The Sayings Source Q and the Historical Jesus Andreas Lindemann, 2001 Papers presented at the 49th Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense held at the Faculty of Theology of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven 25-27 July 2000      Studies in Matthew's Gospel W.J.C. Weren, 2014-08-28 These Studies in Matthew's Gospel by Wim J.C. Weren are the result of scholarly work carried out using recent methods in Biblical exegesis such as structural analysis, text semantics and intertextuality. Part One presents a new proposal regarding the macrostructure of Matthew's Gospel and discusses meanings of textual units from this Gospel on the basis of synchronic research. In Part Two, intertextual theories are described and practical tools are developed that enable us to identify various types of relations between texts from Matthew's Gospel and co-generic or co-thematic textual units from the Hebrew Bible, the Septuagint and early Jewish and early Christian writings. Part Three answers the question to what extent the ways in which the disciples are portrayed in Matthew is related to real groups in the Matthean communities. The three successive steps are deliberately chosen and are in a complementary relationship to each other.

Flora Tells a Story Michael Kaler, 2008-11-05 In early Christianity many people were inspired to write gospels, treatises, letters and stories celebrating the new faith, but not all of these writings are found in the New Testament. One such story from an unknown author is the Coptic gnostic Apocalypse of Paul, a tale of the apostle Paul's ascent to the heavens that was lost for millennia and rediscovered at Nag Hammadi in 1945. In Flora Tells a Story, Michael Kaler discusses the Apocalypse of Paul and how it was shaped by its literary environment. The book takes a behind-the-scenes look at early Christian literary production, analyzing the ways in which various literary traditions such as apocalyptic writings, gnostic thought and understandings of Paul influenced the author of the Apocalypse of Paul and helped to shape the text. It also includes a new annotated English translation of the Apocalypse of Paul and a fictional account of how it might have come to be written. This work is the most in-depth study of the Apocalypse of Paul to date and the only full-length discussion of it in English. It provides a detailed but accessible account of the literary environment in which its author worked and integrates this little-known work into the broader stream of early Christian writings. This book will be of interest to specialists in Nag Hammadi and gnostic studies and early Christian literature but will also appeal to the general reader interested in Christianity, mysticism and gnosticism.

An Introduction to the New Testament M. Eugene Boring, 2012-10-13 This thoroughly researched textbook from well-respected scholar M. Eugene Boring presents a user-friendly introduction to the New Testament books. Boring approaches the New Testament as a historical document, one that requires using a hands-on critical method. Moreover, he asserts that the New Testament is the church's book in that it was written, selected, preserved and transmitted by the church. Boring goes on to explore the historical foundation and formation of the New Testament within the context of pre-Christian Judaism and the world of Jesus and the early church. He then examines the individual books of the New Testament providing helpful background information and methods for interpretation and revealing the narrative substructure found within each of the Gospels and Letters This volume includes helpful illustrations charts notes and suggestions for further reading Sections are laid out in a well organized manner to help students navigate the content more easily

Pietro Bembo on Etna Gareth D. Williams, 2017-07-03 This book is centered on the Venetian humanist Pietro Bembo 1470-1547 on his two year stay in Sicily in 1492-4 to study the ancient Greek language under one of its most distinguished contemporary teachers the Byzantine migrant Constantine Lascaris and above all on his ascent of Mount Etna in 1493 The more particular focus of this study is on the imaginative capacities that crucially shape Bembo's elegantly crafted account in Latin of his Etna adventure in his so called De Aetna published at the Aldine press in Venice in 1496 This work is cast in the form of a dialogue that takes place between the young Bembo and his father Bernardo himself a prominent Venetian statesman with strong humanist involvements after Pietro's return to Venice from Sicily in 1494 But De Aetna offers much more than a one dimensional account of the facts sights and findings of Pietro's climb Far more important in the present study is his eye for creative elaboration or for transforming his literal experience on the mountain into a meditation on his coming of age at a remove from the conventional career path expected of one of his station within the Venetian patriciate Three mutually informing features that are critical to the artistic originality of De Aetna receive detailed treatment in this study i the stimulus that Pietro drew from the complex history of Mount Etna as treated in the Greco-Roman literary tradition from Pindar onwards ii the striking novelty of De Aetna's status as the first Latin text produced at the nascent Aldine press in the prototype of what modern typography knows as Bembo typeface and iii Pietro's ingenious deployment of Etna as a powerful multivalent symbol that simultaneously reflects the diverse characterizations of and the generational differences between father and son in the course of their dialogical

Bird, 2014-08-22 In this book through a distinctive evangelical and critical approach Michael Bird explores the historical development of the four canonical Gospels He shows how the memories and faith of the earliest believers formed the Gospel accounts of Jesus that got written and in turn how these accounts further shaped the early church Bird s study clarifies the often confusing debates over the origins of the canonical Gospels Bird navigates recent concerns and research as he builds an informed case for how the early Christ followers wrote and spread the story of Jesus the story by which they believed they were called to live The Gospel of the Lord is ideal for students or anyone who wants to know the story behind the four Gospels Watch an interview with Michael Bird from our Eerdmans Author Interview Series      The Studia Philonica Annual XXVII, 2015 David T. The Testing of Jesus in Q C. Michael Robbins, 2007 The temptations of Jesus cast a spell on readers young and old These temptations are macabre yet triumphant short yet endless ominous and dismal yet sacred and hopeful Scholars have long been obsessed with the attempted seduction of the Saint and the successful sanitation of the Seducer Where else but from Q could such an enchanting narrative derive This book reviews scholarship and examines tradition history to argue that the pericope is more than a wisdom derived scribal legitimization of the Teacher a popular and partially correct theory about the story's origin and function in Q It is a theological summit ascribing a unique sonship to Jesus With diabolic dialogue in such sacred sites as Zion Sinai and the desert protology and eschatology brew to form a muse on both the wilderness testing of Israel and the primeval testing of Adam The brief expedition through the cosmos from desert to empire to sanctuary demonstrates a lordship of evil in the world and thus a need for the reign of God and a context for Jesus sonship sermon prayer miracles exorcisms and even his death and resurrection The tests present an approved champion a Son of God a conflict a tryst with mortality and cosmic evil and a conquest resulting in an enthronement These narratives not supplied by Matthew and Luke are found only in Q

Rethinking the Gospel Sources Delbert Royce Burkett, 2009 Burkett offers a new viewpoint on the much debated Synoptic Problem He contends that each theory regarding the Synoptic Problem is problematic Each presents a case for the mutual dependence of one source upon another for example Matthew and Luke depend primarily on Mark but use each other where they report the same story not contained already in Mark Neither Mark nor Matthew nor Luke served as the source for the other two but all depended on a set of earlier sources now lost The relations between the Synoptic Gospels are more complex than the simpler theories have assumed
