The Writing of East and Central Africa G. D. Killam, 1984

The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe, 2008 Columbia s guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent s rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of

Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development

Lhasa in the Seventeenth Century

Françoise Pommaret, 2021-08-04 This is the story of the rise of Lhasa before 1642 a small town renowned for its Jokhang temple and its three large 15th century Gelukpa monasteries The political victory of the Gelukpa changed its destiny and it was the Fifth Dalai Lama who made Lhasa into the centre of the Tibetan world with an influence reaching into Mongolia and Ladakh It became a true capital with prestigious monuments and the Potala Palace as its focus and symbol Based on Tibetan and Western sources the book provides a fascinating study of the history of Lhasa against the background of the triangular relations Tibetans Mongols Manchus With ample attention for 17th century Lhasa s historical political and cultural context it offers new insights on Lhasa also in the last chapter in its contemporary Chinese framework

Christianity and the African Imagination David Maxwell, Ingrid Lawrie, 2022-08-08 During the twentieth century Christendom shifted its centre of gravity to the Southern Hemisphere Africa becoming the most significant area of church growth This volume explores Christianity's advance across the continent and its capturing of the African imagination From the medieval Catholic Kingdom of Kongo to a transnational Pentecostal movement in post colonial Zimbabwe the chapters explore how African agents priests and prophets martyrs and missionaries evangelists and catechists have seized Christianity and made it theirs Emphasizing popular religion the book shows how the Christian ideas and texts practices and symbols which have been adapted by Africans help them accept existential passions and empower them through faith to deal with material concerns for health and wealth and to overcome evil

The Posthuman Pandemic Saul Newman, Tihomir Topuzovski, 2021-12-30 With the COVID 19 crisis forcing us to reflect in a dramatic way on the limits of the human and the implications of the Anthropocene Age this timely volume addresses these concerns through an exploration of post humanism as represented in philosophy politics and aesthetics Global pandemics bring into sharp focus the bankruptcy of the neoliberal economic paradigm the future of the arts sector in society and our dependence upon political forces outside our control In response to the recent state of emergency The Posthuman Pandemic highlights the urgent need to rethink our anthropocentrism and develop new political models aesthetic practices and ways of living Central to these discussions is the idea of post humanism a philosophy that can help us grapple with the crisis as it takes seriously the unstable ecosystems on which we depend and the precarious nature of our long cherished notions of agency and sovereignty Bringing together international philosophers political theorists and media and art theorists all of whom engage with the posthuman this volume explores a range of vital subjects from the inequality revealed by COVID 19 survival rates to museums role in spreading human centric understandings of a world struck by human fragility Facing up to the realities that the coronavirus outbreak has uncovered The Posthuman Pandemic combines both breadth and depth of analysis to take on the posthuman challenges confronting us today

Borders and Mobility Control in and between Empires and Nation-States ,2022-10-24 In a modernist interpretation of migration controls nation states play a major role This book challenges this interpretation by showing that comprehensive migration checks and permanent border controls appeared much earlier in early modern dynastic states and empires and predated nation states by centuries The 11 contributions in this volume explore the role of early modern and modern dynastic kingdoms and empires in Europe the Middle East and Eurasia and the evolution of border controls from the 16th to the 20th century They analyse how these states interacted with other polities such as emerging nations states in Europe North America and Australia and what this means for a broader reconceptualization of mobility in Europe and beyond in the longue dur e Contributors are Tobias Brinkmann Vincent Denis Sinan Din er Josef Ehmer Irial A Glynn Sabine Jesner Olga Katsiardi Hering Leo Lucassen Ikaros Mantouvalos Leslie Page Moch Jovan Pe alj Lewis H Siegelbaum Annemarie Steidl and Megan Williams

Biosecurity, Economic Collapse, the State to Come Christos Boukalas,2022-11-03 What kind of state emerges from the pandemic The pandemic caused two crises in biosecurity and in the economy The state was forced to tackle both but subduing one inevitably exacerbated the other Emerging from the impossible task of handling two conflicting crises is a new form of state the state to come To outline the emerging state this book offers an in depth critical account of the state s responses to the biosecurity and the economic crises It is thus the first study to address both crises ensuing from the pandemic and to synthesise the responses to them in a comprehensive account of political power Addressing biosecurity the book deciphers its key modalities epistemic premises its law the threat it aims to oppose and the ways in which it relates to public health and society especially its extraordinary power to suspend society Addressing the economic crisis the book deciphers the actuality and prospects of both the economy and the state s economic policy It claims that economic policy is now dual it adopts countercyclical measures to serve and entrench a neoliberal economy The responses to the twin crises inform the outline of the emerging state its structure logic and legality its power and its relation to society This is a state of extraordinary power but its only purpose is to preserve the social order intact It is a despotic state powerful and set to impose social stasis This work offers ground breaking analysis based on our pandemic experience It is indispensable for critical scholars and students in Politics Security Studies Sociology Law Political Economy and Public Health

The Word Rhythm Dictionary Timothy Polashek, 2014-04-18 The Word Rhythm Dictionary A Resource for Writers Rappers Poets and Lyricists is a new kind of dictionary one that reflects the use of rhythm rhymes by rappers poets and songwriters of today This is an eminently practical reference work for all wordsmiths looking to add musicality to their writing Users of this dictionary can alphabetically look up words in the General Index to find collections of words that have the same rhythm as the original word and are readily useable in ways that are familiar to us in everything from vers libre poetry to the lyrics and music of Bob Dylan and hip hop groups Professional writers and students have long used traditional rhyming dictionaries for inspiration by perusing lists of rhyming words they may ask themselves I need a word that rhymes with blue and are led to shoe flu or you These rhyming words evoke through juxtaposition new images thoughts and actions that inspire creative directions and pleasing twists as verses and stanzas unfold For the first time ever this dictionary now allows writers and poets to ask the same question but of word rhythm I need a word with the same rhythm as butterfly Today s lyricists and poets know that there is so much more to the flow of their creations than just matching vowels The Word Rhythm Dictionary organizes words by additional properties phonetic similarity alliteration and literary consonance the number of syllables in words and syllable stress patterns Never has it been easier to locate words that feature similar sounds matching meters and rhythmic grooves from traditional rhymes like clashing and splashing to near rhymes like rollover and bulldozer unrefuted undisputed to pure metrical matches like biology and photography Additional appendixes allow readers to search according to poetic metrical feet and musical rhythm through a visual index of notated rhythms allowing musicians and lyricists to track down words that match preexisting motives and melodies This book could become the new fun addiction or addiction affliction constriction conviction conniption prescription subscription conscription for writers musicians lyricists rappers poets and wordsmiths alike Oh and it s a lot of fun just to browse
