Popular Intellectuals And Social Movements Framing Protest In Asia Africa And Latin America:

Popular Intellectuals and Social Movements Michiel Baud, Rosanne Rutten, 2004 All forms of popular protest include a category of popular intellectuals who reflect on social reality speak in the name of popular classes and who articulate ideas that inspire collective action This volume focuses on these individuals from an original angle it looks at the experiences of popular intellectuals in non western societies who operate within social movement networks that link local regional and international arenas and connect to a global flow of ideas Eight case studies on different societies in twentieth century Asia Africa and Latin America highlight specific activist intellectuals

Social Movement Dynamics Federico M. Rossi, Marisa von Bülow, 2016-03-03 This book presents an overview of new approaches to the study of social movements emerging out of Latin America based on original and innovative analyses of the recent changes in collective action across the region Over the past decade new repertoires of contention have emerged in parallel to changes in the configuration of actors in previously established patterns of relationship between social movements and political institutions and in the shapes of collaborative networks both domestic and transnational The authors analyze a broad set of countries and social movements while focusing on three key theoretical debates the interactions between routine and contentious politics the relationship between protest and context and the organizational configurations of social movements The research agenda put forward by this book is neither defined nor restricted by geographical boundaries even though the chapters are based on field research undertaken in Latin America In doing so this volume contributes to a still underdeveloped dialogue in theory building in social movement studies among scholars from the South and from the North as well as among scholars specialized in different regions

Environmental Criminology Liam Leonard, 2017-11-09 Using sociological criminological anthropological historical and media analysis this multi disciplinary volume examines local and regional issues in environmental criminology

Alternatives to Privatization David A. McDonald, Greg Ruiters, 2012-04-23 There is a vast literature for and against privatizing public services Those who are against privatization are often confronted with the objection that they present no alternative This book takes up that challenge by establishing theoretical models for what does and does not constitute an alternative to privatization and what might make them successful backed up by a comprehensive set of empirical data on public services initiatives in over 40 countries This is the first such global survey of its kind providing a rigorous and robust platform for evaluating different alternatives and allowing for comparisons across regions and sectors The book helps to conceptualize and evaluate what has become an important and widespread movement for better public services in the global South The contributors explore historical existing and proposed non commercialized alternatives for primary health water sanitation and electricity The objectives of the research have been to develop conceptual and methodological frameworks for identifying and analyzing alternatives to privatization and testing these models against actually existing alternatives on the ground in Asia Africa and Latin America Information of this type is urgently required for practitioners and analysts both of whom are seeking reliable knowledge on what kind of public models work how transferable they are from one place to another and what their main strengths and weaknesses are

A Transnational History of the Australian Animal Movement, 1970-2015 Gonzalo Villanueva, 2017-10-20 This book offers the first transnational historical study of the creation contention and consequences of the Australian animal movement Largely inspired by Peter Singer and his 1975 book Animal Liberation a new wave of animal activism emerged in Australia and across the world In an effort to draw public and media attention to the plight of animals such as the rearing of pigs and poultry in factory farms and the export of live animals to the Middle East and South East Asia Australian activists were often innovative and provocative in how they made their claims Through lobbying disruptive methods and vegan activism the animal movement consistently contested the politics and culture of how animals were used and exploited Australians not only observed and learnt from people and events overseas but also played significant international roles This book examines the complex and conflicting consequences of the animal movement for Australian politics as well as its influence on broader social change

Social Media in Iran David M. Faris, Babak Rahimi, 2015-11-20 First comprehensive account of how the Internet has impacted life in Iran Social Media in Iran is the first book to tell the complex story of how and why the Iranian people including women homosexuals dissidents artists and even state actors use social media technology and in doing so create a contentious environment wherein new identities and realities are constructed Drawing together emerging and established scholars in communication culture and media studies this volume considers the role of social media in Iranian society particularly the time during and after the controversial 2009 presidential election a watershed moment in the postrevolutionary history of Iran While regional specialists may find studies on specific themes useful the aim of this volume is to provide broad narratives of actor based conceptions of media technology an approach that focuses on the experiential and social networking processes of digital practices in the information era extended beyond cultural specificities Students and scholars of regional and media studies will find this volume rich with empirical and theoretical insights on the subject of how technologies shape political and everyday life

Momentum and the East Timor Independence Movement Shane Gunderson, 2015-03-06 Momentum and the East Timor Independence Movement The Origins of America's Debate on East Timor examines the campaigns by people in the United States on behalf of those seeking peace for East Timor The diplomatic work of voluntary advisors and supporters living in the United States in the early years of the movement have not been thoroughly explored until now Through in depth interviews with twenty activists and intellectuals involved in the East Timor movement from 1975 1999 and qualitative data analysis on information obtained from these interviews this book explores momentum and turning points as perceptions in the minds of individual movement actors The author takes readers through a combination of historical events that shaped social movement actors attitudes and started a social movement momentum sequence in 1995 The East Timor All Inclusive Dialogue the Timorization of Indonesia the public outcries organizational evolution and a number of other turning points in the movement represented a series of successes that led to East Timor's independence

Civil Society in South Asia David Taylor, Heewon Kim, 2022-08-22 Are new ideas needed to disentangle the uses and abuses of the idea of civil society both in South Asia and beyond This book seeks to explore this question by reviewing the debate on civil society mainly in India but also in Pakistan Civil society is a term that has a rich history in European political and social thought since the 17th century Yet it has also become shorthand either for groups who place themselves in opposition to state elites or for non governmental organizations that initiate often in partnership with international agencies programmes of economic and social development that to a greater or lesser extent are distanced from the state The purpose of this collection of essays initially presented at a seminar in 2018 in Hyderabad in South India is to explore these disconnects and to see if concepts of civil society can be developed that go with the grain of South Asia's political and historical experience Some of the chapters in this edited volume focus specifically on theoretical dimensions while others take case studies from India and Pakistan The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Civil Society

Soldiers, Shahs and Subalterns in Iran S. Cronin, 2010-10-27 Against conventional views of the unchallenged hegemony of a modernizing monarchy this book argues that power was continuously contested in Riza Shah's Iran Cronin excavates the successive challenges to Riza Shah's regime posed by a range of subaltern social groups and seeks to restore to these groups a sense of their historical agency

Re-Imagined Universities and Global Citizen Professionals Shanti George, 2014-01-28 Universities are increasingly criticised for their limited relevance to a globalized and unequal world Drawing on research from over 27 countries this book outlines new directions for universities and the need to rethink the education that they provide based on the experiences of schools of international development studies

Embracing the Beat of Expression: An Mental Symphony within Popular Intellectuals And Social Movements Framing Protest In Asia Africa And Latin America

In a global consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony created by the prepared term frequently diminish in to the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of Popular Intellectuals And Social Movements Framing Protest In Asia Africa And Latin America a marvelous fictional treasure brimming with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced.
