classroom By changing the structure of the day Cathy found she was better able to adjust the support she was providing students allowing time for whole class focus lessons conferences and opportunities to share ideas as well as reading from self selected texts using the strategies skills and understandings acquired in reader s workshop The focus lesson is the centerpiece of the workshop It is often tied to a read aloud and connected to learning from the previous day helping to build skills extend thinking and develop independence over time This thoroughly practical text offers numerous sample lessons questions for conferences and ideas for revamping guided reading groups It will help teachers tweak the mix of instructional components in their reading workshops and provoke school wide conversations about the place of guided reading in a complete literacy curriculum
