Tears for Jerusalem John Brinsley,2014-01-09 This wonderful work Tears for Jerusalem is a pastoral and compassionate demonstration of the lamentation of a tender hearted Savior over a rebellious people rejecting the Gospel Brinsley taught this subject during a national time of solemn humiliation in 1655 His principle text is Luke 19 41 42 And when he was come near he beheld the City and wept over it Saying If thou hadst known even thou at the least in this thy day the things which belong unto thy peace But now they are hid from thine eyes His primary point of the treatise was to teach his nation and the people of the church to fear the coming judgment of God on the nation for rejecting and despising the Gospel And then that God would in his free grace and mercy return and look down from heaven and visit this vine and the vineyard which his own right hand hath planted This practical work highlights the preached word or the publication of the Gospel and how the regenerate respond to it as well as how the unregenerate despise it but should not and are required to believe it This work is not a scan or facsimile and has been made easy to read with an active table of contents for electronic versions *Of the Imitation of Christ: in three books.
