Porphyrius The Charioteer:

Porphyrius Alan Cameron,1973 Porphyrius Calliopas was the greatest of all the heroes of the sixth century Byzantine hippodrome celebrated in the Anthology and in monumental reliefs Only two bases of monuments to Porphyrius survive the second found in 1963 This book first published in 1973 presented the first published study of this second base elucidating the iconography and explaining the inscriptions and also reassessing the first base in the light of the new evidence Matching the epigrams of the bases to those in the anthology Cameron infers that there were a further five monuments to Porphyrius and contemporary charioteers now lost and reconstructs the careers of the charioteers their fame and material rewards He also discusses the changing fortunes of the hippodrome under the emperors Anastasius and Justinian the vexed issue of faction violence and the important way in which the victorious charioteer was seen as a reflection of the victorious Emperor Book jacket

The Art of the Byzantine Empire 312-1453 Cyril A. Mango, Medieval Academy of America, 1986-01-01 Originally published by Prentice Hall 1972 The Greek Anthology, 1918 The Greek anthology Anthologia graeca. Greek and English, 1918

The Greek anthology: Book XIII - Epigrams in various metres, Book XIV - Arithmetical programs, riddles, oracles, Book XV - Miscellanea, Book XVI - Epigrams of the planudean anthology not in the palatine manuscript, 1918 Society and the Holy in Late Antiquity Peter Brown, 1989-10-25 With the blend of art and learning that is the hallmark of his work Peter Brown here examines how the sacred impinged upon the profane during the first Christian millennium Sport in the Cultures of the Ancient World Zinon Papakonstantinou, 2013-09-13 Sport has been practised in the Greco Roman world at least since the second millennium BC It was socially integrated and was practised in the context of ceremonial performances physical education and established local and international competitions including most famously the Olympic Games In recent years the continuous re assessment of old and new evidence in conjunction with the development of new methodological perspectives have created the need for a fresh examination of central aspects of ancient sport in a single volume This book fills that gap in ancient sport scholarship When did the ancient Olympics begin How is sport depicted in the work of the fifth century historian Herodotus What was the association between sport and war in fifth and fourth century BC Athens What were the social and political implications of the practice of Greek style sport in third century BC Ptolemaic Egypt How were Roman gladiatorial shows perceived and transformed in the Greek speaking east And what were the conditions of sport participation by boys and girls in ancient Rome These are some of the questions that this book written by an international cast of distinguished scholars on ancient sport attempts to answer Covering a wide chronological and geographical scope ancient Mediterranean from the early first millennium BC to fourth century AD individual articles re examine old and new evidence and offer stimulating original interpretations of key aspects of ancient sport in its political military cultural social ceremonial and ideological setting This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport Manthropology Peter McAllister, 2024-06-04 Manthropology aims to do for the history of man what Freakonomics did for statistics An eye opener and a bracing call to arms Men's Journal Peter McAllister set out to rebut the claim that man today is suffering from feminization and emasculation He planned to use his skills as a paleoanthropologist and journalist to write a book demonstrating unequivocally that man today is a triumph the result of a hard fought evolutionary struggle toward greatness As you will see he failed In nearly every category of manliness modern man turned out to be not just matched but bested by his ancestors Stung McAllister embarked on a new mission If his book couldn't be a testament to modern male achievement he decided it would be a record of his failures Manthropology then is a globe spanning tour of the science of masculinity It kicks off in Ice Age France where a biomechanical analysis demonstrates that La Ferrassie 2 a Neanderthal woman discovered in the early 1900s would cream 2004 World Arm Wrestling Federation champion Alexey Voyevoda in an arm wrestle Then it moves on to medieval Serbia showing how Slavic guslar poets who were famously able to repeat a two thousand line verse after just one hearing would have destroyed Curtis Jackson aka 50 Cent in a rap battle Finally it takes the reader to the steaming jungles of modern equatorial Africa where Aka Pygmy men are such super dads they even grow breasts to suckle their children Now that's commitment For modern man the results of these investigations aren't always pretty But in its look at the history of men Manthropology is unfailingly smart informative surprising and entertaining

Greek Literature in Late Antiquity Scott Fitzgerald Johnson, 2016-04-22 Late Antiquity has attracted a significant amount of attention in recent years As a historical period it has thus far been defined by the transformation of Roman institutions the emergence of distinct religious cultures Jewish Christian Islamic and the transmission of ancient knowledge to medieval and early modern Europe Despite all this the study of late antique literary culture is still in its infancy especially for the Greek and other eastern texts examined in this volume The contributions here presented make new inroads into a rich literature notable above all for its flexibility and unparalleled creativity in combining multiple languages and literary traditions The authors and texts discussed include Philostratus Eusebius of Caesarea Nonnos of Panopolis the important St Polyeuktos epigram and numerous others The volume makes use of a variety of interdisciplinary approaches in an attempt to provoke discussion on change Dynamism literary education Didacticism and reception studies Classicism The result is a study which highlights the erudition and literary sophistication characteristic of the period and brings questions of contextualization linguistic association and artistic imagination to bear on little known or undervalued texts without neglecting important evidence from material culture and social practices With contributions by both established scholars and young innovators in the field of late antique studies there is no work of comparable authority or scope currently available This volume will stimulate further interest in a range of untapped texts from Late Antiquity

The Hippodrome of Constantinople Engin Akyürek, 2021-10-07 The Hippodrome of Constantinople was constructed in the fourth century AD by the Roman Emperor Constantine I in his new capital Throughout Byzantine history the Hippodrome served as a ceremonial sportive and recreational center of the city in the early period it was used mainly as an arena for very popular competitive and occasionally violent chariot races while the Middle Ages witnessed the imperial ceremonies coming to the fore gradually although the races continued The ceremonial and recreational role of the Hippodrome somehow continued during the Ottoman period Being the oldest structure in the city the Hippodrome has witnessed exciting chariot races ceremonies glorifying victorious emperors as well as the charioteers and the riots that shook the imperial authority Today looking to the remnants of the Hippodrome one can imagine the glorious past of the site
