Pauulu's Diaspora Quito J. Swan,2021-10-12 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Finalist Association for the Study of African American Life and History Book Prize Honorable Mention Organization of American Historians Liberty Legacy Foundation Award A Black Perspectives Best Black History Book of 2020 Winner of the African American Intellectual History Society Pauli Murray Book Prize Bermuda Literary Awards Dr Eva Hodgson Prize for Non Fiction Pauulu s Diaspora is a sweeping story of black internationalism across the Atlantic Indian and Pacific Ocean worlds told through the life and work of

twentieth century environmental activist Pauulu Kamarakafego Challenging U S centered views of Black Power Quito Swan offers a radically broader perspective showing how Kamarakafego helped connect liberation efforts of the African diaspora throughout the Global South Born in Bermuda and with formative experiences in Cuba Kamarakafego was aware at an early age of the effects of colonialism and the international scope of racism and segregation After pursuing graduate studies in ecological engineering he traveled to Africa where he was inspired by the continent's independence struggles and contributed to various sustainable development movements Swan explores Kamarakafego's remarkable fusion of political agitation and scientific expertise and traces his emergence as a central coordinator of major black internationalist conferences Despite government surveillance Kamarakafego built a network of black organizers that reached from Kenya to the islands of Oceania and included such figures as C L R James Queen Mother Audley Moore Kwame Nkrumah Sonia Sanchez Sylvia Hill Malcolm X Vanessa Griffen and Stokely Carmichael In a riveting narrative that runs through Caribbean sugarcane fields Liberian rubber plantations and Papua New Guinean rainforests Pauulu's Diaspora recognizes a global leader who has largely been absent from scholarship In doing so it brings to light little known relationships among Black Power pan Africanism and environmental justice Materializing the Middle Passage Jane Webster, 2023-10-31 An estimated 2.7 million Africans made an enforced crossing of the Atlantic on British slave ships between c 1680 and 1807 a journey that has become known as the Middle Passage This book focuses on the slave ship itself The slave ship is the largest artefact of the Transatlantic slave trade but because so few examples of wrecked slaving vessels have been located at sea it is rarely studied by archaeologists Materializing the Middle Passage A Historical Archaeology of British Slave Shipping 1680-1807 argues that there are other ways for archaeologists to materialize the slave ship It employs a pioneering interdisciplinary methodology combining primary documentary sources maritime and terrestrial archaeology paintings maritime and ethnographic museum collections and many other sources to rebuild British slaving vessels and to identify changes to them over time The book then goes on to consider the reception of the slave ship and its trade goods in coastal West Africa and details the range and uses of the many African resources including ivory gold and live animals entering Britain on returning slave ships The third section of the book focuses on the Middle Passage experiences of both captives and crews and argues that greater attention needs to be paid to the coping mechanisms through which Africans survived yet also challenged their captive passage Finally Jane Webster asks why the African Middle Passage experience remains so elusive even after decades of scholarship dedicated to uncovering it She considers when how and why the crossing was remembered by saltwater captives in the Caribbean and North America The marriage of words and things attempted in this richly illustrated book is underpinned throughout by a theoretical perspective combining creolization and postcolonial theory and by a central focus on the materiality of the slave ship and its regimes
