Art: Perception & Appreciation , Managing Arts in Times of Pandemics and Beyond A. Damodaran,2022-01-12 This book seeks to approach arts organizations in India and abroad from a management perspective against the backdrop of COVID 19 and in the light of the advances made by digital technologies such as blockchains It follows a case based approach by taking a closer look at eight arts organizations drawn from USA Canada Japan India and Russia A special chapter is devoted to the cultural and arts policies of India USA Japan Canada and Russia The chapter on economics seeks to apply the principles of managerial economics to arts organisations Also discussed is a methodological approach for classifying arts organizations in terms of their organizational processes The book can be of immense utility to both serving and prospective managers of arts organizations Arts and Power Lisa Gaupp,Alenka Barber-Kersovan,Volker Kirchberg,2022-09-05 The focus on concepts of power and domination in societal structures has characterized sociology since its beginnings Max Weber's definition of power as imposing one's will on others is still relevant to explaining processes in the arts whether their production imagination communication distribution critique or consumption Domination in the arts is exercised by internal and external rulers through institutionalized social structures and through beliefs about their legitimacy achieved by defining and shaping art tastes The complexity of how the arts relate to power arises from the complexity of the policies of artistic production distribution and consumption policies which serve to facilitate or hinder an aesthetic object from reaching its intended public Curators critics and collectors employ a variety of forms of cultural and artistic communication to mirror and shape the dominant social economic and political conditions Arts and Power Policies in and by the Arts brings together diverse voices who position the societal functions of art in fields of domination and power of structure and agency whether they are used to impose hegemonic totalitarian or unjust goals or to pursue social purposes fostering equal rights and grassroots democracy The contributions in this volume are exploratory steps towards what we believe can be a more systematic empirically and theoretically founded sociological debate on the arts and power And they are an invitation to take further steps The Reincarnating Mind, or the Ontopoietic Outburst in Creative Virtualities Anna-Teresa

Tymieniecka,2012-12-06 Tymieniecka s phenomenology of life reverses current priorities stressing the primogenital role of aesthetic enjoyment rather than cognition as typifying the Human Condition The present collection offers clues to a crucial breakthrough in the perennial uncertainties about the powers and prerogatives of the human mind It proposes human creativity as the pivot of the mind s genesis and its endowment In the midst of the current defiance of the transcendental certainties of cognition this turn to the creative act of the human being represents a radical reversion to an approach to human powers that is predominated by the aesthetic virtualities of the Human Condition The collection lays down the foundations for a new discovery of the human mind addressing the plumbing of the functional system that originates in the creative potentiality of the Human Condition undercutting the currently prevalent empirical reductionism
