   People of the Potlatch: Native Arts and Culture of the Pacific Northwest Coast B. C. Art Gallery Vancouver,   Seeking Transcendence Joseph C. Manzella,2025-06-23 Seeking Transcendence examines the various paths taken by those who have detached themselves from their traditional institutional religious roots but are seeking non traditional paths to spiritual experiences Called the nones or non affiliated in popular mass media these include a significant number of Western folks who maintain a belief in God or at least consider themselves spiritual but not religious Each chapter of the book explores these trends with a specific theme as well as a case study based on the author s ethnographic observation of alternative spiritual communities and practices in North America and Western Europe Ultimately this book shows how contemporary alternatives to traditional institutional religion appeal to nones presenting the relevance of new religious movements and more secular spiritual paths to transcendence   An Introduction to Native North America Mark Q. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Indian Affairs,1989   People of the Potlatch Vancouver Art Gallery,1956 This book acts as a supplement to an exhibition of Pacific Northwest Indian art shown in the Vancouver Art Gallery in 1956   Cis Dideen Kat Jo-Anne Fiske,Betty Patrick,2000 Winner of the 2013 Washington State Book Award in Poetry This book examines the Lake Babine Nation in north central British Columbia considering its traditional legal order and the way that order determines the people s identity and the nature of their involvement in current treaty negotiations Changing relations between the Natives and the Canadian state have resulted in a new awareness of customary legal orders While such orders are often seen as a process by which the state can accommodate diverse approaches to judicial fairness and social justice they also offer the means by which aboriginal nations can maintain their identity by sustaining a moral order in a viable self defined and self governed community For the Lake Babine Nation this moral order is defined by and lived through the feasting complex known as the bahlats or potlatch system   Making Representations Moira G. Simpson,2012-12-06 Drawing upon material from Britain Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand Making Representations explores the ways in which museums and anthropologists are responding to pressures in the field by developing new policies and practices and forging new relationships with communities Simpson examines the increasing number of museums and cultural centres being established by indigenous and immigrant communities as they take control of the interpretive process and challenge the traditional role of the museum Museum studies students and museum professionals will all find this a stimulating and valuable read   Strange Visitors Keith D. Smith,2014-08-20 Covering topics such as the Indian Act the High Arctic relocation of 1953 and the conflict at Ipperwash Keith D Smith draws on a diverse selection of documents including letters testimonies speeches transcripts newspaper articles and government records In his thoughtful introduction Smith provides guidance on the unique challenges of dealing with Indigenous primary sources by highlighting the critical skill of reading against the grain Each chapter includes an introduction and a list of discussion questions and helpful background information is provided for each of the readings Organized thematically into fifteen chapters the reader also contains a list of key figures along with maps and images   Taatsaa' Shaa K' Exalthet Kenny Thomas,2005 Born in 1922 Kenny Thomas Sr has been a trapper firefighter road builder river freight hauler and soldier Today he is a respected elder and member of a northern Athabaskan tribal group residing in Tanacross Alaska As a song and dance leader for the Tanacross community Thomas has been teaching village traditions at an annual culture camp for more than twenty years Over a three year period folklorist Craig Mishler conducted a series of interviews with Thomas about his life experiences Crow Is My Boss is the fascinating result of this collaboration Written in a style that reflects the dialogue between Thomas and Mishler Crow Is My Boss retains the authenticity of Thomas s voice capturing his honesty and humor Thomas reveals biographical details performs and explains traditional folktales and the potlatch tradition and discusses ghosts and medicine people One folktale is presented in both English and Tanacross Thomas s native language A compelling personal story Crow Is My Boss provides insight into the traditional and contemporary culture of Tanacross Athabaskans in Alaska Volume 250 in the Civilization of the American Indian series   Indian Agents John L. Steckley,2016-08-19 Canadians are beginning to learn about the negative effects of residential schools on Aboriginal people in Canada More hidden in the written record but bearing a similar powerfully destructive role are Indian Agents who were with very few exceptions White men who ruled the reserves in Canada from the 1870s to the 1960s This book is the first to present a discussion of Indian Agents in general It provides an introductory look at the control Indian Agents exercised over Aboriginal communities throughout the period in question The primary intent is to spark discussion in Indigenous studies courses This book is built upon a discussion of the lives and impact of five Indian Agents Hayter Reed William Morris Graham John McIver William Halliday and Fred Hall However the practices and views of 39 other Indian Agents are interwoven throughout the text Although there was a readily detectable sameness in the way that Indian Agent power was imposed on Aboriginal communities based on the institutional racism of the Indian Agent System one of the points to be made is that not all Indian Agents were the same Some were more oppressive than others Also frequently pointed out is the fact that Aboriginal peoples were not merely helpless victims to Indian Agent control but resisted that control sometimes successfully

The book concludes with a chapter comparing the Indian Agent System in Canada with similar systems in the United States Australia and New Zealand   First Nations Cultural Heritage and Law Catherine Bell,Val Napoleon,2009-01-01 First Nations Cultural Heritage and Law explores First Nations perspectives on cultural heritage and issues of reform within and beyond Western law Written in collaboration with First Nation partners it contains seven case studies featuring indigenous concepts legal orders and encounters with legislation and negotiations a national review essay three chapters reflecting on major themes and a self reflective critique on the challenges of collaborative and intercultural research Although the volume draws on specific First Nation experiences it covers a wide range of topics of concern to Inuit Metis and other indigenous peoples   Canadian Working-class History Laurel Sefton MacDowell,Ian Walter Radforth,2006 Canadian Working Class History Selected Readings Third Edition is an updated version of the bestselling reader that brings together recent and classic scholarship on the history politics and social groups of the working class in Canada Some of the changes readers will find in the new edition include better representation of women scholars and nine provocative and ground breaking new articles on racism and human rights women s equality gender history Quebec sovereignty and the environment   A History of Alaskan Athapaskans William E. Simeone,1982 A history of Alaskan Athapaskans is a work which fills a gap in information about Athapaskans in Alaska their culture and their history The book is divided into two parts a description of Athapaskan culture as it was about the early to middle nineteenth century and a historical narrative This is a fascinating and informative book useful for both scholar and lay person Back cover   Northwest Anthropological Research Notes Roderick Sprague,Deward E.
