Natasha and Charlie McCready have been adopted by their unlikely guardian Al and finally settled into their new home on Pine Island in British Columbia. Fiona is struggling under the weight of trying to keep everything together, not to mention worrying about expenses while Marlin tries to adjust to her new high school and faces rejections for her cookbook Thirty Meals a Twelve Year Old Could Make and Did. Natasha is still keeping to herself but a new interest in the violin reveals hidden talents while Charlie is dreaming of what kind of dog she would like. It's been an adjustment but they are loving being with each other and having Al next door. Then they receive a letter from Mrs Weatherspoon who took care of them after their parents died and she is coming to visit for three months, an inordinate amount of time for a houseguest. Accommodating a fifth person in the tiny house is hard enough but to their horror Mrs Weatherspoon arrives with a companion, her childhood friend Jo Jo, who has opinions about everything: what they should eat, how they should behave, and she doesn't hesitate to express them. And sweet Mrs Weatherspoon seems to have fallen under her spell. When she and Jo announce that they are going to extend their stay even longer, Fiona and Marlin are beside themselves. Fiona hates rocking the boat but she is going to have to find the courage to stand up to these grown-up bullies so she and her sisters can have the life they wish to lead.
