Peoples and Cultures of Africa Elliott Percival Skinner,1973 Peoples and Cultures of Africa ,1973 Peoples and Cultures of Africa Elliott Percival Skinner,1973 African Religion and Culture: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide David Northrup,2010-06 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of the ancient world find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated This ebook is just one of many articles from Oxford Bibliographies Online Atlantic History a continuously updated and growing online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through the scholarship and other materials relevant to the study of Atlantic History the study of the transnational interconnections between Europe North America South America and Africa particularly in the early modern and colonial period Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www.oxfordbibliographies.com Anthropology of the Middle East and North Africa Sherine Hafez,Susan Slyomovics,2013-06-05 This volume combines ethnographic accounts of fieldwork with overviews of recent anthropological literature about the region on topics such as Islam gender youth and new media It addresses contemporary debates about modernity nation building and the link between the ideology of power and the production of knowledge Contributors include established and emerging scholars known for the depth and quality of their ethnographic writing and for their interventions in current theory Sub-Saharan Africa and the United States Philip R. Cook,1986 Constitutional Identity and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles Manga Fombad,Nico Steytler,2024 This book in the Stellenbosch Handbooks in African Constitutional Law series provides a critical analysis of existing paradigms concepts and normative ideologies of modern African constitutional identity African Religion Laurenti Magesa,2014-07-30 Describes the moral teachings values norms and principles to follow so that life might be abundant for all of the African religion as it relates to individuals and community African Political Thought Guy Martin,2012-12-05 For most of its history the African continent has witnessed momentous political change remarkable philosophical innovation and the complex cross fertilization of ideologies and belief systems This definitive study surveys the concepts values and historical upheavals that have shaped African political systems from the ancient period to the postcolonial era and beyond Beginning with the emergence of indigenous political institutions it traces the most important developments in African history including the Africanization of Islam liberal democratic movements socialism Pan Africanism and Africanist Populist resistance to the neoliberal world order The result is an invaluable resource on a region too often ignored in the history of political thought Giving Account of Faith and Hope in Africa John Samuel Pabee,2017-07-10 What is African theology

What are its distinctive traits and characteristics modes of investigation and style of expression Can African theology reach wider and run deeper than simple propositional articulation What concerns and special circumstances have shaped its outlook What unique burdens or hurdles imposed by the past must African theology surmount What challenges and opportunities lie before it What are African theology s prospects As a field of Christian engagement is it condemned to be only an appendage to theology imported from the West and the North Or does it have a distinctive contribution to make and gifts to share not just within the continent of Africa but also with the Christian world at large These questions exercise the mind and soul of the African church A worthy capstone to a lifetime of service as a theologian educator and ecumenical leader this volume offers John Samuel Pobee s considered and mature reflections on issues he raised nearly forty years ago when he published Toward an African Theology The Department of State Bulletin ,1986 Department of State Publication ,1985

Black Magic Yvonne P. Chireau,2006-11-20 Black Magic looks at the origins meaning and uses of Conjure the African American tradition of healing and harming that evolved from African European and American elements from the slavery period to well into the twentieth century Illuminating a world that is dimly understood by both scholars and the general public Yvonne P Chireau describes Conjure and other related traditions such as Hoodoo and Rootworking in a beautifully written richly detailed history that presents the voices and experiences of African Americans and shows how magic has informed their culture Focusing on the relationship between Conjure and Christianity Chireau shows how these seemingly contradictory traditions have worked together in a complex and complementary fashion to provide spiritual empowerment for African Americans both slave and free living in white America As she explores the role of Conjure for African Americans and looks at the transformations of Conjure over time Chireau also rewrites the dichotomy between magic and religion With its groundbreaking analysis of an often misunderstood tradition this book adds an important perspective to our understanding of the myriad dimensions of human spirituality Engaging Religions and Worldviews in Africa

Yusufu Turaki,2020-04-30 In a world of increasing globalization we live amidst a clash of cultures religions and worldviews each battling for the human heart and mind In this in depth study Yusufu Turaki offers a theological framework for engaging this clash of perspectives in Africa where traditional African religions colonialism and exposure to Christianity have each had a lasting impact on contemporary African worldviews Professor Turaki undertakes a systematic analysis of the nature of African Traditional Religion its complex history with Christianity and the need for African Christian theology to address its cultural and historical roots effectively He provides both a conceptual framework and practical guide for engaging African cultures and religions with compassion understanding and a firm foundation rooted in scriptural truth This book is an excellent resource for students of religion and theology as well as those interested in Africa s traditional heritage or drawn to the important work of cross cultural and inter religious dialogue Stigma and Culture J. Lorand Matory,2015-12-02 In Stigma and Culture J Lorand Matory provocatively shows how ethnic identification in the United States and around the globe is a competitive and hierarchical process in which populations especially of historically stigmatized races seek status and income by dishonoring other stigmatized populations And there is no better place to see this than among the African American elite in academia where he explores the emergent ethnic identities of African and Caribbean immigrants and transmigrants Gullah Geechees Louisiana Creoles and even Native Americans of partly African ancestry Matory describes the competitive process that hierarchically structures their self definition as ethnic groups and the similar process by which middle class African Americans seek distinction from their impoverished compatriots Drawing on research at universities such as Howard Harvard and Duke and among their alumni networks he details how university life while facilitating individual upward mobility touting human equality and regaling cultural diversity also perpetuates the cultural standards that historically justified the dominance of some groups over others Combining his ethnographic findings with classic theoretical insights from Frantz Fanon Fredrik Barth Erving Goffman Pierre Bourdieu and others alongside stories from his own life in academia Matory sketches the university as an institution that particularly through the anthropological vocabulary of culture encourages the stigmatized to stratify their own

The World They Made Together Mechal Sobel, 2021-06-08 In the recent past enormous creative energy has gone into the study of American slavery with major explorations of the extent to which African culture affected the culture of black Americans and with an almost totally new assessment of slave culture as Afro American Accompanying this new awareness of the African values brought into America however is an automatic assumption that white traditions influenced black ones In this view although the institution of slavery is seen as important blacks are not generally treated as actors nor is their divergent culture seen as having had a wide ranging effect on whites Historians working in this area generally assume two social systems in America one black and one white and cultural divergence between slaves and masters It is the thesis of this book that blacks Africans and Afro Americans deeply influenced white s perceptions values and identity and that although two world views existed there was a deep symbiotic relatedness that must be explored if we are to understand either or both of them This exploration raises many questions and suggests many possibilities and probabilities but it also establishes how thoroughly whites and blacks intermixed within the system of slavery and how extensive was the resulting cultural interaction

Beyond Cuban Waters Paul Ryer, 2021-04-30 Twenty first century Cuba is a cultural stew Tommy Hilfiger and socialism Nike products and poverty in Africa The New York Yankees and the meaning of blackness The quest for American consumer goods and the struggle in Africa for political and cultural independence inform the daily life of Cubans at every cultural level as anthropologist Paul Ryer argues in Beyond Cuban Waters Focusing on the everyday world of ordinary Cubans this book examines Cuban understandings of the world and of Cuba s place in it especially as illuminated by two contrasting notions La Yuma a distinctly Cuban concept of the American experience and Africa the ideological understanding of that continent s experience Ryer takes us into the homes of Cuban families out to the streets and nightlife of bustling cities and on boat journeys that reach beyond the typical destinations all to better understand the nature of the cultural life of a nation This pursuit of Western status symbols represents a uniquely Cuban experience set apart from other cultures pursuing the same things In the Cuban case this represents neither an acceptance nor rejection of the American cultural influence but rather a co opting or Yumanizing of these influences

Decolonial Perspectives on Entangled Inequalities Encarnación Gutiérrez Rodríguez, Rhoda Reddock, 2021-02-26 This book engages with decolonial social and cultural analyses of global entangled inequalities by focusing on their local articulations globally and in particular in Germany Trinidad and Tobago and the United Kingdom World Military History Bibliography Barton Hacker, 2003-06-01 Preclassical and indigenous nonwestern military institutions and methods of warfare are the chief subjects of this annotated bibliography of work published 1967 1997 Classical antiquity post Roman Europe and the westernized armed forces of the 20th century although covered receive less systematic attention Emphasis is on historical studies of military organization and the relationships between military and other social institutions rather than wars and battles Especially rich in references to the periodical literature the bibliography is divided into eight parts 1 general and comparative topics 2 the ancient world 3 Eurasia since antiquity 4 sub Saharan Africa and Oceania 5 pre Columbian America 6 postcontact America 7 the contemporary nonwestern world and 8 philosophical social scientific natural scientific and other works not primarily historical Africa, Asia, and South America Since 1800 A. J. H. Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5 000 books in English most published since 1945 and many quite recently but also some earlier works of enduring importance A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole then each country usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics politics and society Indexed only by author and editor but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access Distributed in the US by St Martin s Press Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or
