Sea Peoples of Northern Levant? Aegean-Style Pottery from Early Iron Age Tell Tayinat Brian Janeway,2018-07-17 Did an invasion of the Sea Peoples cause the collapse of the Late Bronze Age palace based economies of the Levant as well as of the Hittite Empire Renewed excavations at Tell Tayinat in southeast Turkey are shedding new light on the critical transitional phase of the Late Bronze Early Iron Age ca 1200 1000 B C a period that in the Northern Levant has until recently been considered a Dark Age due in large part to the few extant textual sources relating to its history However recently discovered epigraphic data from both the site and the surrounding region suggest the formation of an Early Iron Age kingdom that fused Hieroglyphic Luwian monumental script with a strong component of Aegeanizing cultural elements The capital of this putative erstwhile kingdom appears to have been located at Tell Tayinat in the Amuq Valley More specifically this formal stylistic analysis examines a distinctive painted pottery known as Late Helladic IIIC found at the site of Tayinat during several seasons of excavation The assemblage includes examples of Aegean style bowls kraters and amphorae bearing an array of distinctive decorative features A key objective of the study distinguishes Aegean stylistic characteristics both in form and in painted motifs from those inspired by the indigenous culture Drawing on a wide range of parallels from Philistia through the Levant Anatolia the Aegean Sea the Greek Mainland and Cyprus this research begins to fill a longstanding lacuna in the Amuq Valley and attempts to correlate with major historical and cultural trends in the Northern Levant and beyond In Sea Peoples of the Northern Levant Janeway ably navigates the complex context within which these data must be historically and archaeologically situated and provides a first look at the Aegeanizing ceramics from the Tell Tayinat assemblage that is both comprehensive and invaluable For researchers and scholars working within the complex material and historical tapestry of the Late Bronze Early Iron Age transition in the eastern Mediterranean this volume is highly recommended Jeffrey P Emanuel Harvard University in American Journal of Archaeology 123 3 2019

Voices of a People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Anthony Arno, 2011-01-04 Here in their own words are Frederick Douglass George Jackson Chief Joseph Martin Luther King Jr

Plough Jogger Sacco and Vanzetti Patti Smith Bruce Springsteen Mark Twain and Malcolm X to name just a few of the hundreds of voices that appear in Voices of a People's History of the United States edited by Howard Zinn and Anthony Arnove. Paralleling the twenty-four chapters of Zinn's A People's History of the United States, Voices of a People's History is the long-awaited companion volume to the national bestseller. For Voices, Zinn and Arnove have selected testimonies to living history: speeches, letters, poems, songs left by the people who make history happen but who usually are left out of history books: women, workers, nonwhites. Zinn has written short introductions to the texts which range in length from letters or poems of less than a page to entire speeches and essays that run several pages. Voices of a People's History is a symphony of our nation's original voices, rich in ideas and actions, the embodiment of the power of civil disobedience and dissent wherein lies our nation's true spirit of defiance and resilience.
