Poplar Memories:

Poplar Memories John Hector, 2010-08-10 Poplar Memories is a vivid impression of Cockney London before and during the Second World War set in a teeming rundown docklands neighbourhood famous for being well one end of the Blackwall Tunnel John Hector's spellbinding account of his early life in the 1920s and 30s conjures up a vanished era when simplicity and happiness went hand in hand Halcyon days of talking pictures and pavement buskers Saturday night knees ups round the piano eel and pie stalls chimneysweeps boxers Clarnico's toffees and Lloyd Loom furniture and a little shop called Woolworth's selling nothing over sixpence unless it's a shilling All this was to disappear forever in the horrors of the Blitz The author was disabled by infantile paralysis yet he became School Captain and embarked on a successful career at 14 surviving extreme poverty panel doctors dockers riots and Hitler's Luftwaffe with an unshakeable belief in the ordinary people of Poplar Poplar Memories 20's, 30's and 40's John Hector, Port of London, 1925 Memory, History, Nation

Susannah Radstone, 2017-09-04 In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent This interdisciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory The chapters in this volume offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book Topics covered range from the Basque country to Cambodia from Hungary to South Africa from the Finnish Civil War to the cult Jim Jarmusch movie Dead Man from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame to Australia Part I Transforming Memory is concerned primarily with the social and personal transmission of memory across time and generations Part II Remembering Suffering Trauma and History brings the after effects of catastrophe to the fore Part III Patterning the National Past the relation between nation and memory is the central issue Part IV And Then Silence reflects on the complex and multiple meaning of silence and oblivion wherein amnesia is often used as a figure for the denial of shameful Memories of Old Poplar John Blake, 1977-01-01 Poplar Island Peter K. Bailey, 2011-02-17 True story of a young boy growing up on an island in the Chesapeake Bay and going to school by boat Book includes an interesting history of this unique island the first settlement in Talbot County and also the home to President Franklin D Roosevelt's exclusive Jefferson Islands Club in the 1930's Also included is the story of the island's incredible reconstruction started in 1998 after the island had all but washed away New Racial Landscapes Malcolm James, Helen Kim, Victoria Redclift, 2016-03-17 The chapters in this volume examine the racial and ethnic landscape of Britain in a contemporary era of neoliberalism and financial crisis A key aspect of neoliberal thought is the belief that we live in a post racial in which the problems of racism and xenophobia have been overcome However cultural retrenchment and coded xenophobia have been sweeping the political terrain accompanied by new racisms and new racial subjects that only close contextual analysis can unpick The scholarship contained in this collection challenges those who suggest that we live in a post racial time By focusing on particular locations in Britain at a particular moment the volume explores local stories of race and racism across changing sociopolitical ground This book is essential reading for scholars and students of race racism diaspora multiculturalism post colonialism transnationalism and post race This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Sites of Memory Craig E. Barton, 2001-03 These essays explore the historic and contemporary effects of race upon the development of the built environment and examine the myths and realities of America's racial landscapes Its multi disciplinary approach identifies and interprets the black cultural landscape examining its visual spatial and ideological dimensions Invitation to the Married Life Angela Huth, 2011-10-28 The married couples in this book have two things in common a skill in the duplicity that flourishes even in happy marriages and an invitation to the Farthingoes ball In the months preceding the party we learn something of their double lives the faces that each one exposes to their spouses and to the world give little hint of their complex and secret tribulations By the time they arrive at the ball each clutching his or her different hopes and fears we have become familiar with their unsmooth paths and shared many a humorous escapade or private tragedy with Rachel and Thomas Mary and Bill Ursula and Martin Frances and Toby as well as the alluring R Cotterman and the only questing bachelor Ralph Sophisticated sympathetic witty and razor sharp in its observations of the sub text of married life this is a wonderfully accomplished and enjoyable novel which develops totally out of the characters it creates Conway County Heritage , 2006-01-01 The history of the community and people of Conway County Arkansas
