Shock & Awe in America Thomas Bayuk, 2009-05-13 In this brief readable time Bayuk Coping and Prevailing 1986 etc recounts a lifetime of pulling away from and moving closer to God before finally setting out to motivate others to do His will In the prologue the author tackles Americas current ambivalence about the churchs role in society This section contains provocative statements and stories that take aim at the current trend toward political correctness with its strict separation of God from government In his points to ponder Bayuk notes meaningfully that a statue of Moses holding the Ten Commandments stares down from the top of the Supreme Court building On the whole however the author focuses on his vacillating relationship with God Bayuk who has written two books about coping with his multiple sclerosis turns his struggles into warmhearted stories He recalls in detail his long and happy relationship with his wife his glory days of welling commercial real state the ups and downs of owning a deli and a diner and of having learned to live with his disease Throughout the author recounts being torn between following his free will and following what he perceived as Gods instructions However his major defiance of Gods will seems to have been his reluctance to attend church Bayuk recalls that he refused to go to mass for years feeling frustrated when he spent hours at Pentecostal services and guilty when he did not Readers may not view these moments as the powerful conflicts of God that Bayuk presents them as The author later describes miracles that have occurred since he has become more spiritually involved Here again the reader may see his helpful daughter a reconciliation between parents and children and the brother who raises some cash in a time of need not as miracles but simply as blessings Also while the author is an engaging storyteller hes also a bit repetitious Nevertheless Bayuk writes convincingly about the satisfactions of a faith based life A handy night stand book for those seeking spiritual affirmation American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 28:4 Norman K.
