Peoples Liberation Army In The Information Age:

Handbook of Military Administration Jeffrey A. Weber, Johan Eliasson, 2007-12-07 While policy makers are perpetually conceptualizing new reform packages the actual enactment of those reforms is typically more challenging Remarkably the one public institution that is able to meet that challenge is also the largest The United States Department of Defense which employs over 600 000 people and deals with 500 billion in fundin Insight Turkey / Spring 2023 • Volume 25 - No. 2 Adnan Özdemir, Afshan Khan, Ahmet Furkan Özyakar, Arda Mehmet Tezcanlar, Arif Bağbaşlıoğlu, Arif Behiç Özcan, Batu Coşkun, Bengü Çelenk, Burhanettin Duran, Bünyamin Bezci, Cavit Emre Aytekin, Çiğdem Pekar, Dilnaz Saipedinova, Ersin Aksoy, Gökhan Çinkara, İ. Aytaç Kadioğlu, Kemal İnat, Laçin İdil Öztığ, Mirsad Karić, Muhidin Mulalić, Mustafa Altıntaş, Mustafa Fatih Yavuz, Saira Nawaz Abbasi, Sarmad Ali Khan, Talha Köse, Tunç Demirtaş, Valeria Giannotta, Yusuf Çınar, 2023-07-01 T rkiye successfully conducted both presidential and parliamentary elections on May 14 the second elections since the change of the governmental system so completing yet another election process without encountering significant issues The People s Alliance led by AK Party has secured the majority in the legislative body the Grand National Assembly of T rkiye Although President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan came first in the first round of the presidential elections he could not pass the 50 percent threshold President Erdoğan received 52 percent of the votes after the runoff elections on May 28 Thus both President Erdoğan and AK Party which has won all general elections since 2002 are continuing in the task of ruling the country for the next five years Both Turkish and foreign observers and officials have attached great importance to these elections Some even claimed that this year the Turkish elections are the most important globally due to the implications for international politics However it is crucial to emphasize that a significant number of Western media outlets and experts influenced by their inclination to envision a T rkiye without Erdoğan were unable to accurately forecast and analyze the election outcomes In certain instances they even launched direct attacks on Turkish democracy and President Erdoğan Nevertheless the election results which genuinely reflect the national will served as a profound lesson for all highlighting the importance of recognizing and respecting the democratic choices made by the Turkish people Yet the discussions surrounding the election results and their potential impact on T rkiye its foreign policy and the broader international political landscape are well founded There are several expectations from President Erdoğan and his government for the next five years First of all President Erdoğan and the AK Party government will consolidate and institutionalize the new governmental system that was introduced after the 2016 July 15 coup attempt one of the main turning points in the recent history of the country Although there are high expectations that the Erdoğan government will make some revisions within the new political system there is no chance to return to a parliamentary system which was the main promise of the opposition during the election campaign Second the current Turkish foreign policy orientation will be consolidated and institutionalized In recent years T rkiye has been following a relatively independent and Ankara centered foreign policy orientation T rkiye has abandoned its

Western oriented foreign policy orientation and diversified its foreign relations In an interview with the press during his first foreign visit since his re election on May 28 2023 President Erdoğan has clearly underlined Türkiye's diversified foreign policy understanding He has pointed out that Türkiye which pursues the policy of balance based on national interests is close to both the West and the East Third with the separation of internal and external security after the change of the governmental system the two inward looking security institutions namely the Turkish Armed Forces TSK and the National Intelligence Organization MİT have experienced a large scale transformation Thus TSK and MİT have become real foreign policy actors and begun playing a more effective role in foreign policy issues especially in the protection of the country's national security against external threats and in the struggle against anti Turkish terrorist organizations deployed in different countries Since then Türkiye has been taking more initiatives in foreign policy issues as a result of high level harmony between these security institutions and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Furthermore under the leadership of President Erdoğan this large scale harmony among foreign policy actors has enabled Türkiye to mobilize hard and soft power at the same time which is an indication of Türkiye's high level capacity and its strategic autonomy Fourth with the increase of the number of foreign policy actors after the introduction and transformation of some state institutions Türkiye has increased its effectiveness in international politics Governmental institutions such as the Turkish Cooperation and Coordination Agency TKA the Presidency of Turks Abroad and related Communities YTB Yunus Emre Institute YEE and Turkish Maarif Foundation have begun to play effective roles in the foreign policy field Diversification in foreign policy actors is an indication of Türkiye's autonomous foreign policy orientation Türkiye has been deploying different foreign policy actors in different issue areas President Erdoğan has declared that Türkiye will prioritize security policy for the next five years By mobilizing hard smart and soft powers of the country and also by activating different foreign policy actors Türkiye will follow an integrated foreign policy understanding The main responsibility of the new government will be the protection of Türkiye's national interests and the provision of peace and stability in its regions Türkiye which opposes the return of a polarized world politics is determined to use diplomatic means and take initiatives in the resolution on international crises President Erdoğan and his new government will continue to attach great importance to its relations with the Western countries and to the NATO alliance However Türkiye expects the alliance to take more effective counterterrorism measures and the Western countries not to safeguard anti Turkish terrorist organizations Türkiye will continue to have a bilateral relationship with the West based on equal partnership The new government will push for visa liberalization and updating the customs union in its relations with the European Union One the one hand Türkiye is determined to improve and enhance its relations with other Turkish states especially with Azerbaijan Following the signing of a military alliance after the Second Karabakh War its bilateral relations with Azerbaijan are unique Türkiye will continue to strive for the further integration of the Turkish world On the other hand Türkiye will continue its efforts to bring peace and stability to its regions The Erdoğan government is determined to continue the normalization process with other regional countries in the Middle East the Caucasus and the Eastern Mediterranean To sum up T rkiye is determined to consolidate its strategic autonomy to play a leadership and stabilizer role in its regions and to improve its relations with all countries in the world The main priorities of T rkiye are the protection and maximization of its national interests the promotion of the normalization processes and the formation of a Turkish axis in the near future T rkiye expects to achieve these objectives with its strong infrastructure manufacturing industry self reliance in the defense industry and strategic investments in the energy sector among others Thus it will be possible to make an effective start for the vision which has been called Century of T rkiye With that being said the forthcoming issue of Insight Turkey building upon the previous edition that delved into T rkiye s domestic affairs and the upcoming general elections strives to shed light on T rkiye s foreign policy while providing a thorough analysis of past general elections Within this context the current issue presents a comprehensive compilation of four expert comments and four research articles focusing on the subject matter Additionally it broadens the scope by including one off topic comment and three off topic research articles thus enriching the range of topics covered Our commentary section starts with Talha K se s valuable contribution that tackles the relations between T rkiye and the West in particular with the EU Emphasizing that President Erdogan s re election in the 2023 general elections is considered an unexpected development in Europe and many Western countries K se argues that this state of surprise stems from the misinformation of decision makers and the public in T rkiye and the West by experts and pollsters For this reason the European states who thought that the Table of Six would come to power suspended their relations with T rkiye until the elections while the post election Erdo an victory encouraged the European states to congratulate T rkiye s leader and accept the result as soon as possible K se states that various media outlets and think tanks in Europe have taken a more balanced stance against the Turkish president after treating him as an enemy for the last six months and argues that this situation has started a new era in T rkiye Europe relations As the Russia Ukraine war continues NATO enlargement remains one of the most important topics in the West In this context Arif Ba ba l o lu focuses on NATO T rkiye relations through the lenses of the enlargement policy by focusing especially on the case of Sweden and Finland The author expresses Ankara s stance and cautious attitude towards Finland and Sweden s NATO membership applications and also emphasizes that T rkiye has been generally a supporter of NATO s enlargement policies and that NATO s decision making process positively affects T rkiye s relations with candidate countries In our next commentary Valeria Giannotta provides an overview of Western media perception of the general election of T rkiye Gionnotta emphasizes that the Western media included news that was distorted and created a false perception in the general elections in T rkiye especially in the first round that it was a biased reading based on ideological connotations and aimed to influence the result of the vote She continues that the election results should be seen as a lesson on how to look at T rkiye its government and its people and therefore produce more accurate and authentic information rejecting all kinds of superficial foresight and manipulation attempts On the other hand B nyamin Bezci evaluates in detail the May 2023 elections and the reasons that secured the victory of President Erdoğan and the failure of the opposition. According to Bezci, the most important factor that contributed to President Erdoğan's victory has been the popular appreciation of his deeds and performance. This issue centers on Turkish foreign policy and within it, Burhanettin Duran and Kemal Tat present a research article that offers a comprehensive framework for a deeper understanding of the subject. Their article delves into the intricacies of Turkish foreign policy, addressing both regional and global challenges that it encounters. Duran and Tat argue that Türkiye took advantage of the deepening competition between global powers under the AK Party to part ways with its traditional foreign policy tradition and pursue a more independent foreign policy. Accordingly, the country expanded its economic and military capacity significantly during the relevant period to make possible the policy of balance between the West, Russia, and China. Following up, Muhidin Mulali and Mirsad Kari, focusing on Turkish foreign policy in the Balkans, apply Ulrich Beck's theory of cosmopolitanism, reflexivity, and risk on Türkiye's diplomatic relations with the Western Balkan countries. In our next research article, Adnan Zdemir aims to investigate the impact of the Russia-Ukraine war on the foreign trade volume of Türkiye. Zdemir's article discusses the effect of the Russia-Ukraine war on the tourism and contracting sectors, which make the most positive contribution to Türkiye's current account deficit and are at the forefront of the economic sectors. On the other hand, Latın Dilçiz takes a distinct approach to Turkish foreign policy by focusing on neighboring countries. Her research paper compares Türkiye's position on the Azerbaijani-Armenian conflicts and discusses its impacts and implications in the context of regional dynamics. In this article, comparing the strategies implemented by Türkiye in foreign policy by evaluating the first and second Karabakh wars, Dilçiz claimed that Türkiye's support to Azerbaijan in the first Karabakh war was seen as insufficient to change the course of the war, while it played a more assertive role in the second Karabakh war. In an off-topic commentary, Gökhan Nkara and Batu Ökür analyze the Abraham Accords, the subsequent diplomatic initiatives, and efforts to create a security umbrella through regional geopolitical shifts and ideological transformations. The authors state that the main factors behind the emergence of the Abraham Accords were elite preferences in the Persian Gulf, rising nationalism, and the quest for permanent political stability sought by the constituents of the Gulf society. According to Nkara and Ökür, the Abraham Accords is one of the most significant geopolitical developments in the Middle East in this decade. Our spring issue is enriched with three off-topic research articles expanding the breadth of our coverage. One of these articles, authored by Sarmad Ali Khan and Saira Nawaz Abbasi, delves into the contemporary understanding of warfare in the 21st century, which evolves alongside advancing technologies. Specifically, they address the pressing subject of cyber warfare and its role in unconventional strategic competition. The authors, who claim that the U.S. and China are in competition in every domain, argue that cyberspace is militarized and reveals it as the fifth battleground. According to Khan and Abbasi, cyber campaigns developed by Beijing and Washington for various targets cause a cyber arms race between the two countries. Tun Demirtaş aims to analyze the Tigray crisis in Ethiopia based on the policies of global and regional powers in the context of the African neo colonial order and emphasizes that although the colonial system has ended in the international system the power struggle in Africa continues through neo colonialism Last but not least Ersin Aksoy and Ayta Kad o lu focus on the integration dynamics in the case of Iraqi refugees in Syria Aiming to analyze barriers to integration by addressing geographic proximity cultural threat acceptance processes political rent and limited economic resources the authors evaluate the refugee flow from Iraq to Syria since the 2003 Iraq War in their research papers to understand the impact of these factors As we witnessed one of the most significant elections both for T rkiye and the world on the centennial of the Turkish Republic s founding Insight Turkey proudly presents a special issue that meticulously evaluates the elections and examines how T rkiye s foreign policy will be shaped in their aftermath Through this special edition our aim is to offer our readers a comprehensive analysis of Turkish foreign policy while outlining the implications of the election results in this regard

China's Growing Military Power: Perspectives on Security, Ballistic Missiles, and Conventional Capabilities Andrea Scobell, Larry M. Wortzel, The tenor of U S China relations for much of the first year of the administration of President George Bush Bush was set by a crisis that need not have occurred How the situation was handed and eventually resolved is instructive It tells us about beleaguered communist leadership in the buildup to major generational transition scheduled for late 2002 and early 2003 and the mettle of a democratically elected U S government tested early in its tenure by a series of foreign policy crisis and a carefully coordinated set of devastating terrorist strikes against the continental United States Transition Scenarios David P. Rapkin, William R. Thompson, 2013-09-24 China's rising status in the global economy alongside recent economic stagnation in Europe and the United States has led to considerable speculation that we are in the early stages of a transition in power relations Commentators have tended to treat this transitional period as a novelty but history is in fact replete with such systemic transitions sometimes with perilous results Can we predict the future by using the past And if so what might history teach us With Transition Scenarios David P Rapkin and William R Thompson identify some predictors for power transitions and take readers through possible scenarios for future relations between China and the United States Each scenario is embedded within a particular theoretical framework inviting readers to consider the assumptions underlying it Despite recent interest in the topic the probability and timing of a power transition and the processes that might bring it about remain woefully unclear Rapkin and Thompson's use of the theoretical tools of international relations to crucial transitions in history helps clarify the current situation and also sheds light on possible future scenarios China's Air Power and Maritime Strategies Towards the Indian Ocean Region Joshy M. Paul, 2025-02-03 This book examines China's naval and airpower strategic direction towards the Indian Ocean region It discusses China's military modernization program along with naval and airpower capabilities including expeditionary nature It analyses China's attempt to gain a strategic dominance in the IOR by means of investments and trade with the littoral countries military diplomatic relationship with friendly countries permanent presence of naval systems in the Indian Ocean and delivering public goods throughout the region A comparative analysis of People's Liberation Army Air Force PLAAF expeditionary capabilities and Indian Air Force's IAF deterrence mechanisms is also included Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan

Chinese National Security Decisionmaking Under Stress Andrew Scobell, 2005 If there is one constant in expert analyses of the history of modern China it is the characterization of a country perpetually in the throes of crises While China at the mid point of the Twenty first Century's first decade is arguably the most secure and stable it has been in more than a century crises continue to emerge with apparent frequency Consequently the study of China's behavior in conditions of tension and stress is of considerable importance to policy makers and analysts around the world China's Rise and the Balance of Influence in Asia William W. Keller, Thomas G. Rawski, 2007-05-31 China's protracted boom and political transformation is a major episode in the history of global political economy. Beginning in the late 1970s, China experienced a quarter century of extraordinary growth that raised every indicator of material welfare, lifted several hundred million out of poverty, and rocketed China from near autarky to regional and even global prominence. These striking developments transformed China into a major U.S. trade and investment partner, a regional military power, and a major influence on national economies and cross-national interchange throughout the Pacific region. Beijing has emerged as a voice for East Asian economic interests and an arbiter in regional and even global diplomacy, from the Asian financial crisis to the North Korean nuclear talks. China's accession to the World Trade Organization promises to accentuate these trends. The contributors to this volume provide a multifaceted examination of China in the areas of economics, trade, investment, politics, diplomacy, technology, and security, affording a greater understanding of what relevant policies the United States must develop. This book offers a counterweight to overwrought concerns about the emerging Chinese threat and makes the case for viewing China as a force for stability in the twenty-first century.

Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China

Lawrence R. Sullivan, 2007-05-23 When the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) seized power in October 1949, China was one of the poorest nations in the world. In fact, it was so weak it had been conquered by Japan, a country one-tenth its size, a decade earlier. Now, more than fifty years later, the People's Republic of China (PRC) is an emerging economic, political, and military superpower with the world's fastest growing economy and largest population (1.3 billion in 2005). A member of the United Nations Security Council since the early 1970s and a nuclear power, China wields enormous influence in the world community. The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China contains more than 400 cross-referenced dictionary entries on individual topics spanning China's political, economic, and social system, along with short biographies on important figures, from politicians to writers and movie directors, who have shaped Chinese history during the period of Communist rule from 1949 to 2006. Supplementing the entries are a chronology, an introduction, charts outlining the structure of the Chinese government, and a bibliography of works in English, making this a superb resource for college and high school students needing a quick reference on contemporary China.

Chinese Grand Strategy in the 21st Century

Thomas M. Kane, Noah Falkovich, 2023-10-20 This book examines the state of China's grand strategy in the 21st century, including political, military, and economic factors. Over the past two decades, the People's Republic of China (PRC) has attained the second highest gross domestic product in the world, taken a leadership role in East Asian regional organizations, and substantially improved its military capabilities. Each of these developments, and many others like them, have attracted attention from scholars, journalists, and policymakers. Less frequently acknowledged but perhaps of greater significance is the impressive congruence of Beijing's accomplishments. This book highlights how the PRC's successes support one another and pave the way for future accomplishments, and how these successes seem to be achieved in an unusually coherent and purposeful way As Beijing's relations with the rest of the world continue to evolve with events ranging from the ongoing global economic crisis to the turbulence in China's own stock market which may bring the PRC's government under pressure to re-order its priorities this book assesses China's grand strategy and long-term approach to national policy It identifies the political military and economic instruments it is likely to use the key challenges which it will face and explores the implications for the global community This book will be of great interest to students of Chinese politics foreign policy strategic studies international security and IR in general The views expressed are those of the authors and do not reflect the official guidance or position of the U S Government the Department of Defense DoD the U S Air Force or the U S Space Force The appearance of external hyperlinks does not constitute endorsement by the DoD of the linked websites or the information products or services contained therein The DoD does not exercise any editorial security or other control over the information you may find at these locations

The East Asian Computer Chip War Ming-chin Monique Chu, 2013-12-04 The semiconductor industry is a vital industry for military establishments worldwide and the control of or loss of control of this key industry has enormous strategic implications This book focuses on the globalization of the strategic semiconductor industry and the security ramifications of this process It examines in particular the migration of the Taiwanese chip industry to China as part of the globalization of production processes and the extent to which such a globalization process poses security challenges to the United States China and Taiwan Transcending disciplinary boundaries between international political economy security studies and the history of science and technology this multidisciplinary work provides an in-depth understanding of the globalization security nexus and disentangles the key policy issues connected to a potential explosive flashpoint in world politics today

China's Security State Xuezhi Guo, 2012-08-29 China's Security State describes the creation evolution and development of Chinese security and intelligence agencies as well as their role in influencing Chinese Communist Party politics throughout the party's history Xuezhi Guo investigates patterns of leadership politics from the vantage point of security and intelligence organization and operation by providing new evidence and offering alternative interpretations of major events throughout Chinese Communist Party history This analysis promotes a better understanding of the CCP's mechanisms for control over both Party members and the general population This study specifies some of the broader implications for theory and research that can help clarify the nature of Chinese politics and potential future developments in the country's security and intelligence services

China at War Xiaobing Li, 2012-01-10 This comprehensive volume traces the Chinese military and its experiences over the past 2 500 years describing clashes with other kingdoms and nations as well as internal rebellions and revolutions As the first book of its kind China at War An Encyclopedia expands far beyond the conventional military history book that is focused on describing key wars battles military leaders and influential events Author Xiaobing Li an expert writer in the subjects of Asian history and military affairs provides not only a broad chronological account of China's long military history but also addresses Chinese values concepts and attitudes regarding war As a result readers can better understand the wider sociopolitical history of the most populous and one of the largest countries in the world and grasp the complex security concerns and strategic calculations often behind China's decision making process This encyclopedia contains an introductory essay written to place the reference entries within a larger contextual framework allowing students to compare Chinese with Western and American views and approaches to war Topics among the hundreds of entries by experts in the field include Sunzi's classic The Art of War Mao Zedong's guerrilla warfare in the 20th century Chinese involvement in the Korean War and Vietnam War and China's nuclear program in the 21st century

China's Evolving Military Strategy Joe McReynolds, 2017-01-10 Roughly once every generation a powerful highly influential organization within the Chinese People's Liberation Army releases a new edition of the Science of Military Strategy SMS a comprehensive and authoritative study which details the strategic approach that the Chinese military will take in the coming years in response to the threats and challenges facing China The recent release of a new edition of SMS signals the potential for dramatic shifts in the PLA's approach to a number of strategic questions but the book remains underutilized by many Western China analysts due to the lack of both an English translation and expert analysis to place these changes into context China's Evolving Military Strategy aims to bring knowledge of these important developments to a mass audience of China watchers policymakers and the broader foreign policy community by providing a sector by sector analysis of changes in the PLA's thinking and approach from the previous edition of SMS to the present Each chapter addresses the implications for a different portion of the Chinese military ranging from the air sea and space domains to cyberspace and electromagnetic warfare and each is written by one of the world's foremost experts on that subsection of China's military development China's Evolving Military Strategy will serve as the cornerstone reference for a generation to come on one of China's most important declarations of its military strategic goals and intentions

Dangerous Thresholds Forrest E. Morgan, Karl P. Mueller, Evan S. Medeiros, Kevin L. Pollpeter, Roger Cliff, 2008-07-29 Escalation is a natural tendency in any form of human competition and today's security environment demands that the United States be prepared for a host of escalatory threats This analysis of escalation dynamics and approaches to escalation management draws on a range of historical examples from World War I to the struggle against global Jihad to inform escalation related decisionmaking

Neither Star Wars nor Sanctuary Michael E. O'Hanlon, 2004-04-23 Space has been militarized for over four decades Should it now be weaponized This incisive and insightful book argues that it should not Since the cold war space has come to harbor many tools of the tactical warfighter Satellites have long been used to provide strategic communication early warning of missile launch and arms control verification The U S armed forces increasingly use space assets to locate and strike targets on the battlefield To date though no country deploys destructive weapons in space for use against space or Earth targets and no country possesses ground based weapons designed explicitly to damage objects in space The line between nonweaponization and weaponization is blurry to be sure but it has not yet been crossed In Neither

Star Wars nor Sanctuary Michael E O Hanlon makes a forceful case for keeping it this way The United States with military space budgets of around 20 billion a year enjoys a remarkably favorable military advantage in space Pursuing a policy of space weaponization solely in order to maximize its own military capabilities would needlessly jeopardize this situation by likely hastening development of space weapons in numerous countries It would also reaffirm the prevalent international image of the United States as a global cowboy of sorts too quick to reach for the gun O Hanlon therefore asserts that U S military space policy should focus on delaying any movement toward weaponization without foreclosing the option of developing space weapons in the future if necessary Extreme positions that would either hasten to weaponize space or permanently rule this out are not consistent with technological realities and U S security interests Chinese Warfighting: The PLA Experience since 1949 Mark A. Ryan, David M. Finkelstein, Michael A. McDevitt, CNA Corporation, 2016-04-29 This is the first systematic study of modern China s military campaigns and the actual fighting conducted by the People s Liberation Army since the founding of the People s Republic It provides a general overview of the evolution of PLA military doctrine and then focuses on major combat episodes from the civil war with the Nationalists to the last significant combat in Vietnam in 1979 in addition to navy and air operations through 1999 In contrast to the many works on the specifics and hardware of China s military modernization this book discusses such topics as military planning command and control fighting and politics combat tactics and performance technological catch up and doctrinal flexibility the role of Mao Zedong scale and typologies of fighting and deterrence The contributors include scholars from Mainland China Taiwan and the United States who draw from a wealth of fresh archival sources
