The 1934 St. Louis Cardinals Edited by Charles F. Faber, The 1934 St. Louis Cardinals were one of the most colorful crews ever to play the National Pastime Sportswriters delighted in assigning nicknames to the players based on their real or imagined qualities What a cast of characters it was None was more picturesque than Pepper Martin the Wild Horse of the Osage who ran the bases with reckless abandon led his team mates in off the field hi jinks and organized a hillbilly band called the Mississippi Mudcats He was quite a baseball player the star of the 1931 World Series and a significant contributor to the 1934 championship The harmonica player for the Mudcats was the irrepressible Dizzy Dean Full of braggadocio Dean delivered on his boasts by winning 30 games in 1934 the last National League hurler to achieve that feat Dizzy and his brother Paul accounted for all of the Cardinal victories in the 1934 World Series Some writers tried to pin the moniker Daffy on Paul but that name didn't fit the younger and much quieter brother The club's hitters were led by the New Jersey strong boy Joe Ducky Medwick who hated the nickname preferring to be called Muscles Presiding over this aggregation was the Fordham Flash Frankie Frisch Rounding out the club were worthies bearing such nicknames as Ripper Leo the Lip Spud Kiddo Pop Dazzy Ol Stubblebeard Wild Bill Buster Chick Red and Tex Some of these were aging stars past their prime and others were youngsters on their way up Together they comprised a championship ball club The Gas House Gang was the greatest baseball club I ever saw They thought they could beat any ballclub and they just about could too When they got on that ballfield they played baseball and they played it to the hilt too When they slid they slid hard There was no good fellowship between them and the opposition They were just good tough ballplayers Cardinals infielder Burgess Whitehead on When It Was A Game HBO Sports 1991

Bill Stern's Favorite Baseball Stories Bill Stern, 2017-06-28 AT BAT WITH BILL STERN Baseball is a game rooted deep in the heart of America I've loved it ever since I was a kid old enough to yell Take Me Out to the Ball Game As long as I can remember I've been hearing stories of baseball fascinating tales of fabulous heroes from a land where the sun always shines and men never grow old curious legends that grew stranger with age yarns that have been handed down with the years as treasured lore As I grew older and fate cast me in the role of a radio sports reporter and storyteller I've been fortunate to meet many of the heroes old and new Babe Ruth Lou Gehrig Ty Cobb Walter Johnson Connie Mack Grover Cleveland Alexander Tris Speaker Leo Durocher Ted Williams Bobby Feller and Joe DiMaggio to name but a handful who have paraded before my microphone And each in his way has enriched my collection of diamond stories Of the countless stories I've heard from baseball men I've treasured a number to hold keep and remember However a storyteller who has been sharing his most interesting stories with millions of people finds it difficult to be miserly Hence I've chosen my favorites and offer them in print to all my fans for a generous dose of the romance the glamour the color the thrills the drama the comedy and the nostalgia that are all part of this game called baseball Maybe I'll score with some and get shut out on others but here they are just as I treasure them in my sports memory book my favorite baseball stories Annual Report
