The Cumulative Book Index ,1996 A world list of books in the English language Work-Life Balance: Essential or Ephemeral? Andreas Schwingshackl,Stephania A. Cormier,Kanwaljeet J. S. Anand,2017-09-28 Burn out and suicide rates among physicians and scientists in academic medicine are at an all time high and jeopardize the future of our entire profession In the last 4 years alone burn out rates among physicians have increased by 25% In a recent 2017 Medscape publication burn out rates in Critical Care physicians ranked in 9th place and Pediatricians ranked 13th among 27 subspecialties Astonishingly over 50% of the participants reported burn out symptoms with clear race and gender disparities While men generally report higher burn out rates than women it is important to emphasize that response rates from women in these surveys were notoriously low and may not represent the complete picture These numbers are even more dismal for tenured academic faculty at research extensive universities In this group emotional exhaustion i e high burn out is reported at 35% with a clear association with age and lower burn out levels in the older tenured faculty While no gender or racial ethnic differences were found in this particular group higher levels of burn out were identified in individuals with financial responsibilities beyond a spouse and child While it is comforting to note the increasing public interest and research activities in this field successful approaches to ameliorate the burden and consequences of physician burn out are still inadequately developed Academic centers increasingly offer some type of work life balance program to their employees but unfortunately these programs are frequently adopted from corporate business models and remain largely ineffective in the academic environment It should be evident to most administrators that the stressors of academic clinicians and scientists substantially differ from those of corporate employees Based on these observations and over 75 years of combined experience in academic medicine amongst the three editors of this Research Topic we collected 26 manuscripts from 22 authors at different career stages and different genders ethnicities marital status and subspecialties to identify and stratify common and specific stressors and therapeutic approaches to ameliorate burn out and achieve work life balance in academic medicine We are confident that each reader will identify with at least one if not several of the authors opinions experiences and approaches to attain greater work life balance and thereby avoid the consequences of burn out in modern academic medicine Physical Education And Health: 7th Revised And Updated Edition As Per CBSE Syllabus (Class XI) A.K Uppal, The Health and Physical Education for Class 11 comprehensive resource designed to align with the latest CBSE syllabus his edition offers an in depth exploration of topics related to physical fitness sports games yoga and health education aiming to promote physical literacy and encourage an active and healthy lifestyle among students Consultants & Consulting Organizations Directory, 1998, 1998 In The Post-Urban World Tigran Haas, Hans Westlund, 2017-10-16 Winner of the Regional Studies Association s Best Book Award 2018 In the last few decades many global cities and towns have experienced unprecedented economic social and spatial structural change Today we find ourselves at the juncture between entering a post urban and a post political world both presenting new challenges to our metropolitan regions municipalities and cities Many megacities declining regions and towns are experiencing an increase in the number of complex problems regarding internal relationships governance and external connections In particular a growing disparity exists between citizens that are socially excluded within declining physical and economic realms and those situated in thriving geographic areas This book conveys how forces of structural change shape the urban landscape In The Post Urban World is divided into three main sections Spatial Transformations and the New Geography of Cities and Regions Urbanization Knowledge Economies and Social Structuration and New Cultures in a Post Political and Post Resilient World One important subject covered in this book in addition to the spatial and economic forces that shape our regions cities and neighbourhoods is the social cultural ecological and psychological aspects which are also critically involved Additionally the urban transformation occurring throughout cities is thoroughly discussed Written by today s leading experts in urban studies this book discusses subjects from different theoretical standpoints as well as various methodological approaches and perspectives this is alongside the challenges and new solutions for cities and regions in an interconnected world of global economies This book is aimed at both academic researchers interested in regional development economic geography and urban studies as well as practitioners and policy makers in urban development Ilc 77 - Record of Proceedings , Dossey & Keegan's Holistic Nursing: A Handbook for Practice Mary A. Blaszkowski, Helming, Deborah A. Shields, Karen M. Avino, William E. Rosa, 2020-11-23 Dossey Keegan s Holistic Nursing A Handbook for Practice Eighth Edition covers basic and advanced concepts of holism demonstrating how holistic nursing spans all specialties and levels This text is distinguished by its emphasis on theory research and evidence based practice essential to holistic nursing Encyclopedia of Immigrant Health Sana Loue, Martha Sajatovic, 2014-06-20

There is increasing interest in the scientific literature on immigrant health and its impact on disease transmission disease prevention health promotion well being on an individual and population level health policy and the cost of managing all these issues on an individual institutional national and global level The need for accurate and up to date information is particularly acute due to the increasing numbers of immigrants and refugees worldwide as the result of natural disasters political turmoil the growing numbers of immigrants to magnet countries and the increasing costs of associated health care that are being felt by governments around the world

Format and Scope The first portion of the encyclopedia contains chapters that are approximately 25 to 40 manuscript pages in length Each overview chapter includes a list of references and suggested readings for cross referencing within the encyclopedia The opening chapters are Immigration in the Global Context Immigration Processes and Health in the U S A Brief History Alternative and Complementary Medicine Culture Specific Diagnoses Health Determinants Occupational and Environmental Health Methodological Issues in Immigrant Health Research Ethical Issues in Research with Immigrants and Refugees Ethical Issues in the Clinical Context The second portion of the book consists of alphabetical entries that relate to the health of immigrants Entries are interdisciplinary and are drawn from the following fields of study anthropology demographics history law linguistics medicine population studies psychology religion and sociology Each entry is followed by a listing of suggested readings and suggested resources and also links to related terms within the whole book

Outstanding Features The book adopts a biopsychosocial historical approach to the topics covered in the chapters and the entries Each entry includes suggested readings and suggested resources The chapters and entries are written graduate level that is accessible to all academics researchers and professionals from diverse backgrounds We consider the audience for the entries to be well educated but a non expert in this area The primary focus of the book is on the immigrant populations in and immigration to magnet countries References are made to worldwide trends and issues arising globally In addition to the comprehensive subject coverage the text also offers diverse perspectives The editors themselves reflect the multidisciplinary nature of the topics with expertise in psychiatry law epidemiology anthropology and social work Authors similarly reflect diverse disciplines

The New Pontificate Erik Borgman, Maureen Junker-Kenny, Janet Martin Soskice, 2006 Concilium has long been a household name for cutting edge critical and constructive theological thinking Past contributors include leading Catholic scholars such as Hans K ng Gregory Baum and Edward Schillebeeckx and the editors of the review belong to the international who s who in the world of contemporary theology Published five times a year each issue reflects a deep knowledge and scholarship presented in a highly readable style and each issue offers a wide variety of viewpoints from leading thinkers from all over the world
