With a Portrait* Samuel Johnson,1806 A Cultural History of Hair in the Age of Empire Sarah Heaton,2020-12-10 Hair or lack of it is one the most significant identifiers of individuals in any society In Antiquity the power of hair to send a series of social messages was no different This volume covers nearly a thousand years of history from Archaic Greece to the end of the Roman Empire concentrating on what is now Europe North Africa and the Near East Among the key issues identified by its authors is the recognition that in any given society male and female hair tend to be opposites when male hair is generally short women s is long that hair is a marker of age and stage of life children and young people have longer less confined hairstyles adult hair is far more controlled hair can be used to identify the other in terms of race and ethnicity but also those who stand outside social norms such as witches and mad women The chapters in A Cultural History of Hair in Antiquity cover the following topics religion and ritualized belief self and society fashion and adornment production and practice health and hygiene gender and sexuality race and ethnicity class and social status and cultural representations The Lives of the Poets ... A New Edition. [With a Portrait.] Samuel Johnson,1816 Non-Elegiac Latin Love Poetry of Late Antiquity Vasileios Pappas,2025-05-19 For about five hundred years between Ovid s death 17 AD and Maximianus Elegies 6th century AD the genre of love elegy disappears Does this mean that love poetry in general was no longer being written This was certainly not the case Poets continued to compose love poetry merely in other forms than elegy This book deals with non elegiac Latin love poetry of Late Antiquity It is the first monograph to focus on the metaliterary interpretation of four non elegiac poetic works the Pervigilium Veneris Ausonius Bissula Reposianus De concubitu Martis et Veneris and the Aegritudo Perdicae The book contains all the required information about these poems including their date authorship structure and literary tradition However its content is predominantly original as it examines subjects that have not previously been discussed in the past These include a the generic interaction between the poems host genre and several guest genres that are present within them b the metaliterary discourse developed in several passages which reveals the metapoetic self consciousness of their poets c their hidden demands for the innovation of love poetry and d their allusive comments on the conservatism of this era The Nineteenth Century and After, 1911 Poetry, Politics, and the Body in Rimbaud Robert St. Clair, 2018-08-30 Bodies abound in Rimbaud s poetry in a way that is nearly unprecedented in the nineteenth century poetic canon lazy creative rule breaking bodies queer bodies marginalized and impoverished bodies revolting and revolutionary historical bodies The question that Poetry Politics and the Body seeks to answer is What does this corporeal density mean for reading Rimbaud What kind of sense are we to make of this omnipresence of the body in the Rimbaudian corpus from first to last from the earliest poems in verse celebrating the sheer simple delight of running away from wherever one is and stretching one s legs out under a table to the ultimate flight away from poetry itself In response this book argues that the body appears often literally as a kind of gap breach or aperture through which Rimbaud s poems enter into contact with history and a larger body of other texts Simply put the body is privileged lyrical material for Rimbaud a figure for human beings in their exposed finite creatureliness and in their unpredictable agency and interconnectedness Its presence in the early work allows us not only to contemplate what a strange sensuous thing it is to be embodied to be both singular and part of a collective it also allows the poet to diagnose and the reader to perceive a set of seemingly intractable real socio economic political and symbolic problems Rimbaud s bodies are in other words utopian bodies sites where the historical and the lyrical the ideal and the material do not so much cancel each other out as become caught up in one another
