Peoplecentered Development:

Capacity-building Deborah Eade,1997 This book considers specific and practical ways in which NGO s can contribute to enabling people to build on the capacities they already possess It reviews the types of social organisation with which NGO s might consider working and the provision of training in a variety of relevant skills and activities

World Development Report 1983 ,1983 This report is the sixth in an annual series assessing development issues It reviews recent trends in the international economy and their implications for the developing countries with a special focus on the management and institutional aspects of development The early recovery in the world economy foreseen in last year s World Development Report did not materialize The recession has lasted longer than expected and has set back global development more decisively than at any time since the Great Depression The indications of an upturn are now firmer but the international financial system remains severely strained and protectionism continues to be an ominous threat This report reviews how alternative policies may affect the future prospects for recovery It concludes that the present financial crisis is manageable provided concerted efforts are made both nationally and internationally It is essential for the industrial countries to maintain the momentum of their recovery to promote freer trade and to ensure growth in capital flows Equally important developing countries must for their part continue their efforts to adjust their economies to the new external circumstances and thereby regain the confidence of their creditors

Revolution as Development Jack Fong,2008 The Karen Revolution for self determination has the distinction of being one of the world s longest running struggles for freedom having begun in 1949 and continuing to this very moment This sociological work makes visible how ethno-political petro-political geo-political and ecosystemic issues affect the political economy of a people experiencing ethnic cleansing From the inception of its self determination struggle in 1949 readers will be taken on a historical journey with the Karen finally arriving in the 21st century Along the way the author exposes readers to the anatomy of how Karen revolutionary dynamics attempt to shield the Karen people against internal colonization committed by the various military regimes of Burma and how these complex dynamics engaged by Karen revolutionaries in a novel reformulation and reading that transcends oversimplified economic indicators of progress constitute development A study of revolution that moves beyond the simplicity of a clashing dualism exemplified by Aung San Suu Kyi pitted against the military regime this text is for readers desiring to examine how other significant players such as the Karen a proud people living in systemic crisis construct nation and aspire toward democracy in the labyrinthine ethno-political terrain of Burma
