Popular Literacy Studies In Cultural Practices And Poetics:

Popular Literacy John Trimbur, 2001 From the work of medieval spiritualist Margery Kempe and John Foxes Book of Martyrs to nineteenth century American scrapbooks Mexican ex votos and Italian American cookbooks the essays in Popular Literacy examine acts of reading writing and speaking that take place at the margins of official institutionalized literacy The contributors explore these noncanonical unschooled and unauthorized acts in order to explore how people make literacy popular by using whatever means of communication is at hand to their own ends The essays treat a range of topics agents and historical settings and the contributors use a variety of theoretical frameworks and methods from a number of fields ethnography American studies history literary criticism science studies rhetoric and writing studies The chapters examine particularly revealing historical moments and cultural conjunctures where instances of popular literacy take place in uneasy relation to the dominant institutions the church the state the schools the market The contributors show that while the practices of popular literacy are never free from these influences neither are they altogether encapsulated by them Taken as a whole the essays are loosely aligned in a common project to study the ways ordinary and extraordinary readers speakers and writers use literacy to articulate identities and social aspirations to produce alternative forms of cultural knowledge and to cope with the asymmetries of power that regulate cultural life

Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy

Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services

New Media

Literacies and Participatory Popular Culture Across Borders Bronwyn Williams, Amy A. Zenger, 2012-05-23 How do students online literacy practices intersect with online popular culture In this book scholars from a range of countries including Australia Lebanon Nepal Qatar South Africa Turkey and the United States illustrate and analyze how literacy practices that are mediated through and influenced by popular culture create both opportunities and tensions for secondary and university students The authors examine issues of theory identity and pedagogy as they address participatory popular culture sites such as fan forums video blogs social networking sites anime memes and comics and graphic novels Uniquely bringing together scholarship about online literacy practices and the growing body of work on participatory popular culture New Media Literacies and Participatory Popular Culture across Borders makes distinctive contributions to an emerging field of study pushing forward scholarship about literacy and identity in cross cultural situations and advancing important conversations about issues of global flows and local responses to popular culture "Women and Things, 1750?950 "

MaureenDaly Goggin,2017-07-05 In contrast to much current scholarship on women and material culture which focuses primarily on women as consumers this essay collection provides case studies of women who produced material objects The essays collected here make an original contribution to material culture studies by focusing on women s social practices in relation to material culture The essays as a whole are concerned with women s complex and active engagement with material culture in the various stages of the material object s life cycle from design and production to consumption use and redeployment Also theorized and described are the ways in which women engaged in meaning making identity formation and commemoration through their manipulation of materials and techniques ranging from taxidermy and shell work to collecting autographs and making scrapbooks This volume takes as its object of investigation the overlooked and often despised categories of women s decorative and craft activities as sites of important cultural and social work This volume is interdisciplinary with essays by art historians social historians literary critics rhetoricians and museum curators The scope of the volume is international with essays on eighteenth century German silhouettes Australian aboriginal ritual practices Brittany mourning rites and Soviet era recipes that provide a comparative framework for the majority of essays which focus on British and North American women who lived and worked in the long nineteenth century This volume will appeal to a broad range of students and scholars in women s history art history cultural studies museum studies anthropology cultural and social history literature rhetoric and material culture studies Women and the Material Culture of Death

BethFowkes Tobin,2017-07-05 Examining the compelling and often poignant connection between women and the material culture of death this collection focuses on the objects women make the images they keep the practices they use or are responsible for and the places they inhabit and construct through ritual and custom Women s material practices ranging from wearing mourning jewelry to dressing the dead stitching memorial samplers to constructing skull boxes collecting funeral programs to collecting and studying diseased hearts making and collecting taxidermies and making sculptures honoring the death are explored in this collection as well as women s affective responses and sentimental labor that mark their expected and unexpected participation in the social practices surrounding death and the dead The largely invisible work involved in commemorating and constructing narratives and memorials about the dead from family members and friends to national figures calls attention to the role women as memory keepers for families local communities and the nation Women have tended to work collaboratively making collecting and sharing objects that conveyed sentiments about the deceased whether human or animal as well as the identity of mourners Death is about loss and many of the mourning practices that women have traditionally and are currently engaged in are about dealing with private grief and public loss as well as working to mitigate the more general anxiety that death engenders about the impermanence of life Reading Home Cultures

Through Books Kirsti Salmi-Niklander, Marija Dalbello, 2022-02-27 This wide ranging comparative and multidisciplinary collection addresses the significance of books in creating the idea of home The chapters present cases that reveal the affective and sensory dimensions of books and reading in the practice of everyday life of individuals in communities and in society The complex relationship of books reading and home is explored through American and European case studies both in bourgeois and middle class homes and in working class and immigrant families and communities with limited possibilities for reading The volume combines the conceptions and representations of domesticity the materiality of reading and library as a place drawing on book history and material culture studies as well as anthropology and sociology of the home Inherit the Holy Mountain Mark Stoll, 2015-04-30 In Inherit the Holy Mountain historian Mark Stoll introduces us to the religious roots of the American environmental movement Religion he shows provided environmentalists both with deeply embedded moral and cultural ways of viewing the world and with content direction and tone for the causes they espoused Stoll discovers that specific denominational origins corresponded with characteristic sets of ideas about nature and the environment as well as distinctive aesthetic reactions to nature as can be seen in key works of art analyzed throughout the book Stoll also provides insight into the possible future of environmentalism in the United States concluding with an examination of the current religious scene and what it portends for the future By debunking the supposed divide between religion and American environmentalism Inherit the Holy Mountain opens up a fundamentally new narrative in environmental studies Sibling Romance in American Fiction, 1835-1900 E. VanDette, 2013-02-06 This study posits that the narrative of sibling love as a culturally significant tradition in nineteenth century American fiction Ultimately Emily E VanDette suggests that these novels contribute to historical conversations about affiliation in such tumultuous contexts as sectional divisions slavery debates the Civil War and Reconstruction Up in the Rocky Mountains Jennifer Eastman Attebery, By defining personal letters as a vernacular genre Attebery provides a model for discerning immigrants shared culture in correspondence collections By studying their words she brings to life small Swedish communities throughout the Rocky Mountain region BOOK JACKET

Women's Ways of Making Maureen Daly Goggin, Shirley K Rose, 2021-04-21 Women's Ways of Making draws attention to material practices those that the hands perform as three epistemologies an episteme a techne and a phronesis that together give pointed consideration to making as a rhetorical embodied endeavor Combined these epistemologies show that making is a form of knowing that episteme knowing how techne and wisdom making phronesis Since the Enlightenment embodied knowledge creation has been overlooked ignored or disparaged as inferior to other forms of expression or thinking that seem to leave the material world behind Privileging the hand over the eye as the work in this collection does thus problematizes the way in which the eye has been co-opted by thinkers as the mind's tool of investigation Contributors to this volume argue that other senses touch taste smell hearing are keys to knowing one's materials Only when all these ways of knowing are engaged can making be understood as a rhetorical practice In Women's Ways of Making contributors explore ideas of making that run the gamut from videos produced by beauty vloggers to zine production and art programs at women's correctional facilities Bringing together senior scholars new voices and a fresh take on material rhetoric this book will be of interest to a broad range of readers in composition and rhetoric Contributors Angela Clark Oates Jane L Donawerth Amanda Ellis Theresa M Evans Holly Fulton Babicke Bre Garrett Melissa Greene Magdelyn Hammong Helwig Linda Hanson Jackie Hoermann Christine Martorana Aurora Matzke Jill McCracken Karen S Neubauer Daneryl Nier Weber Sherry Rankins Roberson Kathleen J Ryan Rachael Ryerson Andrea Severson Lorin Shellenberger Carey Smitherman Clark Emily Standridge Charlese Trower Christy I Wenger Hui Wu Kathleen Blake Yancey
