Pilgrimage as Moral and Aesthetic Formation in Augustine's Thought Sarah Stewart-Kroeker, 2017-07-26 Augustine's dominant image for the human life is peregrinatio which signifies at once a journey to the homeland a pilgrimage and the condition of exile from the homeland For Augustine all human beings are in the earthly life exiles from their true homeland heaven Some but not all become pilgrims seeking a way back to the heavenly homeland a return mediated by the incarnate Christ Becoming a pilgrim begins with attraction to beauty The return journey therefore involves formation both moral and aesthetic in loving rightly This image has occasioned a lot of angst in ethical thought in the last century Augustine's vision of Christian life as a pilgrimage his critics allege casts a pall of gloom and longing over this life in favor of happiness in the next Augustine's eschatological orientation robs the world of beauty and ethics of urgency In Pilgrimage as Moral and Aesthetic Formation in Augustine's Thought Sarah Stewart Kroeker responds to Augustine's critics by elaborating the Christological continuity between the earthly journey and the eschatological home Through this cohesive account of pilgrimage as a journey toward the right ordering of the desire for beauty and love for God and neighbour Stewart Kroeker reveals the integrity of Augustine's vision of moral and aesthetic vision From the human desire for beauty to the embodied practice of Christian sacraments Stewart Kroeker develops an account of the relationship between beauty and morality as the linchpin of an Augustinian moral theology

Search for the Holy Grail Marija Petrovic, 2014-10-30 Dear Reader It has been fun cathartic heart wrenching inspiring and powerful to write this travel novel after a month long trip to France Germany and Serbia Initially it started out by writing down my research about Mary Magdalene the Holy Grail and the mystic sites but then I also looked for new jobs in Germany and prepared for my final trip to Serbia where I longed to connect with a man whom I admired from far Essentially this book represents the results of my soul journey which reached the end of a cycle in 2012 when realized I am at crossroads in my life where I was in the situation to make a decision where to live Germany or the United States of America This was part of external reality but psychologically I found the pressing need to make some internal changes in my very personal relationships This is book is as much about the holy grail the legend of Mary Magdalene as much as it is about my own story

Non-euclidean Geometry Voldemar Smilga,2018-11-22 This is a popular book that chronicles the historical attempts to prove the fifth postulate of Euclid on parallel lines that led eventually to the creation of non Euclidean geometry To absorb the mathematical content of the book the reader should be familiar with the foundations of Euclidean geometry at the high school level But besides the mathematics the book is also devoted to stories about the people brilliant mathematicians starting from Pythagoras and Euclid and terminating with Gauss Lobachevsky and Klein For two thousand years mathematicians tried to prove the fifth postulate whose formulation seemed to them too complicated to be a real postulate and not a theorem hence the title In the Search for Beauty But in the 19th century they realized that such proof was impossible and this led to a revolution in mathematics and then in physics The two final chapters are devoted to Einstein and his general relativity which revealed to us that the geometry of the world we live in is not Euclidean Also included is an historical essay on Omar Khayyam who was not only a poet but also a brilliant astronomer and mathematician Delver
