Port Tobacco A Transformed Community:

Port Tobacco Kim R. Kihl,1982 A Transformed Community Kim Kihl,1981 A Voice of Thunder George Stephens,1998 Stephens was a black reporter for the black newspaper Weekly Anglo African when the Civil War broke out He joined the 54th Massachusetts the first black Union regiment Promoted to sergeant he stormed Battery Wagner with his regiment Surviving the Union defeat Stephens served with the 54th through the end of the war Chesapeake Oysters Katherine J. Livie,2021-04-13 This cultural and ecological history explores the rise of Chesapeake s mighty mollusk from Colonial era harvesting to contemporary cultivation Oysters are an essential part of Chesapeake Bay culture and cuisine as well as the ecological and historical lifeblood of the region When colonists first sailed these abundant shores they described massive shoals of foot long oysters In later years however the bottomless appetite of the Gilded Age and great fleets of skipjacks took their toll Disease environmental pressures and overconsumption decimated the population by the end of the twentieth century To combat the problem Virginia began leasing its waters to private oyster farmers Today these boutique oyster farms are sustainably meeting the culinary demand of a new generation of connoisseurs But in Maryland passionate debate continues among scientists and oystermen whether aquaculture or wild harvesting is the better path With careful research and interviews with experts author Kate Livie presents this dynamic story and a glimpse of what the future may hold The Free Port of Livorno and the Transformation of the Mediterranean World Corey Tazzara,2017-10-13 In the twilight of the Renaissance the grand duke of Tuscany a scion of the fabled Medici family of bankers invited foreign merchants artisans and ship captains to settle in his port city of Livorno The town quickly became one of the most bustling port cities in the Mediterranean presenting a rich tableau of officials merchants mariners and slaves Nobody could have predicted in 1600 that their activities would contribute a chapter in the history of free trade Yet by the late seventeenth century the grand duke s invitation had evolved into a general program of hospitality towards foreign visitors the liberal treatment of goods and a model for the elimination of customs duties Livorno was the earliest and most successful example of a free port in Europe The story of Livorno shows the seeds of liberalism emerging not from the studies of philosophers such as Adam Smith but out of the nexus between commerce politics and identity in the early modern Mediterranean Virginia Social Science Journal ,1977 Expanding Energy Christopher H. Evans,Mark A. Lamport,2024-02-07 This book is the seventh and final volume in the Global Story of Christianity series The volume s chapters written by major scholars in the field spotlight vital episodes and themes for understanding the historical development of Christianity in the United States and Canada Serving as an accessible text for students and an informative volume for scholars the book provides new insights into Christianity s development in North America offering fresh perspectives on topics frequently overlooked by scholars The book situates the history of North American Christianity within broader themes associated with Christianity s role as a global religion Bibliographic Guide to North American History ,1983 Liberation Theology Along the Potomac Edward F.

Terrar,2011 Explores the particular beliefs of Maryland's Catholic laborers who were at odds with the traditional English Catholic gentry in opposition to their crown parliament clergy and papacy and sympathetic to the Protestant Antinomians seeking to challenge the established order of Maryland's church and state The economic intellectual legal and social history of the Maryland Catholics during the English Civil War is compared to related developments in Europe Latin America and Africa Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine Daughters of the American Revolution,1986
