ATOM Ravi M. Shah,2020-07-29 There is a man who after an unfortunate event underwent a phase when he was waiting only either to be dead or to be rescued He had to kill the time but with something sweet he closed his eyes and remembered those moments of his life he lived One by one pictures flashed in front of the mind s eyes and all he could do was to witness silently He was rescued and his life took a U turn Back in his world questioned his love ones about incidents in their lives those affected them the most He meant the incidents they wouldn t stop thinking about come what may He gave his ears to all of it In the end he got a handful of them to hold on to and called it Life an ATOM in itself and thus the book All Those Ossum moments The world s private stories are always the hidden beautiful treasures in one s life but through the stories he realized those were still as much public as there is something common we all can share in the stories Not all but often we remember moments we felt we had experienced the extremes of Love Hate Hugs and Kisses Love is also an emotion that makes you the most vulnerable and melts you exactly the same as does revenge in one s life

Congo's Dancers Lesley Nicole Braun,2023-01-24 Dance music plays a central role in the cultural social religious and family lives of the people of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Among the various genres popular in the capital city of Kinshasa Congolese rumba occupies a special place and can be counted as one of the DRC s most well known cultural exports The public image of rumba was historically dominated by male bandleaders singers and musicians However with the introduction of the danseuse professional concert dancer in the late 1970s the role of women as cultural moral and economic actors came into public prominence and helped further raise Congolese rumba s international profile In Congo s Dancers Lesley Nicole Braun uses the prism of the Congolese danseuse to examine the politics of control and the ways in which notions of visibility virtue and socio economic opportunity are interlinked in this urban African context The work of the danseuse highlights the fact that public visibility is necessary to build the social networks required for economic independence even as this visibility invites social opprobrium for women The concert dancer therefore exemplifies many of the challenges that women face in Kinshasa as they navigate the public sphere and she illustrates the gendered differences of local patronage politics that shape public morality As an ethnographer Braun had unusual access to the world she documents having been invited to participate as a concert dancer herself
