Containing the Principal Causes and Motives of that People's Dissent from the Forms of Worship established by Law.

CHAP. I.
Causes of their Dissent.

THE Testimony of a good Conscience, bearing Witness to the Truth, in Opposition to Opinions and Practices established, under the Name of Religion, by human Laws, and enforced by Penalties, has been the common Cause alledged by all sincere Sufferers, Confessors and Martyrs, for any Branch of Christian Doctrine or Duty required of them to teach or practise, either by the immediate Call and Evidence of the Spirit of God in themselves, or the Testimony of the holy Scriptures always agreeing therewith.

THIS GENERAL PLEA, the persecuted People, here treated of, have constantly, and as reasonably as any, insisted on, in Justification of themselves, and of that practical Dissent from Opinions and Customs in Religion, which though generally received, appeared to them inconsistent with the Truth, the Doctrine of which is firm and immutable, and which, though popular Prejudices and human Laws may sometimes contradict, they can never alter.

The principal Points wherein their Conscientious Nonconformity rendered them obnoxious to the Penalties of the Law, were,

I. Their Refusal to pay Tithes, which they esteemed a Jewish Ceremony abrogated by the Coming of Christ. They also considered, that the Levitical Priesthood, which took Tithes, being changed, a Change also of the Law which enjoined the Payment of them did necessarily follow: And that there being no Precept either of Christ or his Apostles, enjoining them to be paid under the Gospel, his Disciples are totally freed from all Obligation thereunto, and that it was a Christian Duty in them to stand fast in that Liberty wherewith Christ had made them free, and to be no more entangled with the Yoke of Bondage.

II. Their Refusal to pay Rates or Assessments for building and repairing Houses, or Places, appropriated to the Exercise of such a Worship as they did Written with clarity and conviction, the book employs a straightforward narrative style that reflects Penn's intent to explicate the spiritual and sociopolitical context of Quakerism amidst the tumultuous landscape of 17th century England. Interwoven with personal anecdotes and theological reflections, this work not only serves as a historical account but also as a theological manifesto that highlights the principles of peace, equality, and social justice that underpin Quaker belief. William Penn, a prominent Quaker leader, political theorist, and founder of Pennsylvania, was significantly influenced by his own experiences of persecution and religious dissent. His unique position afforded him access to the heart of the Quaker movement, enabling him to articulate its values and vision with both authority and intimacy. Penn's commitment to religious freedom and his deep understanding of the human spirit facilitated the profound exploration of Quaker practices and ideals that permeates this work. For readers interested in the intersections of spirituality, social change, and historical narrative, Penn's work is an invaluable resource. It is a compelling invitation to explore the essence of Quakerism and its enduring impact on modern thought, making it a vital piece for scholars, historians, and anyone seeking a deeper understanding of faith as a catalyst for social reform. A History of the People Called Quakers. from Their First Rise to the Present Time John Gough, 2012-08 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts, 1 We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition) as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. 2 In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches, etc. We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact.
