Pursuing The Pearl A Comprehensive Resource For Multi Asian Ministry:

Pursuing the Pearl Ken Uyeda Fong, 1999 Fong's revision of his previously released Insights for Growing Asian American Ministries examines the very latest trends and cultural realities in Asian American churches Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermon preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology Asian American Youth Ministry Dj Chuang, 2009-05-27 Find practical answers in this handy resource Get an inside look at the practical insights from the perspective of practitioners who collectively have over 100 years of experience in Asian American youth ministry as they share about the intergenerational church student leadership and vital outreach A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference Growing Healthy Asian American Churches Peter Cha, S. Steve Kang, Helen Lee, 2009-09-20 The Asian American church is in transition Congregations face the challenges of preserving ethnic culture and heritage while contextualizing their ministry to younger generations and the unchurched Many Asian American church leaders struggle with issues like leadership development community dynamics and intergenerational conflict But often Asian American churches lack the resources and support they need to fulfill their callings Peter Cha Steve Kang and Helen Lee and a team of veteran Asian American pastors and church leaders offer eight key values for healthy Asian American churches Drawing on years of expertise and filled with practical examples from landmark churches like Evergreen Baptist Church of Los Angeles NewSong Church and Lighthouse Christian Church the book provides soundly biblical perspectives for effective ministry that honors the Asian American cultural context Insights from such pioneering leaders as Ken Fong David Gibbons Grace May Wayne Ogimachi Steve Wong Nancy Sugikawa and Soong Chan Rah make this an essential guide for Asian American church leaders wanting to help their congregations achieve health and growth Produced in partnership with the Catalyst Leadership Center a resource organization for Asian American church ministry The Art and Craft of Biblical Preaching

Zondervan,2009-05-26 A Comprehensive Resource for Today's Christian Communicators This extensive encyclopedia is the most complete and practical work ever published on the art and craft of biblical preaching Its 11 major sections contain nearly 200 articles comprehensively covering topics on preaching and methodology including Sermon structure and the big idea The art of introductions transitions and conclusions Methods for sermon prep from outlining to exercising Approaches to different types of preaching topical expository evangelistic and more Best practices for sermon delivery speaking with authority and using humor Leveraging effective illustrations and stories Understanding audience and much more Entries are characterized by intensely practical and vivid writing designed to help preachers deepen their understanding and sharpen their communication skills The contributors include a virtual Who's Who of preaching from a cross section of denominations and traditions such as Dallas Willard John Ortberg Rick Warren Warren Wiersbe Alice Mathews John Piper Andy Stanley and many others Haddon Robinson and Craig Brian Larson two of today's most respected voices in preaching provide editorial oversight Includes audio CD with preaching technique examples from the book Solving the Immigrant Church Crisis

Ronald M. Rothenberg,2016-08 Solving the Immigrant Church Crisis The Biblical Solution of Parallel Ministry Acts 6:1-7 addresses the crisis of the immigrant church in which complex cultural and linguistic factors create a reticence on the part of immigrants to transfer financial and decision making authority to succeeding generations and this results in a culturally irrelevant ministry to those generations an exodus of believers from the church a spiritually immature remnant and an inability to reach the lost The thesis of this book is that parallel ministry based on Acts 6:1-7 is the biblical solution to the crisis in the immigrant church While there are at least two main aspects of this crisis a spiritual relational and an ecclesiastical aspect this book focuses on the ecclesiastical aspect of defining the biblical structure of church government Specifically this book is for immigrant churches primarily in the United States and offers them a biblical and practical solution to the problem plaguing them for over two centuries of how to minister effectively to the succeeding generations

Religions in Asian America Pyong Gap Min,Jung Ha Kim,2001-12-18 The flux of Asian immigration over the last 35 years has deeply altered the United States religious landscape But neither social scientists nor religious scholars have fully appreciated the impact of these growing communities And Asian immigrant religious communities are significant to the study of American religion not only because there are more than ten million Asian Americans Asian American religions differ substantially from models drawn from European religions pushing for new wider understandings Religions in Asian America provides a comprehensive overview of the religious practices of Chinese Filipino Indian Korean Japanese Vietnamese Cambodian and Laotian Americans How these new communities work through issues of gender race transnationalism income disparities and social service and the passing along an ethnic identity to the next generation make up the common themes that reach across essays about the varying communities The first sociological overview of Asian American religions Religions in Asian America is necessary reading for those interested in Asians ethnicity immigration or religion in the United States

Crossing the Ethnic Divide Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2007-02-22 While religious communities often stress the universal nature of their beliefs it remains true that people choose to worship alongside those they identify with most easily Multiethnic churches are rare in the United States but as American attitudes toward diversity change so too does the appeal of a church that offers diversity Joining such a community however is uncomfortable worshippers must literally cross the barriers of ethnic difference by entering the religious space of the ethnically other Through the story of one multiethnic congregation in Southern California Kathleen Garces Foley examines what it means to confront the challenges in forming a religious community across ethnic divisions and attracting a more varied membership Faithful Generations Russell Jeung, 2005 With rich description and insightful interviews Russell Jeung uncovers why and how Chinese and Japanese American Christians are building new pan Asian organizations Detailed surveys of over fifty Chinese and Japanese American congregations in the San Francisco Bay area show how symbolic racial identities structure Asian American congregations Evangelical ministers differ from mainline Christian ministers in their construction of Asian American identity Mobilizing around these distinct identities evangelicals and mainline Christians have developed unique pan Asian styles of worship ministries and church activities Portraits of two churches further illustrate how symbolic racial identities affect congregational life and ministries The book concludes with a look at Asian American led multiethnic churches A Faith Of Our Own Sharon Kim, 2010-03-31 Second generation Korean Americans demonstrating an unparalleled entrepreneurial fervor are establishing new churches with a goal of shaping the future of American Christianity A Faith of Our Own investigates the development and growth of these houses of worship a recent and rapidly increasing phenomenon in major cities throughout the United States Immigration historians have depicted the second generation as a transitional generation on the steady march toward the inevitable decline of ethnic identity and allegiance Sharon Kim suggests an alternative path By harnessing religion and innovatively creating hybrid religious institutions second generation Korean Americans are assertively defining and shaping their own ethnic and religious futures Rather than assimilating into mainstream American evangelical churches or inheriting the churches of their immigrant parents second generation pastors are creating their own hybrid third space new autonomous churches that are shaped by multiple frames of reference Including data gathered over ten years at twenty two churches A Faith of Our Own is the most comprehensive study of this topic that addresses generational identity political racial and empowerment issues      Religion and Spirituality in Korean America David K. Yoo,Ruth H. Chung,2022-08-15 Religion and Spirituality in Korean America examines the ambivalent identities of predominantly Protestant Korean Americans in Judeo Christian American culture Focusing largely on the migration of Koreans to the United States since 1965 this interdisciplinary collection investigates campus faith groups and adoptees The authors probe factors such as race the concept of diaspora and the ways the improvised creation of sacred spaces shape Korean American religious identity and experience In calling attention to important trends in Korean American spirituality the essays highlight a high rate of religious involvement in urban places and participation in a transnational religious community Contributors Ruth H Chung Jae Ran Kim Jung Ha Kim Rebecca Kim Sharon Kim Okyun Kwon Sang Hyun Lee Anselm Kyongsuk Min Sharon A Suh Sung Hyun Um and David K Yoo      Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim,Daniel L. Wong,2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive questions for contextualizing one s own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach      United by Faith Curtiss Paul DeYoung,Michael O. Emerson,George A. Yancey,2004 Presents an argument for multiracial Christian congregations in breaking down racial barriers in the United States      Secure in God's Embrace Ken Uyeda Fong,2003-01-01 In this winsome conversational book pastor and speaker Ken Fong focuses on the biblical theme of adoption to explore the boundless extravagant love of God      Pastoral Leadership Won Sang Lee,2015-01-14 In ascending to heaven Jesus Christ gave the church the Great Commission to expand the gospel to all nations Despite this biblical commission it is still an unfinished task As leaders of local churches pastors play a crucial part in this endeavor Pastoral leadership principles have varied widely throughout history yet it is interesting to discover the similarities between pastoral leadership principles practiced by John Chrysostom AD 347 407 in Antioch and Constantinople and Won Sang Lee 1937 in Washington DC Despite ministering 1600 years apart both pastors share the same core values care for people Christ like character biblical preaching and world missions This suggests that continued emphasis on these principles will play a significant role in fulfilling the Great Commission independent of time and place      Global Mission Rose Dowsett,2011-06-27 Reflections and Case Studies in Contextualization for the Whole Church Global Mission is divided into two sections the first Reflections and Foundations comprises nine essays of a more general nature the second

Contextualization at Work contains twenty one essays of a more specific nature most of them case studies from a particular location and people group The thirty three contributors come from five continents and a host of contexts Some are veterans some quite young but every one of them is passionate about God s mission and about building bridges for the gospel in a way that is absolutely faithful to Scripture but also sensitive to specific contexts North and South East and West demonstrate precious unity in Christ in our common calling Contextualization is complex and none of the authors claim to have got everything right But their essays are thoughtful and written out of love for God and love for his world They tell the stories of trial and error of struggles and triumphs as each seeks to present Christ in terms that make sense and can be understood It is following the process quite as much as specific conclusions which make this book valuable and transferable to many other parts of the global church The essays also give us a peep into many different societies and the birthing of faith in the grace of the Holy Spirit Thus we give thanks to God for all that he is wonderfully doing around his world and stimulate our prayers for those who work cross culturally especially in pioneer situations Not all contributors agree on every point especially when it comes to the difficulties of mission in the Muslim world and increasingly amongst Hindus There has been no attempt to standardize different approaches letting a robust conversation develop Each chapter ends with some suggested study questions useful for personal reflection or group or class discussion The book is deliberately accessible to lay people but stimulating to career missionaries and academics

Double Particularity Daniel D. Lee, 2017-05-01 Double Particularity is a constructive proposal for theological methodology addressing the Asian American context using the theology of Karl Barth It focuses primarily on employing Barth s theology to develop a methodology for engaging the Asian American context This methodological focus means that it is an integrative and synthetic work bringing seemingly disparate thoughts and concepts together Here the Asian American context serves as an important case study With the center of worldwide Christianity moving to the global South and even as American Christianity becomes more reflective of immigrant populations the theological need for a deeper engagement with context is more urgent than ever Karl Barth particularly his thought on election Christology and reconciliation offers much wisdom and insight for the churches of the majority world and for these ethnic churches even though he is often seen as just a figure in the Western historical tradition Hence this study is a contribution to the development of a connection between Barth and contextual theology to the stimulation and enrichment of both

Winning the Race to Unity Clarence Shuler, 2003-04-01 It s been said that the most segregated time of the week is Sunday morning The church experiences the same racial tensions as the rest of society and this certainly does not bring glory to God In Winning the Race to Unity Clarence Shuler directly confronts this racial divide and challenges the church to face these problems and tackle them head on Come along on this necessary journey and prepare to grow and be changed

The Social Life of Scriptures James Bielo, 2009-08-26 What do Christians do with the Bible How do they individually and collectively interact with the sacred texts Why does this engagement shift so drastically among and between social historical religious and institutional contexts Such questions are addressed in a most enlightening engaging and original way in The Social Life of Scriptures Contributors offer a collection of closely analyzed and carefully conducted ethnographic and historical case studies covering a range of geographic theological and cultural territory including American evangelicals and charismatics Jamaican Rastafarians evangelical and Catholic Mayans Northern Irish charismatics Nigerian Anglicans and Chinese evangelicals in the United States The Social Life of Scriptures is the first book to present an eclectic cross cultural and comparative investigation of Bible use Moreover it models an important movement to outline a framework for how scriptures are implicated in organizing social structures and meanings with specific foci on gender ethnicity agency and power
