A 30-day devotional on one of God's powerful promises

"He who promised is faithful"

Hebrews 10:23 NKJV

GOD'S TREASURE

Now we have this treasure in clay jars, so that this extraordinary power may be from God and not from us.

— 2 Corinthians 4:7 csa

A Transforming Treasure

A rich, young man asked Jesus, "What must I do to have eternal life?" Jesus responded, "Sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me." (Matthew 19: 16, 21).

This man's wealth was his identity. The treasure found in Jesus would have surpassed any earthly riches, but the Gospel light, described in 2 Corinthians 4:6 as "light of knowledge of the God's glory in the face of Jesus Christ," had not penetrated the darkness of his heart. The man walked away sad. The reality is, this light must illuminate the darkness into which we are all born before any of us can choose to follow Jesus. Thankfully, the Creator of the first light continues to bring light into our hearts.

And the Maker of the first man continues to create seemingly unfit treasure-keepers. Miraculously, He calls these treasure-keepers His children. Clay in the hands of the Master Potter. Fragile, unlikely holders of the greatest treasure, namely, Gospel light.

It's believed by some scholars that the rich, young man may have been Saul of Tarsus who would later be radically transformed and known as the Apostle Paul. And that transformation began when he encountered a blinding, darkness-illuminating light. Does it seem strange for God to use such an unlikely man? Almost as strange as storing a valuable treasure in clay jars. As we begin our study, we will discover that God's ways are very different than ours. Together we will marvel at Gospel paradoxes, God's power, and the treasure that is forever ours in Jesus.
