Gottfried,2023-01-04 The Maps of Spotsylvania through Cold Harbor continues Bradley M Gottfried s efforts to study and illustrate the major campaigns of the Civil War s Eastern Theater This is the ninth book in the ongoing Savas Beatie Military Atlas Series After three years of bloody combat in Virginia President Abraham Lincoln promoted Ulysses S Grant to general in chief in early 1864 Grant immediately went to work planning a comprehensive strategy to bring an end to the war He hungered to remain with the Western armies but realized his place was in Washington Unwilling to be stuck in an office Grant joined George Meade s Army of the Potomac His presence complicated Meade s ability to direct his army but Grant promised to stay out of his way and give only strategic directives This arrangement lasted through the Wilderness Campaign the first action in what is now referred to as the Overland Campaign This book continues the actions of both armies through the completion of the Overland Campaign After the

Wilderness fighting the Army of the Potomac attempted to swing around the right flank of Gen Robert E Lee s Army of Northern Virginia and shoot straight for Richmond The Confederate capital was never the goal the move was intended to force Lee out into the open where the larger and well stocked Union army could destroy it The head of Lee s army blunted the enemy at Spotsylvania Court House where both sides dug in Days and men were wasted on fruitless attacks until Col Emory Upton designed an audacious strike that temporarily penetrated Lee s works A much larger offensive against the Mule Shoe two days later tore the line open destroyed a Rebel division and triggered a long day of fighting More fighting convinced Grant of the folly of further attempts to crush Lee at Spotsylvania and again he swung around the Rebel right flank The march ignited almost continuous fighting at the North Anna Bethesda Church and Cold Harbor where this volume ends This study includes the various cavalry actions including those at Spotsylvania Court House Yellow Tavern Haw s Tavern and Matadequin Creek The Maps of Spotsylvania through Cold Harbor breaks down the entire operation into thirty five map sets or action sections enriched with 134 detailed full page color maps These cartographic originals bore down to the regimental and battery level and include the march to and from the battlefields and virtually every significant event in between At least two and as many as ten maps accompany each map set Keyed to each piece of cartography is a full facing page of detailed footnoted text describing the units personalities movements and combat including quotes from eyewitnesses depicted on the accompanying map all of which make the Spotsylvania story come alive This unique presentation allows readers to easily and quickly find a map and text on any portion of the campaign from the march to Spotsylvania to Cold Harbor Serious students will appreciate the extensive and authoritative endnotes and complete order of battle Everyone will want to take the book along on trips to these battlefields Perfect for the easy chair or for stomping the hallowed ground The Maps of Spotsylvania through Cold Harbor is a seminal work that belongs on the bookshelf of every serious student of the battle Mech ,1970

Competitive Advantage on the Shop Floor William Lazonick,1990 William Lazonick explores how technological change has interacted with the organization of work with major consequences for national competitiveness and industrial leadership Looking at Britain the United States and Japan from the nineteenth century to the present he explains changes in their status as industrial superpowers Lazonick stresses the importance for industrial leadership of cooperative relations between employers and shop floor workers Such relations permit employers to use new technologies to their maximum potential which in turn transforms the high fixed costs inherent in these technologies into low unit costs and large market shares Cooperative relations can also lead employers to invest in the skills of workers themselves skills that enable shop floor workers to influence quality as well as quantity of production To build cooperative shop floor relations successful employers have been willing to pay workers higher wages than they could have secured elsewhere in the economy They have also been willing to offer workers long term employment security These policies Lazonick argues have not come at the expense of profits but rather have been a precondition for making profits Focusing particularly on the role of labor management relations in fostering flexible mass production in Japan since the 1950s Lazonick criticizes those economists and politicians who in the face of the Japanese challenge would rely on free markets alone to restore the international competitiveness of industry in Britain and the United States Julian Albertine Dolores Beacham,2009-07 Climbing Self
