Handbook of Disability Studies Gary L. Albrecht, Katherine D. Seelman, Michael Bury, 2001 This path breaking international handbook of disability studies signals the emergence of a vital new area of scholarship social policy and activism Drawing on the insights of disability scholars around the world and the creative advice of an international editorial board the book engages the reader in the critical issues and debates framing disability studies and places them in an historical and cultural context Five years in the making this one volume summarizes the ongoing discourse ranging across continents and traditional academic disciplines To provide insight and perspective the volume is divided into three sections

The shaping of disability studies as a field experiencing disability and disability in context Each section written by world class figures consists of original chapters designed to map the field and explore the key conceptual theoretical methodological practice and policy issues that constitute the field Each chapter provides a critical review of an area positions and literature and an agenda for future research and practice The handbook answers the need expressed by the disability community for a thought provoking interdisciplinary international examination of the vibrant field of disability studies The book will be of interest to disabled people scholars policy makers and activists alike The book aims to define the existing field stimulate future debate encourage respectful discourse between different interest groups and move the field a step forward Lao

People's Democratic Republic International Monetary Fund,2008-10-21 This paper focuses on Second Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper for Lao People s Democratic Republic The economic sectors have undergone significant restructuring This restructuring has been concentrated on production capacities quality and efficiency thus contributing to economic growth and meeting the initial requirements for international integration The government has also concentrated on the development of agricultural production to reorient the agriculture sector from semisubsistence and subsistence to commercial production to ensure the enhanced supply of raw materials to the processing industries meeting the growing domestic requirements for agricultural products and rapidly expanding agricultural exports People's Republic of China ,1972 Economic

Policy of the People's Republic of China Barbara Darimont,2023-01-01 This book deals with the current economic policy of the People s Republic of China In addition to a brief overview of economic history since its founding and discussions of economic models an overview of both the forms of business and the Chinese labor market is provided The book pays particular attention to the development of China s e commerce sector Equally significant are China s environmental issues against the backdrop of the climate crisis Without innovations for example in energy production and waste management the Chinese economy will hardly be able to continue growing Therefore one focus of the book is on economic policy in the environmental sector Finally foreign policy including the Silk Road Initiative is examined The aim of this book is to highlight the above developments It is aimed at laypersons involved in the business of China as well as first year students who want an overview of economic policy institutions and current developments Congressional Record United States. Congress,1971

The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Trees on Mars Hal Niedzviecki,2015-10-20 The future is big right now for perhaps the first time our society is more focused on what is going to happen in the future than what is happening right now In Trees on Mars Our Obsession with the Future cultural critic and indie entrepreneur Hal Niedzviecki asks how and when we started believing we could and should create the future What is it like to live in a society utterly focused on what is going to happen next Through visits to colleges corporations tech conferences factories and more Niedzwiecki traces the story of how owning the future has become irresistible to us In deep conversation with both the beneficiaries and victims of our relentless obsession with the future Niedzwiecki asks crucial questions Where are we actually heading How will we get there And whom may we be leaving behind US Black Engineer & IT, 2010 Thinking with Bruno Latour in Rhetoric and Composition Paul Lynch, Nathaniel Rivers, 2015-04-20 Best known for his books We Have Never Been Modern Laboratory of Life and Science in Action Bruno Latour has inspired scholarship across many disciplines In the past few years the fields of rhetoric and composition have witnessed an explosion of interest in Latour s work Editors Paul Lynch and Nathaniel Rivers have assembled leading and emerging scholars in order to focus the debate on what Latour means for the study of persuasion and written communication Essays in this volume discern rearticulate and occasionally critique rhetoric and composition s growing interest in Latour These contributions include work on topics such as agency argument rhetorical history pedagogy and technology among others Contributors explain key terms identify implications of Latour s work for rhetoric and composition and explore how his theories might inform writing pedagogies and be used to build research methodologies Thinking with Bruno Latour in Rhetoric and Composition shows how Latour s groundbreaking theories on technology agency and networks might be taken up enriched and extended to challenge scholars in rhetorical studies both English and communications composition and writing studies to rethink some of the field s most basic assumptions It is set to become the standard introduction that will appeal not only to those scholars already interested in Latour but also those approaching Latour for the first time Reforming Capitalism, Going Digital and Green D. Hugh Whittaker, Yoshifumi Nakata, 2025-03-27 The book describes Japan s efforts since 2015 to exit the deflationary lost decades and chart a new economic course through digital and green transformation as well as new sustainable capitalism Japan is attempting to revitalize and reorient its economy through digital and green transformation At the same time it is seeking to make a more equitable and sustainable transition through new sustainable capitalism These twin efforts face strong headwinds not least from a declining and ageing population and social divisions from earlier neoliberal policies There are also contradictions which are highlighted by corporate governance and labour market reforms as well as technology push and competitiveness versus social needs oriented innovation The chapters in this volume by Japanese and non Japanese experts highlight the emerging path of change towards Society 5.0 the quest to combine green and growth and continued obstacles for full participation of women They especially highlight the need for Japan to invest in people again matching human centred rhetoric with concrete policy commitments and implementation Only then will Japan truly emerge from its lost decades This book is relevant for students researchers and policymakers in the fields of economics sustainable development environmental studies public policy and social sciences The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Asia Pacific Business Review The Culture of Citizenship Thomas Bridges, 1997 Innovate to

Dominance Tai Ming Cheung, 2022-08-15 In Innovate to Dominate Tai Ming Cheung offers insight into why how and whether China will overtake the United States to become the world's preeminent technological and security power This examination of the means and ends of China's quest for techno security supremacy is required reading for anyone looking for clues as to the long term direction of the global order The techno security domain Cheung argues is where national security innovation and economic development converge and it has become the center of power and prosperity in the twenty first century China's paramount leader Xi Jinping recognizes that effectively harnessing the complex interactions among security innovation and development is essential in enabling China to compete for global dominance Cheung offers a richly detailed account of how China is building a potent techno security state In Innovate to Dominate he takes readers from the strategic vision guiding this transformation to the nuts and bolts of policy implementation The state led top down mobilizational model that China is pursuing has been a winning formula so far but the sternest test is ahead as China begins to compete head to head with the United States and aims to surpass its archrival by mid century if not sooner Innovate to Dominate is a timely and analytically rigorous examination of the key strategies guiding China's transformation of its capabilities in the national technological military and security spheres and how this is taking place Cheung authoritatively addresses the burning questions being asked in capitals around the world Can China become the dominant global techno security power And if so when

Technological Development in China, India and Japan Erik Baark, Andrew Jamison, 1986-06-18 The European Union Social Policy on Older People in the Light of the Deinstitutionalisation of Social Services Wioletta Knapik, Magdalena Kowalska, Tomasz Masłyk, Danka Moravčíková, 2022-07-11 The authors propose a holistic look at the problem of population ageing and global and regional effort to improve the quality of seniors life and their families through the integration of healthcare social care and senior friendly environment They also concentrate on the senior policy of the European Union and the concept of care farming against the backdrop of social farming Finally they present the results of the two largest studies under the GROWID project They investigated older people's needs against the background of the social services provided by care farms
