Factors impacting African women's doctoral success Lifutso Tsephe,2023-12-20 With the knowledge economy playing such a critical role in global economic development increasing the number of Doctor of Philosophy degree PhD graduates in higher education institutions worldwide has been imperative The knowledge economy emphasises the importance of critical thinkers and researchers as doctoral education cultivates thinkers and researchers and equips them to participate in development African identifying females account for 30% of doctoral graduates in sub Saharan African countries even when PhD education is viewed as an entry into academia and a gateway to careers in research and other disciplines There is a paucity of research regarding PhD graduates who are specifically women in Africa as a result there is little information about their attributes to success in PhD studies what opportunities and freedoms they have and what challenges they face during their PhD journey along with their motivation to overcome these challenges so that they can achieve their goals It is essential for women in Africa to complete their PhD education to contribute to the development of their countries as some scholars believe no nation can grow without women s participation Thus modern civilisation is the result of males and females cooperating in modern society Even though some women complete their PhD studies there is scant research on what strategies enabled their success Instead the reasons for their attrition are known This book aims to contribute to PhD education scholarship specifically for women in Africa It allows women in Africa to narrate their PhD experiences through resilience theory and the capabilities approach lenses Helping Children Pursue Their Hopes and Dreams Margot Sunderland,2017-05-08 This is a guidebook to help children who have been given too little encouragement to follow their hopes and dreams are too despondent or defeated to go after their hopes or their dreams are too busy surviving so hopes and dreams are a luxury they cannot afford think that hopes and dreams are just for other people do not follow their dreams because they are too afraid of failing are following somebody else s star and only dream small dreams for themselves from a fear of being big
