Popular History Of Priestcraft In All Ages And Nations 1833:

The Popular History of Priestcraft in All Ages and Nations William Howitt, 2014-03-29 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1833 Edition Spiritual Despots J. Barton Scott, 2016-07-19 Historians of religion have examined at length the Protestant Reformation and the liberal idea of the self governing individual that arose from it In Spiritual Despots J Barton Scott reveals an unexamined piece of this story how Protestant technologies of asceticism became entangled with Hindu spiritual practices to create an ideal of the self ruling subject crucial to both nineteenth century reform culture and early twentieth century anticolonialism in India Scott uses the quaint term priestcraft to track anticlerical polemics that vilified religious hierarchy celebrated the individual and endeavored to reform human subjects by freeing them from external religious influence By drawing on English Hindi and Gujarati reformist writings Scott provides a panoramic view of precisely how the specter of the crafty priest transformed religion and politics in India Through this alternative genealogy of the self ruling subject Spiritual Despots demonstrates that Hindu reform movements cannot be understood solely within the precolonial tradition but rather need to be read alongside other movements of their period The book s focus moves fluidly between Britain and India engaging thinkers such as James Mill Keshub Chunder Sen Max Weber Karsandas Mulji Helena Blavatsky M K Gandhi and others to show how colonial Hinduism shaped major modern discourses about the self Throughout Scott sheds much needed light how the rhetoric of priestcraft and practices of worldly asceticism played a crucial role in creating a new moral and political order for twentieth century India and demonstrates the importance of viewing the emergence of secularism through the colonial encounter A Popular History of Priestcraft in All Ages and Nations William Howitt, 1833 Catalogue of the Library of Parliament Anonymous, 2025-08-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1857 The Antigonus publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage A catalogue of the books belonging to the Library company of Philadelphia Library company of Philadelphia, 1835 The Asiatic Journal and Monthly Register for British and Foreign India, China, and Australia , 1833 Catalogue of Standard English Authors Dawson, William, & Sons, of London, 1809 A Catalogue of Standard English Authors, Ancient and Modern ...
