The Literary

Heritage of Childhood Charles Frey, John W. Griffith, 1987-08-10 In twenty eight essays Frey and Griffith members of the English faculty at the University of Washington examine many of the traditional and new children's classics The authors explore the relationship between the writer's lives and the stories they tell Purposes and literary techniques are also discussed Each essay provides the reader with the authors answers to the question What special qualities make this book a classic Fairy and folk tales and fantasy works by Dickens Craig Collodi Alcott Twain Kipling Potter Wilder and poetry of Lear and Stevenson are included Teachers of children's literature will find these essays useful for helping students understand the characteristics of the classic literature of childhood The book is recommended for college and university libraries and for large and medium sized public library collections The Journal of Youth Services in Libraries Seeking to restore our appreciation for the classics of children's literature the authors of this book offer fresh and lively interpretations of twenty eight of the most beloved works in the Western tradition Through individual essays on representative and well known rhymes tales domestic and picaresque novels romances talking animal stories and semi autobiographical narratives the authors help us to understand why such works continue to appeal to both children and adults Treating each work as a literary production deserving of attention in its own right the authors explore its emotional significance and enduring themes They discuss the writer's purposes and literary techniques and investigate the relationship of specific literary works to the lives of their creators Bibliographic information on texts collections and critical literature is supplied Book Review Digest, 1986

The Stendhal Bicentennial Papers Hofstra University, 1987-09-09 This valuable compilation of articles offers original historical biographical and literary perspectives on the works of Stendhal Eleven essays plunge the reader into Stendhal's mythological universe providing new insights into the network of symbols images and obsessional themes that run through his works This multi faceted collection examines Stendhal as the problematic subject for a biography as autobiographer in his own right as journalist novelist and innovator in the realm of fictional devices and as the great representative of that literature of ideas first acclaimed by Balzac Topics addressed include the writer's own enigmatic persona his autobiographical writings his encounter with George Sand and his journalistic career in Italy as well as the structure imposed on his novels by an Oedipal conflict he himself perceives in pre Freudian terms his experiments with multiple narrative point of view and a feminist perspective on his use of the epistolary form as a device to enhance the plot Lessing and the Enlightenment Alexej Ugrinsky, 1986-08-18 This essay collection grew out of a Hofstra University conference on the life works and influence of Gotthold Ephraim Lessing the eighteenth century German playwright critic and philosopher who essentially established a new national literature in Germany during the Enlightenment The volume is divided into two main sections in which various scholars confront and reevaluate two contrasting aspects of Lessing's character: the irrational poet and the rational thinker. In the first section Lessing's aesthetics are discussed. His link to English literature as well as his influence upon the then emerging novel are the subject of special consideration here. In the second section Lessing's philosophical connection to traditions such as utopianism, classical republicanism and eighteenth century humanism is discussed. Also considered are Lessing's intellectual connections with Rumanian literature, feminist and other ideological interpretations of his works and his relation to some of his contemporaries. An introductory article stresses current and future trends in Lessing scholarship. The Cumulative Book Index, 1985. A world list of books in the English language.

Dostoevski and the Human Condition After a Century Alexej Ugrinsky, Frank S. Lambasa, Valija K.

Ozols, 1986-10-21. Among nineteenth century novelists there is probably none who speaks so directly to the modern reader as Fedor Dostoevski. His visions of alienation and terror have not lost their power to shake our complacency even in this present age hardened as it is to violence and social decay. In this stimulating collection of essays a distinguished group of specialists in comparative literature and the social sciences explores the themes and problems with which Dostoevski struggled as both a writer and as a man and assesses their continuing relevance to the modern world. Encompassing a wide range of topics and perspectives this collection enriches our knowledge and appreciation of a writer whose prophetic visions of alienation and explorations of the dark side of the human psyche continue to fascinate readers and students of the human condition. Scenarios of Modernist Disintegration Timothy Schiff, 1985-11-14. This is the first comprehensive analysis of the life and work of Tryggve Andersen. Stressing that Andersen was a transitional writer, Schiff deftly shows him torn between defunct traditions of the recent past and a sterile, hopeless future. Andersen's prose fiction, according to Schiff, contains elegant, finely crafted works of art. His works are highly relevant to today's reader for they reflect some of the most compelling characteristics of the Western experience of the last century and a half: despair, isolation, ambivalence and equivocality. Throughout his commentary Schiff makes it possible to understand Andersen's works in light of a broader cultural perspective. Much about Andersen, which has remained shrouded in mystery, comes to light here. Furthermore, Schiff offers many new insights into Andersen's themes and ideas, substantially revising previous notions about this frequently misunderstood artist's work. Voices of the Storyteller Lorraine Roses, 1986-06-18. Scandinavia Elias Bredsdorff, 1985.

Goethe in the Twentieth Century Hofstra University, 1987-06-16. Born in 1749, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe was one of the giants of world literature and the last European to embody the multi-faceted expertise of the Renaissance personality. Assembled to commemorate the 150th anniversary of his death, the essays included here are appropriately written from a variety of perspectives: literary, humanistic and scientific. A genuinely interdisciplinary collection, this volume is witness to the powerful influence Goethe's works have had on a wide range of subjects, from fiction, drama and art to physics, psychology and psychiatry. The collection also demonstrates the extent to which his ideas have transcended national boundaries as well.

as historic ones Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company,1982 Klaus Rifbjerg Charl S. Gray,1986-10-21

Although Klaus Rifbjerg s output is prodigious including more than 25 novels and 15 volumes of poetry only two works a volume of selected poems and one novel are thus far available in English Charlotte Gray has provided a comprehensive introduction to the works of this versatile man of letters who enjoys a reputation not only as a novelist and poet but as a critic playwright journalist and editor She discusses Rifbjerg s place both in the contemporary Danish literary scene and in modern letters Offering a thorough analysis of each work she traces Rifbjerg s development chronologically and in terms of his contributions to various genres particularly modernist poetry and psychological fiction and points out the underlying unity of his work within these different forms The author s generous use of quotations and her sensitive commentary give a keen impression of Rifbjerg s style and central concerns and convey his sense of the comic and tragic dimensions of modern existence Russian Romantic Criticism Lauren G. Leighton,1987 This scholarly work contains the best and most representative critical essays by leading Russian Romantic writers from the period 1815 to 1835 with the information needed to make them meaningful The editor has provided names dates events literary and critical subjects and heretofore unknown facts about the Romantic movement in Russia and the influence of European thought on the development of Russian culture

Elmer Diktonius George C. Schoolfield,1985-08-20 The poems of Elmer Diktonius place him in the forefront of literary expressionism His idylls and his novel give him high rank among Northern Europe s greatest literary innovators in the twentieth century He has an unusual drama because of his ambiguous involvement with the politics of the left and his hesitation between internationalism and a deep Finnish patriotism George C Schoolfield provides the uninitiated reader with a biographical and critical overview of Diktonius s life and work and calls attention to his artistic triumphs defeats and contradictions Guido Gezelle Hermine J. Van Nuis,1986-02-21 In this first English language study of one of Flanders greatest poets Hermine J van Nuis presents an overview of Guido Gezelle s major poetry collections and focuses upon his evolution as a poet and thinker The author places Gezelle s poetry within its significant cultural and political contexts and analyzes his major poetry collections in terms of the circumstances of his life that shaped them Synthesizing various critical viewpoints expressed in Netherlandic scholarship van Nuis demonstrates how Gezelle s poetic technique paved the way for modern Dutch poetry The volume is complete with a selected bibliography notes references and a chronology of the poet s life Quests for a Promised Land Faith Ingwersen,Niels Ingwersen,1984
