Quantitative Approaches To Man:

Approaches to Human Geography Stuart C. Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2014-12-01 The book covers some of the traditionally most obtuse and difficult to grasp philosophical ideas that have influenced geographers geography The fact that these are presented in an inclusive and accessible manner is a key strength Many students have commented that the chapters they have read have encouraged them to read more in this field which is fantastic from a lecturer's perspective Richard White Sheffield Hallam University A new edition of the classic Approaches text for students organised in three sections which overviews and explains the history and philosophy of Human Geographies in all its applications by those who practise it Section One Philosophies Positivist Geography Humanism Feminist Geographies Marxisms Structuration Theory Human Animal Realism Postmodern Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Actor Network Theory Postcolonialism Geohumanities Technologies Section Two People Institutions and Cultures Places and Contexts Memories and Desires Understanding Place Personal and Political Becoming a Geographer Movement and Encounter Spaces and Flows Places as Thoughts Section Three Practices Mapping and Geovisualization Quantification Evidence and Positivism Geographic Information Systems Humanism Activism Feminist Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Psychoanalysis Environmental Inquiry Contested Geographies and Culture Wars Fully updated throughout and with eight brand new chapters this is the core text for modules on history theory and practice in Human Geography

Approaches to Human Geography Stuart Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2006-01-27 Approaches to Human Geography is the essential student primer on theory and practice in Human Geography It is a systematic review of the key ideas and debates informing post war geography explaining how those ideas work in practice Avoiding jargon while attentive to the rigor and complexity of the ideas that underlie geographic knowledge the text is written for students who have not met philosophical or theoretical approaches before This is a beginning guide to geographic research and practice

Men, Masculinities and Methodologies B. Pini, B. Pease, 2013-08-29 This book contributes to the growing literature on men and masculinities but does so through a methodological lens It addresses methodological approaches and challenges for feminist and pro feminist studies of men and masculinities

Human Security Studies: Theories, Methods And Themes Sorpong Peou, 2014-03-31 Human Security Studies Theories Methods and Themes examines the concept of human security from different theoretical and methodological perspectives and shows how they help shed light on the different themes of global intervention Liberal perspectives represented by global legalism and developmentalism share the optimism that human security can be ensured and enhanced through strengthening global governance Realists remain skeptical about this liberal vision While also critical of the liberal promise critical theorists and feminists offer radical perspectives on human security All these perspectives help explain the challenges of military intervention for human protection micro disarmament international criminal justice smart sanctions human rights and democracy promotion and human development

Conceptual Tools For Understanding Nature - Proceedings Of The

International Symposium Giacomo Costa, Marcello Giorgi, Giorgio Calucci, 1993-12-17 This symposium is the first scientific event organized by the Seminar for Epistemology under the auspices of the University of Trieste The aim of the symposium was to collect and open to discussion the contributions of a number of distinguished scientists from cognitive sciences and experimental nature sciences and to bring together specialists of various backgrounds The very authoritative contributions presented at the Conference represent relevant even if not exhaustive specimens of the role of new conceptual tools in science

The Myth of the Poor Man's Atomic Bomb and the Politics of Proliferation Biejan Poor Toulabi, 2021-04-07 Preventing the spread of weapons of mass destruction has been an important policy priority in the past decades This dissertation questions the prevailing view that chemical and biological weapons CBWs are a poor man's atomic bomb that are particularly attractive to developing countries that cannot acquire nuclear weapons The study shows that vague unverifiable and inflated threat assessments from US government sources have played an important role in sustaining this myth A unique dataset of CBW development programs in the period 1946-2010 demonstrates that significantly fewer countries have had CBW programs than often thought and that especially Third World countries have been incorrectly accused of pursuing or possessing CBWs

Lees' Loss Prevention in the Process Industries Frank Lees, 2005-01-10 Over the last three decades the process industries have grown very rapidly with corresponding increases in the quantities of hazardous materials in process storage or transport Plants have become larger and are often situated in or close to densely populated areas Increased hazard of loss of life or property is continually highlighted with incidents such as Flixborough Bhopal Chernobyl Three Mile Island the Phillips 66 incident and Piper Alpha to name but a few The field of Loss Prevention is and continues to be of supreme importance to countless companies municipalities and governments around the world because of the trend for processing plants to become larger and often be situated in or close to densely populated areas thus increasing the hazard of loss of life or property This book is a detailed guidebook to defending against these and many other hazards It could without exaggeration be referred to as the bible for the process industries This is THE standard reference work for chemical and process engineering safety professionals For years it has been the most complete collection of information on the theory practice design elements equipment regulations and laws covering the field of process safety An entire library of alternative books and cross referencing systems would be needed to replace or improve upon it but everything of importance to safety professionals engineers and managers can be found in this all encompassing reference instead Frank Lees world renowned work has been fully revised and expanded by a team of leading chemical and process engineers working under the guidance of one of the world's chief experts in this field Sam Mannan is professor of chemical engineering at Texas A principles practice codes standards data and references needed by those practicing in the field

Person-centred Nursing Research: Methodology, Methods and Outcomes Jan

Dewing, Brendan McCormack, Tanya McCance, 2021-04-26 This book is the first ever to offer a contemporary collection of different perspectives on person-centredness in international doctoral nursing research The research in the book is based on the ideas and values of personhood and person-centeredness which have been used and can be seen to guide research approaches inform research designs and theorize research findings Further a specific framework for person-centred nursing is embedded throughout the research studies presented in the text The Person-centred Nursing Framework PCNF developed by Brendan McCormack and Tanya McCance in 2010 is recognized as a nursing theory and this book further develops it as a basis for research and for advancing person-centredness in nursing The framework informs all stages of the research process from design through to dissemination The book is structured into a number of highly engaging chapters written by doctoral candidates and recently graduated candidates The opening and closing chapters written by the editors place the subsequent chapters in a global context of person-centredness and nursing The potential for person-centred nursing research to be a global movement is recognized and debated The subsequent chapters lead readers through philosophical ideas methodologies and methods whilst also offering reflective and honest insights into learning how to become a person-centred researcher This field is growing and developing but yet there is no specific book available As a result researchers spend considerable time and effort translating existing research methodologies into person-centred perspectives This book fills this gap and acts as a key resource for future nurse researchers The text is intended for and benefits nursing doctoral candidates masters candidates and academic staff who teach and supervise research candidates it may also appeal to other graduate learners The book has international contributions which makes it appealing internationally

Young People's

Understandings of Men's Violence Against Women Nancy Lombard, 2016-03-09 Globally nationally and locally men's violence against women is an endemic social problem and an enduring human rights issue Unlike men who are most likely to be victims of stranger assaults and violence official data shows that women are most likely to be attacked beaten raped and killed by men known to them either partners or family members Research has maintained that to challenge and prevent men's violence against women changing the attitudes and behaviour of young people is essential This ground-breaking book presents the first investigation into what younger people think about men's violence against women It does this by locating their constructions and understandings within the temporal and spatial location of childhood Through challenging the perception that young people are too young to know about violence or to offer opinions on it Nancy Lombard demonstrates the ways to talk to younger people about men s violence Through confronting preconceptions of younger people s existing knowledge capabilities and understanding she demonstrates that this is a subject which young people can confidently discuss

Men's Work and Male Lives John Goodwin, 2018-12-20 First published in 1999 this volume took part in the emerging sociological debate on gender in the workplace by studying men s work lives gender roles and psychological health through the gender lens Recent changes in the labour market not least the marked increase of women at work have been argued to have led to a crisis of masculinity and a re evaluation of men s roles This book has four main aims to establish that there is a real absence of an empirical understanding of men in British gender based sociological research to explore men s recent experiences of the British labour market to explore how masculinity and work are linked and maintained by critically examining existing accounts of gender theory and feminism and finally to provide an empirical account of men s work and male lives via an analysis of existing data The male workers were identified in the National Child Development Study 1991 and compared with male full time workers and similar groups of women in the same study Five areas of these men s lives were explored empirically characteristics of male workers in NCDS5 men s attitudes to work men and training experiences

men and household work and finally men and mental ill health The book concludes that the nature of men s work needs to be reconsidered and that the nature of gender research particularly that relating to men needs to be expanded and made more explicit The Psychology of the Human-Animal Bond Christopher Blazina,Güler Boyraz,David Shen-Miller,2011-06-22

There have been dramatic increases in the financial emotional and psychological investment in pets over the past four decades The increasing importance of animal companions in people s lives has resulted in growing emphasis on the human animal bond within academic literature This book introduces practicing and emerging professionals to vital subject matter concerning this growing specialty area by providing an essential framework and information through which to consider the unique contextual backdrop of the human animal bond Such contexts include a wide array of themes including issues of attachment and loss success and frustration with making and sustaining connections world views regarding animal ethics familial history of neglect or abuse and cultural dynamics that speak to the order of things between mankind and nature Adopting a contextual stance will aid mental health professionals in appreciating why and how this connection has become a significant part of everyday life for many As with any other important clinical dynamic training and preparation are needed to gain competence for professional practice and research To this end an ensemble of international experts across the fields of psychology and mental health explore topics that will help both new and established clinicians increase and understanding of the various ways the human animal bond manifests itself Perspectives from beyond the scope of psychology and mental health such as anthropology philosophy literature religion and history are included to provide a sampling of the significant contexts in which the human animal bond is established What brings these divergent topics together in a meaningful way is their relevance and centrality to the contextual bonds that underlie the human animal connection This text will be a valuable resource that provides opportunities to deepen one s expertise in understanding the psychology of the human animal bond

Essentials of Human Behavior Elizabeth D. Hutchison,Leanne Wood,2020-12-17 Essentials of Human Behavior combines Elizabeth D Hutchison s two best selling Dimensions of Human Behavior volumes into a single streamlined volume for understanding human behavior The text presents a multidimensional framework integrating person environment and time to show students the dynamic changing nature of person in environment In this Third Edition Hutchison is joined by new co author Leanne Wood Charlesworth who uses her practice and teaching experience to help organize the book s cutting edge research and bring it into the classroom The text will thoroughly support students understanding of human behavior theories and research and their applications to social work engagement assessment intervention and evaluation across all levels of practice This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package Human Information Interaction Raya Fidel,2025-02-04 A fresh research approach that bridges the study of human information interaction and the design of information systems Human information interaction HII is an emerging area of study that investigates how people interact with information its subfield human information behavior HIB is a flourishing active discipline Yet despite their obvious relevance to the design of information systems these research areas have had almost no impact on systems design One issue may be the contextual complexity of human interaction with information another may be the difficulty in translating real life and unstructured HII complexity into formal linear structures necessary for systems design In this book Raya Fidel proposes a research approach that bridges the study of human information interaction and the design of information systems cognitive work analysis CWA Developed by Jens Rasmussen and his colleagues CWA embraces complexity and provides a conceptual framework and analytical tools that can harness it to create design requirements CWA offers an ecological approach to design analyzing the forces in the environment that shape human interaction with information Fidel reviews research in HIB focusing on its contribution to systems design and then presents the CWA framework She shows that CWA with its ecological approach can be used to overcome design challenges and lead to the development of effective systems Researchers and designers who use CWA can increase the diversity of their analytical tools providing them with an alternative approach when they plan research and design projects The CWA framework enables a collaboration between design and HII that can create information systems tailored to fit human lives

Black Men, Invisibility and Crime Martin Glynn, 2013-12-04 Past studies have suggested that offenders desist from crime due to a range of factors such as familial pressures faith based interventions or financial incentives To date little has been written about the relationship between desistance and racialisation This book seeks to bring much needed attention to this under researched area of criminological inquiry Martin Glynn builds on recent empirical research in the UK and the USA and uses Critical Race Theory as a framework for developing a fresh perspective about black men s desistance This book posits that the voices and collective narrative of black men offers a unique opportunity to refine current understandings of desistance It also demonstrates how new insights can be gained by studying the ways in which elements of the desistance trajectory are racialised This book will be of interest both to criminologists and sociologists engaged with race racialisation ethnicity and criminal justice

New Approaches to Manpower Planning and Analysis International Labour Office, 1994 This study re examines the role and relevance of manpower planning and analysis in the developing countries of Africa notably Botswana and Asia in the light of the imperatives of structural adjustment programmes and explores the information needs of economies in transition in the context of a shift to market oriented policies Topics covered include methodology the role of government and the types of labour market analysis required The book contains a suggested research agenda
