"David Alfaro Siqueiros "Portrait of a Decade 1930 – 1940"

Houston Museum of Fine Arts June 1- July 20, 1997

© Susan Platt first published Art Papers Magazine November December 1997

What an irony that the first one person museum exhibition of the work of David Alfaro Siqueiros in the United States is juxtaposed and completely eclipsed at the Houston Museum of Fine Arts by "Jewels of the Romanovs: Treasures of the Russian Imperial Court." Banners, tickets, crowds, all flowed toward the Imperial Jewels, to the wealth of the tsars, to everything that Siqueiros spent his life opposing.

Almost hidden away on the first floor, beside the impressionist collection, were about fifty paintings and a few prints by Siqueiros. David Alfaro Siqueiros (1896-1974), the youngest of "los tres grandes" of the Mexican mural tradition of the twentieth century, was profoundly committed to calling attention to the injustices of society and government oppression. His most outspoken and comprehensive works are his murals in Mexico City. They include the violently anti-Fascist Portrait of the Bourgeoisie (1939), the dramatic historical overview, From the Regime of Porfirio Diaz to the Revolution in Chapultepec Castle (1957 - 1966) and the huge (more than 2000 square meters) and comprehensive March of Humanity (1965-1971) in the Siqueiros Polyforum, which is sometimes referred to as the Mexican Sistine Chapel.

The current exhibition, in honor of the centennial of the artist, includes only easel paintings gathered from both public and private collections. The decade of the exhibition, the 1930s, precedes his major mural cycles, and includes many years in which he was active politically, fighting in the Spanish Civil War, or in prison. I expected that to see only easel paintings would aestheticize and distort his career. That, in fact, is not the case. The works are never simply pretty, even when they are portraits of women (frequently his lovers, all women of exceptional intelligence and presence). Furthermore, a superb catalogue places all the work in the context of his political commitments. The show opens with a group of works that Siqueiros produced in Lecumberri Prison. He was able to work in prison because his partner at the time, the Uruguayan poet, Blanca Luz Brum, brought him materials. I found the most compelling of these prison works to be the tiny woodcuts made on fragments of crates. They take from futurist abstraction in their simplicity within the small scale, and yet they clearly convey themes, such as the courageous waiting women, that appear throughout Siqueiros' work. They resonate with the history of popular broadsides in Mexico, traditionally a way to communicate with the illiterate masses, although here they form the basis for a modest collector's portfolio. The small dark oil paintings from prison are pessimistic, showing confinement, isolation, and torture. Siqueiros was imprisoned for Communist activism at a time when the euphoric hopes of the Mexican Renaissance of the early twenties were completely dead.

After his release from jail, Siqueiros lived under house arrest in Taxco, a benign prison. Taxco in the early thirties was a bohemian community with international notables ranging from Josef von Sternberg to Katherine Anne Porter. There he produced a second group of easel works, frequently commissioned portraits. Sometimes on rough burlap with very
