People In Places A Documentary Case Study Workbook Paperback:

The Documentary Film Book Brian Winston, 2019-07-25 Powerfully posing questions of ethics ideology authorship and form documentary film has never been more popular than it is today Edited by one of the leading British authorities in the field The Documentary Film Book is an essential guide to current thinking on documentary film In a series of fascinating essays key international experts discuss the theory of documentary outline current understandings of its history from pre Flaherty to the post Griersonian world of digital i Docs survey documentary production from Africa to Europe and from the Americas to Asia consider documentaries by marginalised minority communities and assess its contribution to other disciplines and arts Brought together here in one volume these scholars offer compelling evidence as to why over the last few decades documentary has come to the centre of screen studies Urban People and Places Daniel Joseph Monti, Michael Ian Borer, Lyn C. Macgregor, 2014-02-10 Providing a thorough and comprehensive survey of the contemporary urban world that is accessible to students Urban People and Places The Sociology of Cities Suburbs and Towns will give balanced treatment to both the process by which cities are built i e urbanization and the ways of life practiced by people that live and work in more urban places i e urbanism unlike most core texts in this area Whereas most texts focus on the socio economic causes of urbanization this text analyses the cultural component how the physical construction of places is in part a product of cultural beliefs ideas and practices and also how the culture of those who live work and play in various places is shaped structured and controlled by the built environment Inasmuch as the primary focus will be on the United States global discussion is composed with an eye toward showing how U S cities suburbs and towns are different and alike from their counterparts in Africa Asia and Central and South America Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Information Design Workbook, Revised and Updated Kim Baer, 2021-12-14 Information Design Workbook Revised and Updated provides an up to date guide on creating visually compelling and useful graphics Communities and the Clean Energy Revolution Melanie J. La Rosa, 2022-01-14 Communities and the Clean Energy Revolution Public Health Economics Design and Transformation is an engaging and interdisciplinary investigation into clean energy systems such as solar and wind power and the need to transform our energy system Looking at the intersection of clean energy with community engagement diversity and economic development it is a remarkably accessible account from the front lines of the clean energy revolution Organized as a series of case studies set in eight locations the author profiles people leading varied renewable energy projects from using solar to survive hurricanes to passing a Green New Deal bill for America s largest city the beginnings of the offshore wind industry modular solar power systems and changing the culture of an entire utility Each case study is set into context of broader research addressing how cities and states meet clean energy goals how solar or wind power address blackouts and how individuals can accelerate clean energy for their home business or community This book goes beyond merely explaining clean energy transition by providing unique insight into the calls for a complete transformation of America's energy system

Historical Archaeology and Indigenous Collaboration D. Rae Gould, Holly Herbst, Heather Law Pezzarossi, Stephen A. Mrozowski, 2024-04-02 Highlighting the strong relationship between New England's Nipmuc people and their land from the pre-contact period to the present day this book helps demonstrate that the history of Native Americans did not end with the arrival of Europeans This is the rich result of a twenty year collaboration between Indigenous and non-Indigenous authors who use their own example to argue that Native peoples need to be integral to any research project focused on Indigenous history and culture Take Care of the Living Jeffrey W. McClurken, 2009-08-11 Take Care of the Living assesses the short and long term impact of the war on Confederate veteran families of all classes in Pittsylvania County and Danville Virginia Using letters diaries church minutes and military and state records as well as close analysis of the entire 1860 and 1870 Pittsylvania County manuscript population census McClurken explores the consequences of the war for over three thousand Confederate soldiers and their families The author reveals an array of strategies employed by those families to come to terms with their postwar reality including reorganizing and reconstructing the household turning to local churches for emotional and economic support pleading with local elites for financial assistance or positions sending psychologically damaged family members to a state run asylum and looking to the state for direct assistance in the form of replacement limbs for amputees pensions and even state supported homes for old soldiers and widows Although these strategies or institutions for reconstructing the family had their roots in existing practices the extreme need brought on by the scope and impact of the Civil War required an expansion beyond anything previously seen McClurken argues that this change serves as a starting point for the study of the evolution of southern welfare The Interactive Documentary in Canada Michael Brendan Baker, Jessica Mulvogue, 2024-06-18 Interactive documentary emerged rapidly from a constellation of changing technologies and practices to much excitement yet its history is short and its future uncertain In the mid 2010s Canada was a world leader in the creation of i docs Less than a decade later technological obsolescence has rendered many of these celebrated projects inaccessible while rapid digital innovation continues to change the i doc form and its modes of experience The Interactive Documentary in Canada captures this transitional moment in documentary filmmaking and media production Bringing together a range of historical theoretical and critical approaches this collection examines the past and the imagined future of a nonfiction storytelling phenomenon that has Canadian institutions figures and works at its centre Embracing a polyphonic conception of interactive documentary the volume includes explorations of web based app based installation and virtual reality works that push the boundaries of what is understood as documentary cinema Leading documentary scholars and makers consider the historical and technological contexts of i doc production innovation and exhibition the political and pedagogical potential of the genre the ethics of the i doc experience and the format's future lifespan in the contemporary media landscape The Interactive Documentary in Canada establishes a place for the i doc in the history of Canadian film highlighting the genre's significant impact on the National Film Board of Canada and on contemporary global documentary media

The Rise of Tourism in China Yiping Li, 2023-05-15 This book offers a comprehensive understanding of China's tourism development from 1992 onwards focusing on the social cultural change that accompanied the rise of tourism It examines both the economic benefits and sociocultural impacts of tourism and argues that tourism sustainability depends on a delicate balance between economic and social cultural interests which could manifest differently among the stakeholders of various interests It also explores through both theoretical and empirical analysis how travel connects people and places through the processes of tourist imagination and consumption The volume portrays how contemporary discourses fuse with individual histories to formulate the ways in which tourists understand China It will be a useful resource for students and scholars in human geography tourism management leisure and recreation and social sciences

Book Review Digest, 1927

The Power of Urban Ethnic Places Jan Lin, 2010-10-18 The Power of Ethnic Places discusses the growing visibility of ethnic heritage places in U S society The book examines a spectrum of case studies of Chinese Latino and African American communities in the U S disagreeing with any perceptions that the rise of ethnic enclaves and heritage places are harbingers of separatism or balkanization Instead the text argues that by better understanding the power and dynamics of ethnic enclaves and heritage places in our society we as a society will be better prepared to harness the economic and cultural changes related to globalization rather than be hurt or divided by these same forces of economic and cultural restructuring

Text Book of Modern Documentary Chinese Friedrich Hirth, 1909

Russia's Regional Museums Sofia Gavrilova,2022-09-20 This book presents the results of extensive research into the very interesting phenomenon of local museums kraevedschskyi museums in Russia s regions It outlines how numerous such museums are how long they have existed what they display and how this has changed or not from Soviet times up to the present It shows how the museums displays often are about nature history and society It goes on to discuss how what is portrayed represents particular interpretations of knowledge including the heroism of the Soviet past a colonial style view of Russia s very many non Russian people and the failure to mention things which might present Russia in a critical way The book is much more than museum studies it sheds a great deal of light on how Russians think about themselves and about how this self view is fostered and it also highlights the vast regional differences which exist in Russia

Screen Tourism and Affective Landscapes Erik Champion,Christina Lee,Jane Stadler,Robert Moses Peaslee,2022-12-30 This book explores ways in which screen based storyworlds transfix transform and transport us imaginatively physically and virtually to the places they depict or film Topics include fantasy quests in computer games celebrity walking tours dark tourism sites Hobbiton as theme park surf movies and social gangs of Disneyland How physical virtual and imagined locations create a sense of place through their immediate experience or visitation is undergoing a revolution in technology travel modes and tourism behaviour This edited collection explores the rapidly evolving field of screen tourism and the affective impact of landscape with provocative questions and investigations of social groups fan culture new technology and the wider changing trends in screen tourism We provide critical examples of affective landscapes across a wide range of mediums from the big screen to the small screen and locations This book will appeal to students and scholars in film and tourism as well as geography design media and communication studies game studies and digital humanities

The Archaeology of Difference Anne Clarke,Robin Torrence,2003-09-02 The Archaeology of Difference presents a new and radically different perspective on the archaeology of cross cultural contact and engagement The authors move away from acculturation or domination and resistance and concentrate on interaction and negotiation by using a wide variety of case studies which take a crucially indigenous rather than colonial standpoint

The Witness as Educator David T. Hansen,2025-08-01 Illuminates the power in bearing witness as an ethical orientation toward the world and its people In The Witness as Educator David T Hansen examines the idea of bearing witness He shows how it constitutes an ethical orientation that heeds human yearnings for justice beauty and meaning He engages the work of three exemplary witnesses W G Sebald Aim C saire and Walt Whitman Sebald powerfully confronts the human costs of the violence of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries C saire evokes a creative Black consciousness in the face of European colonialism and attests to this outlook's joyous and painful development. Whitman's witness to American life alongside his poignant testimony about caring for wounded soldiers during the American Civil War speaks to a hope deeper than hope for the prospects of democracy. Hansen shows how these witnesses did not choose to write about their respective themes. They had to. The circumstances of their lives and the events of their time summoned them to bear witness. Hansen addresses how their efforts supplemented by those of other witnesses whose testimony he incorporates hold considerable educational promise in a world marked by continued misunderstanding and discord and yet also by great possibility. Permaculture International Journal, 1996

The Archaeology of Prostitution and Clandestine Pursuits Rebecca Yamin, Donna J. Seifert, 2023-01-03 The Archaeology of Prostitution and Clandestine Pursuits synthesizes case studies from various nineteenth-century sites where material culture reveals evidence of prostitution including a brothel in Five Points, New York City's most notorious neighborhood and parlor houses a few blocks from the White House and Capitol Hill.
