Ethical Decision Making for the 21st Century Counselor Donna S. Sheperis, Stacy L. Henning, Michael M. Kocet, 2015-09-16 Ethical practice is an essential aspect of counselor training In order for counselors to competently work with clients they must be well versed in ethical codes ethical decision making and legal issues impacting the profession Ethical Decision Making for the 21st Century Counselor provides the fundamentals of ethical practice with emphasis on ethical decision making and is structured to facilitate the development of these skills and understanding and applying them Individuals will be able to incorporate ethical practice into their understanding of the counseling process and integrate ethical decision making models into their counseling practice This unique approach differs from existing texts because of its strong emphasis on practical decision making and focus on understanding the process of applying a standard ethical decision model to any ethical scenario Students build a foundation in how to evaluate an ethical situation and feel confident that they have applied a set of decision models to reach the best decision Ethical Decision Making for the 21st Century Counselor is part of the SAGE Counseling and Professional Identity Series which targets specific competencies identified by CACREP Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Programs

Advanced Ethics for Addiction Professionals Michael J. Taleff, 2009-11-13 The aspects of the book related to the philosophy of science and cognitive science inductive and deductive reasoning biases and heuristics are distilled in reasonable and useful ways I recommend this book to those addiction professionals who want to create their own framework for ethical decision making PsycCRITIQUES Ethical decision making is required in many of the difficult situations faced by addiction professionals In this guide Michael Taleff describes how to integrate critical thinking with ethical decision making This is a guide not on what to do when confronted with difficult ethical dilemmas but on how to think about what to do The author presents common ethical dilemmas that addiction professionals face in their daily work such as boundary issues confidentiality dual relationships and more and asks readers to consider their own responses to these dilemmas The book then shows readers how to apply new models of ethical thinking to practice Key features Presents an ethical self exam to encourage critical thinking about one's own decision making method Introduces a variety of models such as the social contract theory existentialist theory and ethical egoism Discusses how biases emotional reactions and fallacies can weaken ethical decision making Presents an introductory Ethics Judgment Kit a simple practical decision making procedure for students This book demonstrates how critical thinking skills can impact and improve the process of ethical decision making
