Songs of Innocence and Experience Magdalena Grabias-Zurek, 2013-07-26 Songs of Innocence and Experience Romance in the Cinema of Frank Capra is a study of the director s chosen movies from the perspective of three types of comedies paradisaical purgatorial and infernal as assigned by Dante in his Divine Comedy Magdalena Grabias views Capra s films in two broader categories of innocence and experience where innocence represents Dantean paradisaical level and experience combines the levels of purgatory and inferno Such a division constitutes the means to interpret Capra s filmic universe and to describe the ever evolving directorial vision of Frank Capra The main purpose of the book is to demonstrate how in the light of the theory of literary romance as presented by Northrop Frye in his seminal works concerning the subject the films of Frank Capra fit into the genre of romance Romantic elements in Frank Capra s movies can be found in both innocence and experience categories and hence consequently in his paradisaical purgatorial and infernal comedies However in both categories and all three comedy types the romantic reality of each examined film is structured and developed in a different manner The book offers an insight into Frank Capra s films and the complex process of creating his multidimensional romantic universe within them

Encyclopedia of Populism in America Alexandra Kindell, Elizabeth S. Demers Ph.D., 2014-02-27 This comprehensive two volume encyclopedia documents how Populism which grew out of post Civil War agrarian discontent was the apex of populist impulses in American culture from colonial times to the present The Populist Movement was founded in the late 1800s when farmers and other agrarian workers formed cooperative societies to fight exploitation by big banks and corporations Today Populism encompasses both right wing and left wing movements organizations and icons This valuable encyclopedia examines how ordinary people have voiced their opposition to the prevailing political economic and social constructs of the past as well how the elite or leaders at the time have reacted to that opposition The entries spotlight the people events organizations and ideas that created this first major challenge to the two party system in the United States Additionally attention is paid to important historical actors who are not traditionally considered Populist but were instrumental in paving the way for the movement or vigorously resisted Populism s influence on American culture This encyclopedia also shows that Populism as a specific movement and populism as an idea have served alternately to further equal rights in America and to limit them

Critical theory and demagogic populism Paul K. Jones, 2020-11-03 Populism is a powerful force today but its full scope has eluded the analytical tools of both orthodox and heterodox populism studies This book provides a valuable alternative perspective It reconstructs in detail for the first time the sociological analyses of US demagogues by members of the Frankfurt School and compares these with contemporary approaches Modern demagoguery emerges as a key under researched feature of populism since populist movements whether left or right are highly susceptible to demagogic capture The book also details the culture industry s populist contradictions including its role as an incubator of modern demagogues from the 1930s through to today s social media and Trumpian psychotechnics Featuring a previously unpublished text by Adorno on modern demagoguery as an appendix it will be of interest to researchers and students in critical theory sociology politics German studies philosophy and history of ideas as well as all those concerned about the rise of demagogic populism today

Frank Capra Robert Sklar, Vito Zagarrio, Frank Capra s films have had a lasting impact on American culture His powerful depiction of American values myths and ideals was central famous Hollywood films as It Happened One Night Mr Smith Goes to Washington and It s a Wonderful Life These pre war films are remembered for their depiction of an individual s overcoming adversity populist politics and an unflappable optimistic view of life This collection of nine essays by leading international film historians analyzes Capra s filmmaking during his most prolific period from 1928 to 1939 taking a closer look at the more complex aspects of his work They trace his struggles for autonomy against Columbia Pictures head Harry Cohn his reputation as an amateur and the ways in which working within studio modes of production may have enhanced the director s strengths The contributors also place their critiques within the context of the changing fortunes of the Hollywood studio system the impact of the Depression and Capra s working relationships with other studio staff and directors The contributors access to nineteen newly restored Capra films made at Columbia during this period fills this collection with some of the most comprehensive critiques available on the director s early body of work

The Capra Touch Matthew C. Gunter, 2011-12-01 During World War II Academy Award winning director Frank Capra 1897 1991 made propaganda films for the U S Government such as Prelude to War The Nazis Strike The Battle of Britain War Comes to America and The Negro Soldier These entries in the Why We Fight documentary series have been largely neglected by Capra scholars This work analyzes the cinematic and thematic techniques Capra employed in these films linking them to the techniques and ideology of the director's popular mainstream narrative films including It Happened One Night, Mr Deeds Goes to Town and Mr Smith Goes to Washington. Also analyzed are the manners in which Frank Capra's war service affected his later films notably his 1946 masterpiece It's a Wonderful Life and how Capra's belief in individual liberty shaped both his films and his career under the oppressive Hollywood studio system. Irene Dunne Wes D. Gehring, 2006-06-15 This is the first full length biography of Irene Dunne one of the most versatile actresses of Hollywood's Golden Age. A recipient of the Kennedy Center Honors award in 1985 Dunne's acting highlights include five Best Actress Oscar nominations occurring in almost as many different genres the Western Cimarron 1931 the two screwball comedies Theodora Goes Wild 1936 and The Awful Truth 1937 the romantic comedy Love Affair 1939 and the populist I Remember Mama 1948. Her other memorable films include My Favorite Wife 1940 Penny Serenade 1941 Anna and the King of Siam 1946 and Life with Father 1947. After delving into Dunne's childhood and early acting forays the book reveals details about key events in her life and career including a difficult bi-coastal marriage. The author also examines Dunne's pivotal roles on stage and in film her movement among the genres of melodrama and screwball comedy her ties to director Leo McCarey and her post-war film career. Gehring's research and insightful analysis shed light on what made Irene Dunne so unique and her performances so memorable. Includes 16 pages of photos.

Genre-Busting Dark Comedies of the 1970s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-03-09 This examination of dark comedies of the 1970s focuses on films which concealed black humor behind a misleading genre label. All That Jazz 1979 is a musical about death hardly Fred and Ginger territory. This masking goes beyond misnomer to a breaking of formula that director Robert Altman called anti-genre. Altman's MASH 1970 ridiculed the military establishment in general the Vietnam War in particular under the guise of a standard military service comedy. The picaresque Western Little Big Man 1970 turned the bluecoats vs Indians formula upside down the audience roots for the Indians instead of the cavalry. The book covers 12 essential films including Harold and Maude 1971 Slaughterhouse Five 1972 One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest 1975 and Being There 1979 with notes on A Clockwork Orange 1971. These films reveal a compounding complexity that reinforces the absurdity at the heart of dark comedy.

Narrative Humanism Wyatt Moss-Wellington, 2019-09-13 This book attempts to clarify the narrative conditions of humanism asking how we can use stories to complicate our understanding of others and questioning the ethics and efficacy of attempts to represent human social complexity in fiction. With case studies of films like Parenthood 1989 American Beauty 1999 Little Miss Sunshine 2006 and The Kids Are All Right 2010 this original study synthesises leading discourses on media and cognition evolutionary anthropology literature and film analysis into a new theory of the storytelling instinct.
