Portrait Of The Artist As A Young Patient Psychodynamic Studies Of The Creative Personality:

Portrait Of The Artist As A Young Patient Gerald Alper, 1992-03-21 This book is a fascinating account of a unique patient population struggling young artists who have come to the artistic center of America to actualize their dreams but at some point feel defeated by the overwhelming competitiveness of this subculture Gerald Alper a psychotherapist specializing in this heretofore unstudied group draws upon his own artistic background to form an empathic bond with these troubled talented individuals He provides unusual insight into the relationship of the artist to his own creativity his teacher his imagined public and his therapist Tapping into an unusual array of creative ambitions and burgeoning identities locked within the artistic personality the author an expert in treating the creative personality outlines an original theory linking the artistic process to a special form of narcissism in which the self is in constant need of approval and justification from its audience and itself Taking into account the parallel struggles and demands of learning one's craft while trying to maintain a semblance of financial stability Alper has compassionately marked the unique facets of the artist who seeks a therapist's help when self esteem succumbs to doubt and frustration The skill of the author in forming an enduring therapeutic alliance with these young men and women enables them to come to terms with the clash between their artistic temperament and the concomitant need to assume a realistic enduring societal role Destined to make an invaluable contribution to the psychology of creativity Portrait of the Artist as a Young Patient will be a vital asset to psychotherapists clinical psychologists psychiatrists mental health practitioners psychoanalysts social workers and general readers

Portrait of the Artist as a Young Patient Gerald Alper, 1997-07 Portrait of the Artist as a Young Patient the first book of non fiction written by Gerald Alper is also the first serious attempt to explore in depth the dynamics of the yet to be recognized unfulfilled and usually perplexed fledgling artist The artist tries to live in two separate worlds a factual linear banal reality driven outer world that is best kept at arm's length and a creatively organized aesthetically orchestrated dramatically engaging inner world that is forever being obsessively cultivated Indeed facilitating the patient in his or her efforts to forge a usable bridge between these generally discontinuous worlds is no small part of the task of the therapist who elects to work with such young artists
