of nations. Contributors to this volume address a central tension in anthropological race classification. On one hand, classifiers were nationalists who explicitly or implicitly used race narratives to promote political agendas. Their accounts of prehistoric geopolitics treated national races as the proxies of nations in order to legitimize present-day geopolitical positions. On the other hand, the transnational community of race scholars resisted the centrifugal forces of nationalism. Their interdisciplinary project was a vital episode in the development of the social sciences, using biological race classification to explain the history, geography, relationships, and psychologies of nations. National Races goes to the heart of tensions between nationalism and transnationalism, politics, and science by examining transnational science from the perspective of its peripheries. Contributors to the book supplement the traditional focus of historians on France Britain and Germany with myriad case studies and examples of nineteenth and early twentieth century racial and national identities in countries such as Russia Italy Poland Greece and Yugoslavia and among Jewish anthropologists

50 Great Myths of Human Evolution John H.

Relethford,2017-01-17 50 Great Myths of Human Evolution uses common misconceptions to explore basic theory and research in human evolution and strengthen critical thinking skills for lay readers and students Examines intriguing yet widely misunderstood topics from general ideas about evolution and human origins to the evolution of modern humans and recent trends in the field Describes what fossils archaeology and genetics can tell us about human origins Demonstrates the ways in which science adapts and changes over time to incorporate new evidence and better explanations Includes myths such as Humans lived at the same time as dinosaurs Lucy was so small because she was a child Our ancestors have always made fire and There is a strong relationship between brain size and intelligence Comprised of stand alone essays that are perfect for casual reading as well as footnotes and references that allow readers to delve more deeply into topics

Dictionary of Race, Ethnicity and Culture Guido Bolaffi,2003 Race ethnicity and culture are concepts that are interpreted in various and often contradictory ways This dictionary provides the historical background and etymology of a wide range of words related to these concepts and ideas

A Cultural History of Race in the Renaissance and Early Modern Age Kimberly Ann Coles,Dorothy Kim,2023-06-01 The past is always an interpretive act from the lens of the present Through the lens of critical race theory the essays collected here explore new analytical models theoretical frameworks and methodological approaches in attempting to reimagine the European Renaissance and early modern periods in terms of global expansion awareness and participation Centering race in these periods requires that we acknowledge the people against whom social hierarchies and differential treatment were directed This collection takes Europe as its focus but White Europeans are not centred in it and the experiences of Black Africans Asians Jews and Muslims are not relegated to the margins of a shared history Situating Europe within a global context forces the reconsideration of the violence that attends the interaction of peoples both across cultures and enmired within them The less we are attentive to the cultural interactions cross cultural migrations and global dimensions of the late medieval and early modern periods the less we are forced to recognize the violence intolerance power struggles and enforced suppressions that attend them
