The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Archaeology Bethany Walker,Timothy Insoll,Corisande Fenwick,2020-10-06 Born from the fields of Islamic art and architectural history the archaeological study of the Islamic societies is a relatively young discipline With its roots in the colonial periods of the late 19th and early 20th centuries its rapid development since the 1980s warrants a reevaluation of where the field stands today This Handbook represents for the first time a survey of Islamic archaeology on a global scale describing its disciplinary development and offering candid critiques of the state of the field today in the Central Islamic Lands the Islamic West Sub Saharan Africa and Asia The international contributors to the volume address such themes as the timing and process of Islamization the problems of periodization and regionalism in material culture cities and countryside cultural hybridity cultural and religious diversity natural resource management international trade in the later historical periods and migration Critical assessments of the ways in which archaeologists today engage with Islamic cultural heritage and local communities closes the volume highlighting the ethical issues related to studying living cultures and religions Richly illustrated with extensive citations it is the reference work on the debates that drive the field today      The Emergence of Arabic Poetry Nathaniel A. Miller,2024-08-13 A new literary history of Arabic poetry from 500 750 CE that includes hundreds of lines of poetry never before translated into English To interpret the Quran s Arabic early medieval Muslims turned to pre Islamic poetry a corpus that the Prophet Muhammad's cousin called the archive of the Arabs While this principle seems straightforward pre Islamic Arabs did not in fact think of themselves as either pre Islamic or Arab The term Arab barely appears at all in pre Islamic poetry The Emergence of Arabic Poetry reexamines this early poetry to reconstruct what pre Islamic culture actually entailed Nathaniel A Miller draws on a wide range of texts including hundreds of lines of poetry never before translated into English in addition to new inscriptional archaeological and non Arabic sources to explore the diverse world of pre and early Islamic Arabia in which Islam developed Miller traces the emergence of two regional identities and their distinctive poetic traditions in the Arabian Peninsula of late antiquity Najdi in the center and northeast and Hijazi in the southwest The book shows how later efforts of Muslim scholars to use early poetry as an aesthetic linguistic ideal to interpret the Quran resulted in an image of a unitary exceptional and isolated Arab identity and culture These scholars drew on the Najdi tradition canonizing its forms as classical Arabic poetry par excellence and solidifying many tropes of Arabness that are still ubiquitous today of nomadism performative generosity and martial equestrianism However Miller argues it was the neglected Hijazi tradition that was actually more central to the emergence of early Islam Early Arabic poetry has been largely overlooked in current scholarship in adjacent fields largely due to twentieth century controversies over whether this corpus is legitimate or was forged In combining a reconstruction of pre Islamic poetry's social function with a consideration of the circumstances of its later canonization The Emergence of Arabic Poetry offers an urgently needed reappraisal of a significant but underexamined poetic corpus as well as a new literary history of the origins of Arabic poetry from 500 to 750 CE      Wahhabism and the Rise of the House of Saud Dr. Tarik K.

Firro, 2018-07-12 This book examines the role of Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahhab 1703 1792 and his successors in reconsolidating the religious principles of Wahhabism It explains the role of the Saudi princes in crystallizing the core of the Saudi Wahhabi political entity within their tribal society Key to this explanation is the interrelation between sedentary and nomadic populations and the consequent impact on the development of Saudi political entities prior to the emergence of the Saudi Kingdom Texts of Wahhabi scholars are compared with those of the early Hanbali scholars pinpointing the new religious elements introduced to foster the Wahhabi creed Discussion focuses on the first and second generations of Wahhabi scholars who maintained the Wahhabi creed with great success keeping its hegemony as the main doctrine in Saudi Arabia and developing a takfiri discourse accusing people of being infidels which by the nineteenth century had become the main religious and political weapon by which the Wahhabis mobilized supporters against their political and religious adversaries To better understand this development the meaning of kufr heresy in Islam and its implications in various Islamic doctrines is examined closely The focus on the role of Wahhabi scholars in the nineteenth century sheds new lights on the principles of continuity and discontinuity in the historical development of Saudi political entities and explains the origin of the modern Saudi State Although major socio economic and cultural change is now taking place under the leadership of Prince

Muhammad ibn Salman the main religious structures of the state remain firmly in place It remains to be seen how two diametric societal viewpoints will integrate or clash This work is essential reading for all scholars and students of religious cultural social and political history of Saudi Arabia and Islam in the Middle East Judaism, Christianity, and Islam in the Course of History: Exchange and Conflicts Lothar Gall, Dietmar Willoweit, 2016-07-11 Das Verhältnis zwischen Judentum Christentum und Islam unterlag im Laufe der Geschichte vielfältigen Veränderungen Welche Konflikte gab es welche Phasen und Formen von Austausch und Kooperation standen dem gegenüber Der Band ist das Ergebnis einer Tagung aus dem Jahr 2009 Wissenschaftler aus sechs Ländern präsentieren nun die Ergebnisse Die Sektionen behandeln die Gegenseitige Wahrnehmung vor dem 1. The Great Islamic Conquests AD 632-750 David Nicolle, 2014-06-06 Few centuries in world history have had such a profound and long lasting impact as the first hundred years of Islamic history In this book David Nicolle examines the extensive Islamic conquests between AD 632 and 750 These years saw the religion and culture of Islam erupt from the Arabian Peninsula and spread across an area far larger than that of the Roman Empire The effects of this rapid expansion were to shape European affairs for centuries to come This book examines the social and military history of the period describing how and why the Islamic expansion was so successful

Arab Cities in the Ottoman Period André Raymond, 2024-09-13 Professor Raymond deals here with the evolution of the great Arab cities of the Ottoman period 1516 1800 with questions of organisation social life and the built space looking in particular at Aleppo Algiers Constantine and above all at Cairo These studies form part of a movement in which the author s work has played a significant role aiming to re examine the traditional Orientalist view of Muslim cities Contrary to the negative perception one so often finds of decadent and chaotic towns it can be seen that they had a coherent internal structure and that far from being in decline they enjoyed renewed prosperity in the Ottoman era benefiting from the strength of the empire and flourishing Mediterranean trade This in turn was reflected in the important and original architectural activity of the period

A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture Finbarr Barry Flood, Gulru Necipoglu, 2017-06-16 The two volume Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture bridges the gap between monograph and survey text by providing a new level of access and interpretation to Islamic art The more than 50 newly commissioned essays revisit canonical topics and include original approaches and scholarship on neglected aspects of the field This two volume Companion showcases more than 50 specially commissioned essays and an introduction that survey Islamic art and architecture in all its traditional grandeur Essays are organized according to a new chronological geographical paradigm that remaps the unprecedented expansion of the field and reflects the nuances of major artistic and political developments during the 1400 year span The Companion represents recent developments in the field and encourages future horizons by commissioning innovative essays that provide fresh perspectives on canonical subjects such as early Islamic art sacred spaces palaces urbanism ornament arts of the book and the portable arts while introducing others that have been previously neglected including unexplored geographies and periods transregional connectivities talismans and magic consumption and networks of portability museums and collecting and contemporary art worlds the essays entail strong comparative and historiographic dimensions The volumes are accompanied by a map and each subsection is preceded by a brief outline of the main cultural and historical developments during the period in question The volumes include periods and regions typically excluded from survey books including modern and contemporary art architecture China Indonesia Sub Saharan Africa Sicily the New World Americas History of Humanity UNESCO,1996-12-31 The second volume covers the first two and a half thousand years of recorded history from the start of the Bronze Age 5 000 years ago to the beginnings of the Iron Age Written by a team of over sixty specialists this volume includes a comprehensive bibliography and a detailed index Crossroads to Islam Yehuda D. Nevo,Judith Koren,2003-06 In this controversial exploration of the early history of Islam archaeologist Yehuda D Nevo and researcher Judith Koren present a revolutionary theory of the origins and development of the Islamic state and religion Whereas most works on this subject derive their view of the history of this period from the Muslim literature Crossroads to Islam also examines important types of evidence hitherto neglected the literature of the local Christian population archaeological excavations numismatics and especially rock inscriptions These analyses lay the foundation for a radical view of the development of Islam According to Nevo and Koren the evidence suggests that the Arabs were in fact pagan when they assumed power in the regions formerly ruled by the Byzantine Empire They contend that the Arabs took control almost without a struggle because Byzantium had effectively withdrawn from the area long before After establishing control the new Arab elite adopted a simple monotheism influenced by Judaeo Christianity which they encountered in their newly acquired territories and gradually developed it into the Arab religion Not until the mid 8th century was this process completed This interpretation of the evidence corroborates the view of other scholars who on different grounds propose that Islam and the canonized version of the Koran were preceded by a long period of development This new view turns on its head the traditional history of the rise of Islam which claims that Islam began with Muhammad in Mecca and Medina around 622 then spread throughout Arabia under his charismatic leadership and finally after Muhammad s death 632 inspired his followers to conquer widespread territories both in the East and West By contrast Nevo and Koren suggest that the rise of the Arab state created a need for a state religion eventually called Islam This absorbing and controversial rethinking of Islam s early history is must reading for students and scholars of Islamic history and anyone interested in the origins of the world s second largest religion Saudi Arabia Frank Clements,1988 Arabic Theology, Arabic Philosophy Richard M. Frank,2006 In the course of his career Professor Richard M Frank of the Catholic University of America produced a hugely significant corpus of works on the intellectual activity in Classical Islam known as Kalam which he argued should be rendered as speculative theology He also wrote on the Qur an on the Arabic and Syriac philosophical tradition and argued vigorously for a new reading of the famous religious scholar and theologian al Ghazali d 1111 as a devotee of the cosmology of Ibn Sina d 1037 In this volume fourteen scholars many of them contemporaries of Professor Frank engage with his legacy with important and seminal works which take some of his ideas as their points of departure The book is divided into six sections the Qur an Paths to al Ash ari Al Ash ari and the Kalam Christian Falsafa Avicenna and Beyond and Al Ghazali on Causality There are major articles on Qur anic emendations and Arabia and Late Antiquity on the Arabic Plotinian Tradition on Syriac Philosophical Vocabulary and an important reading of the Greek Arabic translation movement in terms of the practical and exact sciences There are seminal studies of atomism with valuable translations of complex theological passages previously untranslated of the Christian philosophy of Yahya ibn Adi of a late Mu tazili argument for the existence of God and a hitherto unedited section on optics by Ibn Mattawayh These are complemented by important close readings of Avicenna s epistemology and his Metaphysics together with a major new survey of the Avicennan tradition in the madrasas of the Islamic East The volume ends with two discussions of the perennial question of al Ghazali s theory of causality In addition the volume contains an autobiographical piece by Professor Frank and a complete bibliography of his published works
