People And Plants In Australia:

People and Plants in Australia Denis J. Carr, S. G. M. Carr, 1981 Essays by various authors about the history of botanical science and early agriculture chap 1 The botany of the first Australians by D J and S G M Carr annotated separately

Australian Native Plants Yasmina Sultanbawa, Fazal Sultanbawa, 2017-12-19 Australian Native Plants Cultivation and Uses in the Health and Food Industries provides a comprehensive overview of native food crops commercially grown in Australia that possess nutritional and health properties largely unknown on a global basis These native foods have been consumed traditionally have a unique flavor diversity offer significant health promoting effects and contain useful functional properties Australian native plant foods have also been identified for their promising antioxidant and antimicrobial properties that have considerable commercial potential This book is divided into three parts The first part reviews the cultivation and production of many Australian native plants ANP including Anise Myrtle Bush Tomato Desert Raisin Davidson s Plum Desert Limes Australian Finger Lime Kakadu Plum Lemon Aspen Lemon Myrtle Muntries Native Pepper Quandong Riberry and Wattle Seed It then examines the food and health applications of ANP and discusses alternative medicines based on aboriginal traditional knowledge and culture nutritional characteristics and bioactive compounds in ANP In addition it reviews the anti obesity and anti inflammatory properties of ANP and discusses food preservation antimicrobial activity of ANP and unique flavors from Australian native plants The third section covers the commercial applications of ANP It focuses on native Australian plant extracts and cosmetic applications processing of native plant foods and ingredients quality changes during packaging and storage of Australian native herbs The final few chapters look into the importance of value chains that connect producers and consumers of native plant foods new market opportunities for Australian indigenous food plants and the safety of using native foods as ingredients in the health and food sectors Australian Vegetation David A.

Keith, 2017-06-15 This fully updated third edition provides a modern synthesis and review of the latest advances in understanding native vegetation across Australia People, Plants and Genes Denis J Murphy, 2007-07-19 This book provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of human plant interactions and their social consequences from the hunter gatherers of the Palaeolithic Era to the 21st century molecular manipulation of crops It links the latest advances in molecular genetics climate research and archaeology to give a new perspective on the evolution of agriculture and complex human societies across the world Even today our technologically advanced societies still rely on plants for basic food needs not to mention clothing shelter medicines and tools This special relationship has tied together people and their chosen plants in mutual dependence for well over 50 000 years Yet despite these millennia of intimate contact people have only domesticated and cultivated a few dozen of the tens of thousands of potentially available edible plants This limited domestication process led directly to the evolution of the complex urban based societies that have dominated much of human development over the past ten millennia Thanks to the latest genomic studies we can now begin to explain how when and where some of the most important crops came to be domesticated and the crucial roles of plant genetics climatic change and social organisation in these processes Indeed it was their unique genetic organisations that ultimately determined which plants eventually became crops rather than any conscious decisions by their human cultivators The book is aimed at a wide audience ranging from plant specialists such as geneticists molecular biologists and agronomists to a more general readership of archaeologists anthropologists historians and others who wish to explore the complex processes that have shaped the often crucial relationships between plants and human societies over the past hundred millennia

Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Melanie Duckworth, Annika Herb, 2023-10-04 Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Roots and Winged Seeds explores cultural and historical aspects of the representation of plants in Australian children's and young adult literature encompassing colonial postcolonial and Indigenous perspectives While plants tend to be backgrounded as of less narrative interest than animals and humans this book in conversation with the field of critical plant studies approaches them as living beings worthy of attention Australia is home to over 20 000 species of native plants from pungent Eucalypts to twisting mangroves from tiny orchids to spiky silvery spinifex Indigenous Australians have lived with relied upon and cultivated these plants for many thousands of years When European explorers and colonists first invaded Australia unfamiliar species of plants captured their imagination Vulnerable to bushfires climate change and introduced species plants continue to occupy fraught but vital places in Australian ecologies texts and cultures Discussing writers from Ambelin Kwaymullina and Auntie Joy Murphy to May Gibbs and Ethel Turner and embracing transnational perspectives from Ukraine Poland and Aotearoa New Zealand Storying Plants addresses the stories told about plants but also the stories that plants themselves tell engaging with the wide ranging significance of plants in Australian children's and Young Adult literature

Alliances in the Anthropocene Christine Eriksen, Susan Ballard, 2020-02-29 This book explores how fire plants and people coexist in the Anthropocene In a time of dramatic environmental transformation the authors examine how human impacts on the planetary system are being felt at all levels from the geological and the arboreal to the atmospheric The book brings together the disciplines of human geography and art history to examine fire plant people alliances and multispecies world making The authors listen carefully to the narratives of bushfire survivors They embrace the responses of contemporary artists as practice becomes interwoven with fire as well as ruin and regrowth Through visual textual and felt ways of being the chapters illuminate illustrate impress and imprint the imagined and actual agency of plants and people within a changing climate from Aboriginal ecocultural burning to nuclear fire By holding grief and enacting hope the book shows how relationships come to be and are likely to change due to the interdependencies of fire plants and people in the Anthropocene

Handbook of Research on Deconstructing Culture and Communication in the Global South Okocha, Desmond Onyemechi, Yousaf, Muhammad, Onobe, Melchizedec J., 2023-07-10 There are inequalities in global knowledge production in communication outlets cultural practices and governance problems Under this symbiotic relationship they reinforce the cultural ideas values and governance systems operating in the Western countries as an ideal and role model for the Global South countries Media is regarded as the agent of change for communication and cultural values Indigenous knowledge production and dissemination is an essential feature to get a better insight into Global South countries Likewise dewesternizing and demystifying societal culture and governance issues are pertinent in this age of information The Handbook of Research on Deconstructing Culture and Communication in the Global South focuses on local production practices keeping in view the local needs of communication outlets and societal and cultural sensitivities This Indigenous knowledge would provide deeper and richer insights into the problems and sensitivities of Global South countries To achieve this end this book adopts a broader approach encompassing development issues democratic values digitalization practices gender equality issues and more Covering topics such as biocultural activism language ideology and religiocentrism this major reference work is a valuable resource for graduate students sociologists government officials students and educators of higher education librarians development organization leaders religious scholars policymakers researchers and academicians

Social Geography Series: Eastern hemisphere
 Frederick Kenneth Branom,1928 World Geographies Ralph Stockman Tarr, Frank Morton McMurry,1919 The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Indigenous Australia and New Guinea Ian J. McNiven, Bruno David,2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Indigenous Australia and New Guinea reviews and brings together the latest findings on the archaeology of the Australia New Guinea region In 42 new chapters commissioned for this book 77 leading researchers present the archaeological evidence for Australia and New Guinea s deep time history The stories told reveal the astounding richness of Australia and New Guinea s Indigenous cultural history stories of tens of thousands of years of Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander and New Guinean adaptation cultural know how and creative ingenuity

People, Plants, and Justice
 Charles Zerner,2000 In an era of market triumphalism this book probes the social and environmental consequences of market linked nature conservation schemes Rather than supporting a new anti market orthodoxy Charles Zerner and colleagues assert that there is no universal entity the market Analysis and remedies must be based on broader considerations of history culture and geography in order to establish meaningful and lasting changes in policy and practice Original case studies from Asia Latin America Africa and the South Pacific focus on topics as diverse as ecotourism bioprospecting oil extraction cyanide fishing timber extraction and property rights The cases position concerns about biodiversity conservation and resource management within social justice and legal perspectives providing new insights for students scholars policy professionals and donor foundations engaged in international conservation and social justice

Australia's Biodiversity and Climate Change Will Steffen, Andrew A. Burbidge, Lesley Hughes, Roger Kitching, David Lindenmayer, Warren Musgrave, Mark Stafford Smith, Patricia A. Werner,2009 Australia s unique biodiversity is under threat from a rapidly changing climate The effects of climate change are already discernible at all levels of biodiversity genes species communities and ecosystems Many of Australia's most valued and iconic natural areas the Great Barrier Reef south western Australia the Kakadu wetlands and the Australian Alps are among the most vulnerable But much more is at stake than saving iconic species or ecosystems Australia's biodiversity is fundamental to the country's national identity economy and quality of life In the face of uncertainty about specific climate scenarios ecological and management principles provide a sound basis for maximising opportunities for species to adapt communities to reorganise and ecosystems to transform while maintaining basic functions critical to human society This innovative approach to biodiversity conservation under a changing climate leads to new challenges for management policy development and institutional design This book explores these challenges building on a detailed analysis of the interactions between a changing climate and Australia's rich but threatened biodiversity Australia's Biodiversity and Climate Change is an important reference for policy makers researchers educators students journalists environmental and conservation NGOs NRM managers and private landholders with an interest in biodiversity conservation in a rapidly changing world Publisher Culture, Ecology, and Economy of Fire Management in North Australian Savannas Jeremy Russell-Smith, Peter J. Whitehead, Peter Cooke, 2009 In 12 multi authored chapters this book documents key challenges and novel options for addressing chronic landscape scale fire management issues in North Australian Savannas through development of both collaborative cross cultural approaches and commercially supported environment programs

Correspondence about the book People and plants in Australia Bryan Gandevis, A Complete Geography John Cameron Saul, 1909 Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Donald S. Garden, 2005-08-19 A fascinating study of the environmental history of Australia New Zealand and the islands of the Pacific from the time of the dinosaurs to the present day Of interest to students and academics alike this book provides a much needed synthesis of the recent literature on the environmental history of Australia and Oceania Part of ABC CLIO's Nature and Human Societies series this book maps out the key trends in the region's environmental history charting the creation of the Australian continent from the ancient land mass of Gondwanaland to the arrival of humans Especially fascinating are the chapters highlighting how successive waves of human migration created environmental havoc throughout the region leading to the collapse of the Easter Island civilization and the spread of nonindigenous flora and fauna From the controversies over the reasons why creatures such as the marsupial lion and the giant kangaroo became extinct to such contemporary problems as deforestation and global warming this book contains sobering lessons for us all First Knowledges Plants Zena Cumpston, Michael Fletcher, Lesley Head, 2022-09-27 What do you need to know to prosper as a people for at least 65 000 years The First Knowledges series provides a deeper understanding of the expertise and ingenuity of Indigenous Australians Plants are the foundation of life on Earth Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have always known this to be true For millennia reciprocal relationships with plants have provided both sustenance to Indigenous communities and many of the materials needed to produce a complex array of technologies Managed through fire and selective harvesting and replanting

the longevity and intricacy of these partnerships are testament to the ingenuity and depth of Indigenous first knowledges Plants Past Present and Future celebrates the deep cultural significance of plants and shows how engaging with this heritage could be the key to a healthier more sustainable future Plants Past Present and Future calls for new ways of understanding and engaging with Country and reveals the power and possibility of Indigenous ecological expertise BILLY GRIFFITHS An enlightening read on the power of plants and the management practices of Indigenous people TERRI JANKE Foraging and Farming David R. Harris, Gordon C. Hillman, 2014-10-30 This book is one of a series of more than 20 volumes resulting from the World Archaeological Congress September 1986 attempting to bring together not only archaeologists and anthropologists from many parts of the world as well as academics from contingent disciplines but also non academics from a wide range of cultural backgrounds This volume develops a new approach to plant exploitation and early agriculture in a worldwide comparative context It modifies the conceptual dichotomy between hunter gatherers and farmers viewing human exploitation of plant resources as a global evolutionary process which incorporated the beginnings of cultivation and crop domestication The studies throughout the book come from a worldwide range of geographical contexts from the Andes to China and from Australia to the Upper Mid West of North America This work is of interest to anthropologists archaeologists botanists and geographers Originally published 1989 Night Skies of Aboriginal Australia Dianne Johnson, 2014-02-19 Written by anthropologist Diane Johnson Night Skies of Aboriginal Australia has been in demand since its publication in 1998 It is a record of the stars and planets which pass across night time Indigenous Australia For Kids For Dummies Larissa Behrendt, 2021-10-18 A comprehensive relevant and accessible look at all aspects of Indigenous Australian history and culture Indigenous Australia For Kids For Dummies is here to enlighten you about the history struggles and triumphs of the diverse peoples that make up Australia s Indigenous communities Did you know that Australia is home to the world s oldest culture Experience 60 000 years of history and culture plus get right up to the minute with amazing facts about Indigenous sports and entertainment figures and info on what matters to Indigenous peoples today This interactive book has loads of features that will engage and excite readers aged 10 15 years old and their teachers and parents Featuring profiles of celebrated Indigenous people like Cathy Freeman and Albert Namatjira as well as fun research projects and hands on activities that bring Indigenous Australia to life Ever wanted to connect with your local Indigenous communities This book will give you ideas about how you can connect with First Nations peoples and other interactive ways to extend your learning out of the book Discover the rich culture long history and special values of the world s oldest race Learn about Indigenous art song dance literature and contributions to contemporary Australia Impress friends and family with your knowledge of Australian colonisation and Indigenous rights Figure out what s going on in the lives of Indigenous Australians today and bust the most common myths This book is perfect for young readers who want to appreciate and understand the diverse proud and fascinating peoples that make up Australia s Indigenous communities
